Strategic Marketing & Support Division - Office of International Affairs

Why Taiwan Matters

FEATURING PHILIP TZANN-YEU WANG, DIRECTOR GENERAL
TAIPEI ECONOMIC AND CULTURAL OFFICE IN HONOLULU

Philip T.Y. Wang was appointed Director General of the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in Honolulu in December 2004.

Prior to assuming this position, Director General Wang was assigned to consular and diplomatic posts in Atlanta, Miami, Washington D.C. and the Commonwealth of Dominica by the Republic of China (Taiwan) Foreign Services using his extensive experience in international affairs and agriculture.

Director General Wang will discuss the strength of Taiwan's economy and the latest development of cross-strait relations and how it can benefit Hawaii businesses.

- Is there a market for Hawaii products and services in Taiwan?
- What is the impact of direct flights across the Taiwan Strait?
- How can Taiwan be your entry point into the China market?

The mission of the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office is to promote exchanges and cooperation in trade and investment, science and technology, culture, education and tourism between Taiwan, Hawaii and American Samoa. The office also provides consular services and serves the interests of overseas compatriots living in and visiting Hawaii.
