Assistant Deputy Secretary

Dear Colleague:

Thank you for your interest in the Partnerships in Character Education program (CFDA 84.215S) funded by the U.S. Department of Education's Office of Safe and Drug-Free Schools.

This application package contains the instructions and forms needed to apply for the fiscal year 2008 Partnerships in Character Education program. Funds may be used for the development, implementation, and evaluation of character education programs developed by local and state education agencies. Please be sure that your application complies with all of the requirements for this competition.

We look forward to receiving your application.

Sincerely,

Deborah A. Price

IMPORTANT – PLEASE READ FIRST

U.S. Department of Education Grants.gov Submission Procedures and Tips for Applicants

To facilitate your use of Grants.gov, this document includes important submission procedures you need to be aware of to ensure your application is received in a timely manner and accepted by the Department of Education.

ATTENTION – Microsoft Vista and Word 2007 Users

Please note that Grants.gov does not currently support the new Microsoft Vista Operating system. The PureEdge software used by Grants.gov for forms is not compatible with Vista. Grants.gov will be reviewing this new product to determine if it can be supported in the future.

In addition, the new version of Microsoft Word saves documents with the extension .DOCX. The Grants.gov system does not process Microsoft Word documents with the extension.DOCX. When submitting Microsoft Word attachments to Grants.gov, please use the version of Microsoft Word that ends in .DOC. If you have any questions regarding this matter please email the Grants.gov Contact Center at support@grants.gov or call 1-800-518-4726.

- 1) REGISTER EARLY – Grants.gov registration may take five or more business days to complete. You may begin working on your application while completing the registration process, but you cannot submit an application until all of the Registration steps are complete. For detailed information on the Registration Steps, please go to: http://www.grants.gov/applicants/get\_registered.jsp. [Note: Your organization will need to update its Central Contractor Registry (CCR) registration annually.]
- 2) SUBMIT EARLY – We strongly recommend that you do not wait until the last day to submit your application. Grants.gov will put a date/time stamp on your application and then process it after it is fully uploaded. The time it takes to upload an application will vary depending on a number of factors including the size of the application and the speed of your Internet connection, and the time it takes Grants.gov to process the application will vary as well. If Grants.gov rejects your application (see step three below), you will need to resubmit successfully before 4:30:00 pm on the deadline date.

Note: To submit successfully, you must provide the DUNS number on your application that was used when your organization registered with the CCR (Central Contractor Registry).

- 3) VERIFY SUBMISSION IS OK – You will want to verify that Grants.gov and the Department of Education receive your Grants.gov submission timely and that it was validated successfully. To see the date/time your application was received, login to Grants.gov and click on the Track My Application link. For a successful submission, the date/time received should be earlier than 4:30:00 p.m. on the deadline date, AND the application status should be: Validated, Received by Agency, or Agency Tracking Number Assigned.

If the date/time received is later than 4:30:00 p.m. Washington, D.C. time, on the closing date, your application is late. If your application has a status of "Received" it is still awaiting validation by Grants.gov. Once validation is complete, the status will either change to "Validated" or "Rejected with Errors." If the status is "Rejected with Errors," your application has not been received successfully. Some of the reasons Grants.gov may reject an application can be found on the Grants.gov site: http://www.grants.gov/help/submit\_application\_faqs.jsp#10. For more detailed information on why an application may be rejected, you can review Application Error Tips <http://www.grants.gov/section910/ApplicationErrorTips.pdf>. If you discover your application is late or has been rejected, please see the instructions below. Note: You will receive a series of confirmations both online and via e-mail about the status of your application. Please do not rely solely on e-mail to confirm whether your application has been received timely and validated successfully.

Submission Problems – What should you do?

If you have problems submitting to Grants.gov before the closing date, please contact Grants.gov Customer Support at 1-800-518-4726 or use the customer support available on the Web site: http://www.grants.gov/applicants/applicant\_help.jsp.

