

International Conference on Road Safety at Work
February 16-18, 2009
Marriott Wardman Park Hotel, Washington, DC USA

The International Conference on Road Safety at Work will provide a forum for business, labor, policy makers, and the research community to discuss strategies to prevent road traffic crashes, a leading cause of workplace death, injury, and disability in countries around the world. This is the first international conference dedicated to this important topic. Internationally recognized speakers will bring a wealth of knowledge and experience, and participants from around the world will offer delegates a unique opportunity to exchange ideas and forge partnerships.

The conference is being organized by the U.S. National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH) with co-sponsors: the World Health Organization, Pan American Health Organization, International Labour Organization, U.S. Department of State, and National Safety Council.

Agenda at a glance

- Keynote addresses
- Panel discussions from the perspectives of developed economies and emerging markets
- Breakout sessions covering topics such as:
