

Dear Ms,

This planet advanced for centuries without drugging children.

Since this practice started, it seems to me that crime, violence and lowered ability and production have resulted.

I was an educator for 11 years and drugged children do not do well.

Carl Watts