If electronic submission is optional and you have problems that you are unable to resolve before the deadline date and time for electronic applications, please follow the transmittal instructions for hard copy applications in the Federal Register notice and get a hard copy application postmarked by midnight on the deadline date.

If electronic submission is required, you must submit an electronic application before 4:30:00 p.m., unless you follow the procedures in the Federal Register notice and qualify for one of the exceptions to the electronic submission requirement and submit, no later than two weeks before the application deadline date, a written statement to the Department that you qualify for one of these exceptions. (See the Federal Register notice for detailed instructions.)

Helpful Hints When Working with Grants.gov

Please note, once you download an application from Grants.gov, you will be working offline and saving data on your computer. Please be sure to note where you are saving the Grants.gov file on your computer. You will need to logon to Grants.gov to upload and submit the application. You must provide on your application the DUNS number that was used when your organization registered with the CCR.

Please go to http://www.grants.gov/applicants/applicant\_help.jsp for help with Grants.gov. For additional tips related to submitting grant applications, please refer to the Grants.gov Submit Application FAQs found on the Grants.gov http://www.grants.gov/help/submit\_application\_faqs.jsp.

Dial-Up Internet Connections

When using a dial up connection to upload and submit your application, it can take significantly longer than when you are connected to the Internet with a high-speed connection, e.g. cable modem/DSL/T1. While times will vary depending upon the size of your application, it can take a few minutes to a few hours to complete your grant submission using a dial up connection. If you do not have access to a high-speed connection and electronic submission is required, you may want to consider following the instructions in the Federal Register notice to obtain an exception to the electronic submission requirement no later than two weeks before the application deadline date. (See the Federal Register notice for detailed instructions.)

MAC Users

If you do not have a Windows operating System, you will need to use the Citrix solution discussed on Grants.gov or a Windows Emulation program to submit an application using Grants.gov. For additional information, review the FAQs for non-windows users http://www.grants.gov/resources/download\_software.jsp#non\_window. Also, to view white paper for Macintosh users published by Pure Edge go to the following link: <http://www.grants.gov/section678/PureEdgeSupportforMacintosh.pdf>, and/or contact Grants.gov Customer Support (<http://www.grants.gov/contactus/contactus.jsp>) for more information. If electronic submission is required and you are concerned about your ability to submit electronically as a non-windows user, please follow instructions in the Federal Register notice to obtain an exception to the electronic submission requirement no later than two weeks before the application deadline date. (See the Federal Register notice for detailed instructions.)

Attaching Files – Additional Tips

As described above applicants should not upload a Word 2007 (.docx) file when attaching narrative files to their application. In addition, please ensure that you only attach the Education approved file types detailed in the Federal Register application notice (.doc, .pdf or .rtf). Grants.gov cannot process an application that includes two or more files that have the same name within a grant submission. Finally, when attaching files, applicants should limit the size of their file names. Lengthy file names could result in difficulties with opening and processing your application. We recommend that you keep your file names to less than 50 characters.

This grant competition is authorized under Title V, Part D, Subpart 3, Section 5431 of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (ESEA), as amended by the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (Public Law 107-110).

Note to Applicants

This is a complete application package for the PCEP. Together with the statute authorizing the program and the Education Department General Administrative Regulations (EDGAR) governing the program, this package contains all of the information, application forms, and instructions needed to apply for this grant.

The official document governing this grant competition is the Notice Inviting Applications published in the Federal Register (See Legal and Regulatory Documents Section in this application package). The notice is available on the Internet at the following addresses:

<http://www.ed.gov/legislation/FedRegister/index.html> and www.gpoaccess.gov/nara and <http://www.cetac.org>

Applicants should clearly indicate in Block #4 of the Standard Form 424, the CFDA number and alpha suffix of this competition 84.215S.

Resources

Any questions related to this grant competition should be directed to Sharon J. Burton of the Office of Safe and Drug-Free Schools (OSDFS) at (202) 205-8122 or by email at sharon.burton@ed.gov. Additional information about the Department of Education's PCEP grant competition may be found at <http://www.ed.gov/programs/charactered/index.html>.

