Civil No. 1:08 cv 451
LD/TCB

STIPULATED JUDGMENT OF PERMANENT INJUNCTION AGAINST DEFENDANTS

Plaintiff United States of America and defendants John Thanh Hoang and Tax-Smart Technology Services (“defendants”) stipulate as follows:

1. The United States filed a complaint against defendants alleging that Hoang operated Tax-Smart Technology Services (“Tax Smart”) in a fashion that aided taxpayers to fraudulently reduce their federal income tax liability.
2. Defendants waive the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law.
3. Defendants understand that this Stipulated Judgment of Permanent Injunction constitutes the final judgment in this matter, and defendants waive any and all right to file an appeal from this judgment.
4. Defendants consent to the entry of this Stipulated Judgment of Permanent Injunction without further notice and agree to be bound by its terms. Defendants further understand and agree that the Court will retain jurisdiction over this matter for the purpose of implementing and enforcing this injunction, and understand that if they violate this injunction, they may be found to be in contempt of court and may be sanctioned or imprisoned.

Accordingly, in light of the foregoing, the Court hereby FINDS, ORDERS, and DECREES:

1. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1340 and 1345 and 26 U.S.C. (“I.R.C.”) §§ 7402(a), 7407(a), and 7408(a);

2. Defendants have consented to the entry of this Stipulated Judgment of Permanent Injunction and agree to be bound by its terms;

3. Pursuant to I.R.C. §§ 7402(a), 7407, and 7408, defendants, individually and through any other name or entity, their representatives, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and anyone in active concert or participation with them, are permanently enjoined from directly or indirectly:

A. Organizing, promoting, or selling business or tax services that facilitate or promote noncompliance with federal tax laws or understatement of federal tax liability;

B. Making false representations that:

(i) Customers or prospective customers may take business tax deductions without regard to whether the customer is engaged in a bona fide business activity;

(ii) Customers may claim a tax deduction for software depreciation under I.R.C. §§ 167(a), 167(f) or 197 without regard to the true value of the software or whether the software is used in a legitimate business venture;

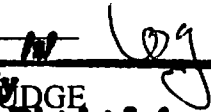

- C. Engaging in any activity subject to penalty under I.R.C. § 6700, which penalizes persons who make gross valuation overstatements regarding a material matter in connection with the organization, sale, or promotion of a plan or arrangement;
- D. Engaging in any activity subject to penalty under I.R.C. § 6700, which penalizes making or causing another to make, in connection with the organization, sale, or promotion of a plan or arrangement, a statement regarding the allowability of a deduction or credit, the excludability of income, or the securing of a tax benefit by reason of holding an interest or participating in a plan or arrangement, which statement the person knows or has reason to know is false as to a material matter;
- E. Preparing, or filing, or assisting in the preparation or filing of federal income tax returns for any person or entity other than themselves;
- F. Practicing or appearing as a representative on behalf of any person or organization whose tax liabilities are under examination or investigation by the IRS;
- G. Engaging in conduct subject to any penalty in the Internal Revenue Code or any other conduct that substantially interferes with the proper administration and enforcement of the internal revenue laws.

4. Defendants will cause a copy of this Stipulated Judgment of Permanent Injunction to appear on Tax Smart's website (www. taxsmart.info), in particular on its "Home" page (i.e., the first page visible when accessing the website), prominently featured at the top so it is visible.

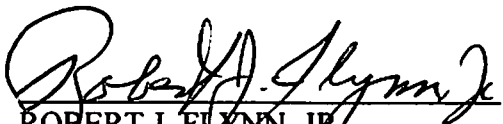

5. The United States shall be entitled to conduct discovery to monitor defendants' compliance with the terms of this Stipulated Judgment of Permanent Injunction. By April 30, 2008, Hoang will participate in an interview with representatives of the IRS and/or the Department of Justice to provide sworn testimony concerning persons promoting the same or similar tax strategies.

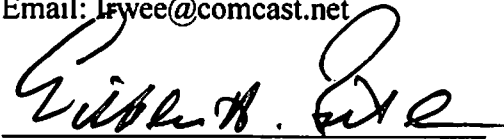

6. This Court shall retain jurisdiction over this matter and defendants for the purpose of enforcing this permanent injunction.

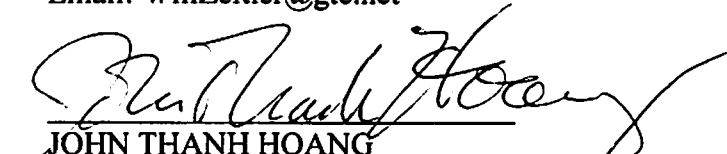

SO ORDERED, this 12th day of May, 2008.
