Mountain City Ranger District Participates in Take Pride in Your Community Cleanup, Greenup and Recycle

Elko, Nevada...Last Saturday, April 26, was "Take Pride in your Community Cleanup, Greenup, and Recycle Day" in Elko County. The Humboldt-Toiyabe National Forest participated by providing an appearance by Woodsy Owl and his helper.

Woodsy visited numerous areas where hard-working volunteers were picking up trash or beautifying flower boxes. For instance, Woodsy stopped by the Elko Senior Center and lent a hand to volunteers by raking a few weeds. After making the rounds in Elko, Woodsy went to Spring Creek to work alongside those volunteers, and thank them for their wonderful clean-up efforts.

Woodsy has participated in the last three events sponsored by Elko County. Assistant Elko City Manager Delmo Andreozzi always appreciates Woodsy's support in making this event extra special.