The U.S. Department of Education will host a series of Grant Question and Answer teleconferences to answer questions about the PCEP grant competition. For dial-in information and a complete list of teleconference dates and times, please visit: <http://www.ed.gov/programs/charactered/index.html>.

For more information and resources about the PCEP grant competition, you may contact the Department's Character and Civic Education Technical Assistance Resource Center at 866-40-CETAC (23822) or visit the Web site at <http://www.cetac.org>.

Project Period

Projects will be funded for up to 48 months (4 budget periods of 12 months each), of which no more than 12 months may be used for planning and program design. Grants awarded under this program will be funded for one year at a time. Decisions regarding additional years of funding for all grant awards will be made on the basis of such factors as: a) whether or not grantees have made substantial progress towards achieving the goals and objectives of their project; and b) availability of funds. We suggest developing a timeline that starts on July 1, 2008 and runs through June 30, 2012.

Note: Applicants requesting four-year projects must submit ED Form 524 and a detailed budget narrative for each of the four years. Failure to submit ED Form 524 and a detailed budget narrative for each of the proposed project years will result in no funds being awarded for those years.

Please note that ED is not bound by any estimates contained in this application package.

Estimated Range of Awards

It is estimated that a total of 2 new awards will be made under this competition. The estimated range of awards to SEAs is $500,000 to $750,000 for each 12-month budget period. For LEAs, the estimated range of awards is $250,000 to $500,000 for each 12 month budget period. Pursuant to Section 5431(a)(4) of the ESEA, SEAs must propose a total budget that is $500,000 or more for a single budget period. This restriction does not apply to applications from LEAs. These figures are only estimates and do not bind the Department of Education to a specific number of grants. We expect that applicants who request funding at the higher end of these ranges will address the competitive preference priority to implement experimental or quasi-experimental evaluation designs.

In making awards under this program, the Secretary will consider the rank order of applicants and, to the extent practicable, ensure that awards under this program are equitably distributed among the geographic regions of the United States and among urban, suburban, and rural areas. Contingent upon the availability of funds, the Secretary may make additional awards in fiscal year 2009 or 2010 from the rank-ordered list of nonfunded applications from this competition.

Priorities

The FY 2008 PCEP competition includes one absolute priority, one competitive preference priority and one invitational priority. The responses to each priority should be identified within the Abstract of the Project Narrative. If you are using Grants.gov, responses to the selection criteria are uploaded in the Project Narrative Attachment Form. You may address the selection criteria in the abstract, but the actual responses to selection criteria are in the Project Narrative Attachment Form Section or, for hard copy applications, the Project Narrative Section.

Limitation on Administrative Costs

An SEA may use not more than three percent (3%) of the total funds received in any fiscal year for administrative purposes. This requirement does not apply to LEAs.

Indirect Costs

An applicant funded under this competition that wishes to recover indirect costs incurred for this project must use its negotiated indirect cost rate.

Application Due Date

All applications submitted electronically through theGrants.gov system must be submitted by March 31, 2008 at 4:30:00 p.m. Eastern Time to be eligible for review. The U.S. Department of Education's Application Control Center must receive applications delivered by hand no later than 4:30 PM Washington, DC time on March 31, 2008. Applications sent by U.S. Mail must be postmarked on or before March 31, 2008 to be eligible for review. Applications may not be emailed or faxed.

Under very extraordinary circumstances, the Department may change the closing date for a competition. When this occurs, we announce such a change in a notice published in the Federal Register. Waivers for individual applications failing to meet the deadline will not be granted, except in the circumstances described in the section under electronic submission of applications.

Required Meetings

Meeting #1: Project Director Orientation Meeting

This one-day Project Director Orientation Meeting is intended to provide the grant Project Director with key information needed to manage and implement a discretionary grant awarded by the U. S. Department of Education. This meeting will be held within the first six months of the grant period.

