

Exhibit 57

DISMISSALS AND REVOCATIONS

In response to FCC Form 603, Item 57, Applicant has had no licenses revoked by the FCC. Applicant hereby provides the circumstances of various insignificant dismissals or denials of applications filed by the applicant and/or its affiliates.

Applicant and/or its affiliates hold many Federal Communications Commission (“Commission”) licenses primarily for Special Mobile Radio (“SMR”) systems, many authorizing several hundred channels in a station’s area of operation. From time to time, an application associated with one of these facilities may be dismissed by the FCC, in whole or in part, typically for technical reasons such as a mistake in calculating the SMR interference protection standards set forth in Sections 90.621(b) of the Commission’s Rules. To the best of Applicant’s knowledge, however, none of the above-referenced dismissals or revocations was based on a character issue as defined by the FCC’s Rules and policies. Therefore, the FCC should find the Applicant has the requisite basic qualifications to be awarded the grant of the instant application.
