Carson Ranger District Has a New District Ranger

Carson City, Nevada...The Carson Ranger District is excited to introduce our new District Ranger, Genny Wilson. Genny will begin on March 31. She comes to the Carson Ranger District from the Humboldt-Toiyabe National Forest, Supervisor's Office in Sparks, Nevada, where she served as Wildlife Program Manager for the past eight years.

Genny has worked on many challenging projects in the eastern Sierra and throughout Nevada. Some of those projects include burned area rehabilitation, large timber sales, livestock grazing management, deer migration studies along highway 395, prescribed fire, and a variety of summer and winter recreation projects. She served as a temporary District Ranger in Carson City in 2005 and more recently in Las Vegas in 2007. Genny's broad experiences and familiarity to the issues and members of our community are sure to make her a valuable asset to the Carson Ranger District and to the Sierra Front.

Carson District Ranger

Genny has a Bachelor of Science degree in Wildlife Management from Humboldt State University and has worked for the US Forest Service as a wildlife biologist for more than 20 years. Her career with the Forest Service started on the Plumas National Forest in 1987.

Genny moved to Reno shortly after receiving her degree. She grew up in California and has two daughters who were born in Reno. Genny is an avid hiker and outdoor enthusiast. She replaces Gary Schiff, who was promoted last July to the Forest Service Headquarters in Washington, D.C.