Required Participant: Grant Project Director

Expenses for this meeting include:

- Round-trip airfare for one participant to Washington, D.C.;
- Lodging expenses for one participant for two nights in Washington, D.C.;
- Per diem expenses for one participant for three days in Washington, D.C.;
- and
- Funds for local ground transportation.

Meeting #2: PCEP Annual Grantee Meeting

This two-day meeting will provide participants with information related to implementation and evaluation of character education programs at the state and local levels.

Required Participants: Project Director and Lead Evaluator

Expenses for this meeting include:

- Round-trip airfare for two participants to Washington, D.C.;
- Lodging expenses for two participants for three nights in Washington, D.C.;
- Per diem expenses for two participants for four days in Washington, D.C.; and
- Funds for local ground transportation.

NOTE: All meetings will be held in the same hotel where participants will be staying, or within easy walking/shuttle distance. Therefore, costs for rental cars are not necessary. This meeting is held on an annual basis.

Attendance at both meetings by the required project staff is a PCEP grant requirement. All PCEP grantees regardless of size or location are required to meet this requirement. Grantees are also expected to attend the meetings in their entirety. Grantee participants that arrive late at the meeting, leave the meeting early, or fail to send the required project participants, will not be in compliance with this requirement. Cost for these meetings are to be included in the application budget on an annual basis.

Project Director

Applicants must provide the name of the person who will serve as project director, and indicate the percentage of the person's time that will be devoted to the grant. For example, if the Project Director works 40 hours per week and spends 20 hours per week on the project for PCEP grant activities, then the time commitment for the Project Director would be 50 percent. We suggest that applicants include this information in the budget narrative, or add the information to the Project Director line on the Department of Education Supplement to the SF424.

Applicant Contact Information

As part of our review of your application, we may need to contact you with questions for clarification. Please be sure your application contains valid telephone numbers and e-mail addresses for the project director, authorized representative, and any other party designated to answer questions in the event the project director and authorized representative are unavailable.

Page Limit

Applicants are strongly encouraged to limit the application narrative to the equivalent of no more than 25 pages. The 25-page limit only applies to the response to the selection criteria.

Review of Applications and Notification of Awards

A panel of non-federal evaluators reviews each application. Each reviewer will prepare a written evaluation of the application and assign points for each selection criterion. The review of applications and notifications of awards for this grant competition requires approximately six to eight weeks. We expect to notify successful applicants by late June 2008.

The Department's Office of Legislation and Congressional Affairs will inform the Congress regarding applicants selected to receive new PCEP grants. Successful applicants will receive award notices by mail shortly after the Congress is notified. No funding information will be released before the Congress is notified.

Unsuccessful applicants will be notified in writing within 60 days of the award start date, following the notice to successful applicants. All applicants (successful and unsuccessful) will receive copies of reviewers' scores and comments.

Expectations of Grantees

By submitting an application for this grant competition, applicants agree to fully cooperate with any evaluation efforts conducted by ED and its contractors. At a minimum, grantees are expected to maintain records on how their program is operating; maintain records on the extent to which their program objectives are being met; include specific performance measures in their evaluation plan; and make ongoing project information, findings, and products available to ensure the dissemination of knowledge gained from this effort during the grant period.

Performance Reports

All PCEP grantees are encouraged to submit annual and final project performance reports using the ED 524B form and the E-grants electronic reporting system. The e-Grants reporting system may be accessed at <http://e-grants.ed.gov>. The ED 524B form may be accessed at <http://www.ed.gov/fund/grant/apply/appforms/appforms.html>.

The ED 524B form contains four sections. The Executive Summary provides an overview of your grant. Section A is for project objectives and performance measures, Section B is for budget information, and Section C is for additional information and/or changes to the grant.

If grantees elect not to submit their report electronically, they may submit a hard copy of these reports to their assigned program officer by the required date. These performance reports will assist PCEP staff in determining whether or not the PCEP project is making substantial progress toward meeting the approved project objectives. Project directors will be responsible for submitting annual and final project performance reports.

Evaluation Reports

In addition to the annual performance report, each eligible entity receiving a grant under this program is required to submit a comprehensive evaluation of the grant project, including its impact on students, students with disabilities (including those with mental or physical disabilities), teachers, administrators, parents and others to the Department of Education:

- by the end of the second year of the project; and
- not later than 1 year after the completion of the grant period.

Factors that may be considered in evaluating the success of projects funded under this program include the following:

- A. Discipline issues
- B. Student academic achievement
- C. Participation in extracurricular activities
- D. Parental and community involvement
- E. Faculty and administration involvement
- F. Student and staff morale; and
Overall improvements in school climate for all students, including students with disabilities (including those with mental or physical disabilities).

Human Subjects Research Activities

Please see Item 3 of the Instructions for Supplemental Information for Standard Form 424 in Section IV of this application package. Projects funded under this grant competition may be subject to protection of human subjects research requirements. If you have any questions about your responsibilities under these requirements, please contact ED's protection of human subjects coordinator at (202) 245-6153.

Contracting for Services

Generally, all procurement transactions by State or local educational agencies made with Partnerships in Character Education (PCEP) grant funds must be conducted in a manner providing full and open competition, consistent with the standards in Section 80.36 of the Education Department General Administrative Regulations (EDGAR). This section requires that grantees use their own procurement procedures (which reflect State and local laws and regulations) to select contractors, provided that those procedures meet certain standards described in EDGAR.

Because grantees must use appropriate procurement procedures to select contractors, applicants should not include information in their grant applications about specific contractors that may be used to provide services or goods for the proposed project if a grant is awarded. However, with respect to the competitive priority for this grant competition, please make special note of the following instructions that are contained in the Federal Register Notice Requesting Applications.

Note: Due to the very short time frame that applicants have to select a proposed evaluator for the required competitive priority, we remind applicants that they can, under 34 CFR 80.36, use informal procedures to select a proposed contractor for this purpose. For example, §80.36 authorizes simple informal procedures to select contractors for contracts under the simplified acquisition threshold of $100,000. 34 CFR 80.36(d)(1). The regulations only require that you request offers from an adequate number of sources.

In addition, even if you expect that the evaluation of your project would cost more than $100,000, the regulations recognize special cases where a contractor must be selected within a very limited time period. Again, you need to request proposals from an adequate number of qualified sources and select the contractor, whose proposal is most advantageous to the program, considering price and other selection factors. In these situations, if informal solicitation does not result in an adequate number of proposals, you may select a single bidder so long as you document the facts that formed the basis for your decision. 34 CFR 80.36(d)(1), (3) & (4).

Definitions

The following definitions apply to this competition:

Local Education Agency (LEA) is defined under the No Child Left Behind Act, Sec. 9101 as:

- A. In General. A public board of education or other public authority legally constituted within a State for either administrative control of or direction of, or to perform service functions for public elementary schools or secondary schools in a city, county, township, school district, or other political subdivision of a State, or such combination of school districts or counties that is recognized in a State as an administrative agency for its public elementary schools or secondary schools; or
- B. Administrative Control and Direction. The term includes any other public institution or agency having administrative control and direction of a public elementary school or secondary school; or
- C. BIA Schools. The term includes an elementary school or secondary school funded by the Bureau of Indian Affairs but only to the extent that including the school makes the school eligible for programs for which specific eligibility is not provided to the school in another provision of law and the school does not have a student population that is smaller than the student population of the local educational agency receiving assistance under this Act with the smallest student population, except that the school shall not be subject to the jurisdiction of any State educational agency other than the Bureau of Indian Affairs; or
- D. Educational Service Agencies. The term includes educational service agencies and consortia of those agencies; or
- E. State Educational Agency. The term includes the State educational agency in a State in which the State educational agency is the sole educational agency for all public schools.

Definitions (con't.)

State Educational Agency (SEA) is defined as:

The term "State education agency" means the agency primarily responsible for the State supervision of public elementary schools and secondary schools. In absence of this officer or agency, it is an officer or agency designated by the Governor or State law.

The Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA)

The Government Performance and Results Act of 1993 (GPRA) is designed to address problems identified by the Congress more than a decade ago, including lack of performance data that can be used by federal program managers to improve program efficiency and effectiveness, and by Congress to ensure that spending decisions and oversight are informed by information about program performance. GPRA seeks to: improve public confidence in the capability of the federal government by systematically holding federal agencies accountable for achieving results; promote an increased focus on results and service quality; and, help federal managers improve program quality.

As required by GPRA, the Department of Education (ED) has developed a strategic plan that reflects organizational priorities and integrates those with our mission and program authorities. We also have developed GPRA measures for the individual programs we administer, including the PCEP. The GPRA measures for this program are:

1. The percentage of Character Education projects that use an experimental or quasi- experimental design for their evaluation.
2. The percentage of Character Education projects that use an experimental or quasi-experimental design for their evaluation that are conducted successfully, and that yield scientifically valid results.

The GPRA measures identified for the PCEP grants constitute the way in which we will measure the success of this initiative. Consequently, applicants for a grant under this program should give careful consideration to these measures in developing their projects, and particularly to how they will collect and report data for these measures.

Grantees will be expected to provide timely and accurate information, including any data that are necessary to track progress against these program performance measures. We may use these data in developing future budget proposals. We will also share these performance data with Congress. We may also publish results from individual grants to illustrate how grant sites are obtaining and utilizing scientifically valid evaluation results. However, please note that the Department is primarily interested in demonstrating when and how projects successfully conduct evaluations that yield valid results – whether such results show positive effects or not.

Tips for Preparing and Submitting an Application

A. Before You Begin

- Read this application package carefully and make sure you follow all of the instructions.
- Use the tools we have provided to help you including:
  - Frequently Asked Questions section in this application package;
  - Resources related to this grant competition on our Web site at <http://www.ed.gov/osdfs> or visit the Character Education and Civic Engagement Technical Assistance Center Web site at <http://www.cetac.org>;
  - General grant application technical assistance resources on our Web site at <http://www.ed.gov/admins/grants/apply/techassist/index.html>.
- If there is information that you do not understand, contact the competition manager for this grant competition.

B. Preparing Your Application

- Make sure you are thorough in your project description design and evaluation. Write so that someone who knows nothing about your organization or your project plan can understand what you are proposing.
- Organize your application according to the selection criteria for this grant competition and respond comprehensively.
- Be sure your application includes a budget request (ED Form 524) for up to four 12-month periods, and that you have completed the budget narrative.
- Make sure your budget narrative provides enough detail about planned expenditures so ED staff can easily determine how the funds will be spent.
- Link your planned expenditures to the goals and objectives of your project. Do not request funds for miscellaneous purposes and make sure you demonstrate that your proposed expenditures are necessary to carry out your project.

C. Submitting Your Application

- Use the checklist in this booklet to make sure your application is complete before it is submitted.
- Make sure all required forms are signed by an authorized representative of your organization and included.
- Transmit your application by the deadline date. If you submit your application electronically, you must use the Grants.gov Web site. If you use the U.S. Postal Service, make sure you have a legible postmark date. If you use an overnight carrier, make sure you obtain a receipt.

D. Next Steps

- If you submit your application by mail, you should receive a postcard in approximately two weeks (depending on the volume of applications that we receive) from ED's Application Control Center acknowledging receipt of your application and giving you its assigned number. If you submit your application electronically, the PR/Award number will be generated automatically when you submit your application. Please refer to this PR/Award number if you need to contact us about your application.
- Your application will be screened by the Office of Safe and Drug-Free Schools (OSDFS) staff to ensure that all program eligibility requirements are met, and all required forms are included and signed by the Authorized Representative.
- Your application will be assigned to a three-person panel of independent reviewers who evaluate and score your proposal according to the selection criteria in this application package. Your proposal will receive a score from 0 to 100 depending upon how well you respond to the requirements of the selection criteria. If you apply for consideration for the competitive preference priority, your proposal can receive a score up to 20 additional points, depending on the evaluation design proposed for the project.
- A grant award document will be sent to applicants whose proposals receive a score within the funding range. Unsuccessful applicants will receive a notification letter. Both successful and unsuccessful applicants will receive copies of the comments prepared by the peer reviewers. Please be sure your application contains valid e-mail and mailing address for both the Project Director and Authorized Representative.

Partnerships in Character Education Program

President George W. Bush said: “Teaching is more than training, and learning is more than literacy. Our children must be educated in reading and writing—but also in right and wrong.” President Bush also quoted the late Martin Luther King, Jr., who said, “Intelligence plus character—that is the true goal of education.”

Since 2002, through the PCEP, (under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) as amended by the No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB), the Secretary has been authorized to award grants to eligible entities to design and implement character education projects. The program supports character education projects that are integrated into regular classroom instruction, are consistent with State academic content standards, and are consistent with other educational reform efforts. Projects supported under this program should help students develop good character by teaching character elements such as caring, civic virtue, and citizenship, justice and fairness, respect, responsibility, trustworthiness, giving, or other elements of character. Projects must take into consideration the view of parents, students, students with disabilities (including those with mental or physical disabilities), and other members of the community, including members of private and nonprofit organizations, in the design and implementation of the character education project(s).

Absolute Priority

This competition includes one absolute priority, one competitive preference priority, and one invitational priority that are explained in the following paragraphs. To be considered for funding, each applicant must address the absolute priority. Under 34 CFR 75.105 (c) (3), Title V-Part D, Subpart 3, Section 5431, the Secretary gives an absolute preference to applications that meet the following priority:

Absolute Priority: Design and Implement Character Education Programs

Under this absolute priority, grant applicants must design and implement character education programs that are able to be:

1. integrated into classroom instruction and consistent with State academic content standards; and
2. carried out in conjunction with other educational reform efforts.

Competitive Preference Priority

In the interest of promoting the use of rigorous scientifically based research methods for evaluating the effectiveness of Partnerships in Character Education projects, we will award up to an additional 20 points to applicants that meet the following competitive preference priority:

Competitive Preference Priority: The evaluations for projects under the competitive preference priority will utilize an experimental or quasi-experimental design to evaluate program effectiveness.

When using the priority to give competitive preference to an application, the Secretary will review applications using a two-stage process. In the first stage, the application will be reviewed without taking the priority into account. In the second stage of review, the applications rated highest in stage one will be reviewed for competitive preference. Under this priority, we give a total of up to 20 points to an applicant if they are proposing to use an experimental or quasi-experimental design.

Note: In general, depending on the implemented program or project, under a competitive preference priority, random assignment evaluation methods will receive more points than matched comparison evaluation methods.

Evaluation methods using an experimental design are best for determining project effectiveness. Thus, when feasible, the project should use an experimental design under which participants—e.g., students, teachers, classrooms, or schools—are randomly assigned to participate in the project activities being evaluated or to a control group that does not participate in the project activities being evaluated. If random assignment is not feasible, the project may use a quasi-experimental design with carefully matched comparison conditions. This alternative design attempts to approximate a randomly assigned control group by matching participants—e.g., students, teachers, classrooms, or schools—with non-participants having similar pre-program characteristics.

In cases where random assignment is not possible and participation in the intervention is determined by a specified cutting point on a quantified continuum of scores, regression discontinuity designs may be employed.

For projects that are focused on special populations in which sufficient number of participants are not available to support random assignment or matched comparisons group designs, single-subject designs such as multiple baseline or treatment-reversal or interrupted time series that are capable of demonstrating casual relationships can be employed.

Proposed evaluation strategies that use neither experimental designs with random assignment nor quasi-experimental designs using a matched comparison group nor regression discontinuity designs will not be considered responsive to the priority when sufficient numbers of participants are available to support these designs.

Evaluation strategies that involve too small a number of participants to support group designs must be capable of demonstrating the casual effects of an intervention or program on those participants.

The proposed evaluation plan should describe how the project evaluator will collect—before the project intervention commences and after it ends—valid and reliable data that measure the impact of participation in the program or in the comparison group.

In determining the quality of the proposed evaluation method and awarding points under the competitive preference priority, we will consider the extent to which the applicant presents a feasible, credible plan that includes details such as the following:

- (1) The type of design to be used (that is, random assignment or matched comparison). If matched comparison, include in the plan a discussion of why random assignment is not feasible.
- (2) Outcomes to be measured.
- (3) A discussion of how the applicant plans to assign students, teachers, classrooms, or schools to the project and control group or match them for comparison with other students, teachers, classrooms, or schools.
- (4) A proposed evaluator, preferably independent, with the necessary background and technical expertise to carry out the proposed evaluation. An independent evaluator does not have any authority over the project and is not involved in its implementation.

Definitions

For the purpose of this competition, the terms used in this competitive preference priority have the following definitions

Scientifically based research (section 9101(37) NCLB):

- (A) Means research that involves the application of rigorous, systematic, and objective procedures to obtain reliable and valid knowledge relevant to education activities and programs; and
- (B) Includes research that--
  - (i) Employs systematic, empirical methods that draw on observation or experiment;
  - (ii) Involves rigorous data analyses that are adequate to test the stated hypotheses and justify the general conclusions drawn;
  - (iii) Relies on measurements or observational methods that provide reliable and valid data across evaluators and observers, across multiple measurements and observations, and across studies by the same or different investigators;
  - (iv) Is evaluated using experimental or quasi-experimental designs in which individuals entities, programs, or activities are assigned to different conditions and with appropriate controls to evaluate the effects of the condition of interest, with a preference for random-assignment experiments, or other designs to the extent that those designs contain within-condition or across-condition controls;
  - (v) Ensures that experimental studies are presented in sufficient detail and clarity to allow for replication or, at a minimum, offer the opportunity to build systematically on their findings; and
  - (vi) Has been accepted by a peer-reviewed journal or approved by a panel of independent experts through a comparably rigorous, objective, and scientific review.

Random assignment or experimental design means random assignment of students, teachers, classrooms, or schools to participate in a project being evaluated (treatment group) or not participate in the project (control group). The effect of the project is the difference in outcomes between the treatment and control groups.

Quasi-experimental designs include several designs that attempt to approximate a random assignment design.

Carefully matched comparison groups design means a quasi-experimental design in which project participants are matched with non-participants based on key characteristics that are thought to be related to the outcome.

Regression discontinuity design means a quasi-experimental design that closely approximates an experimental design. In a regression discontinuity design, participants are assigned to a treatment or control group based on a numerical rating or score of a variable unrelated to the treatment such as the rating of an application for funding. Eligible students, teachers, classrooms, or schools above a certain score ("cut score") are assigned to the treatment group and those below the score are assigned to the control group. In the case of the scores of applicants' proposals for funding, the "cut score" is established at the point where the program funds available are exhausted.

Single subject design means a design that relies on the comparison of treatment effects on a single subject or group of single subjects. There is little confidence that findings based on this design would be the same for other members of the population.

Treatment reversal design means a single subject design in which a pre-treatment or baseline outcome measurement is compared with a post-treatment measure. Treatment would then be stopped for a period of time, a second baseline measure of the outcome would be taken, followed by a second application of the treatment or a different treatment. For example, this design might be used to evaluate a behavior modification program for disabled students with behavior disorders.

Multiple baseline design means a single subject design to address concerns about the effects of normal development, timing of the treatment, and amount of the treatment with treatment-reversal designs by using a varying time schedule for introduction of the treatment and/or treatments of different lengths or intensity.

Interrupted time series design means a quasi-experimental design in which the outcome of interest is measured multiple times before and after the treatment for program participants only.

Requesting Competitive Preference

Applicants responding to the competitive preference priority should indicate that in the project Abstract (see Priorities, Page 10)

Invitational Priority

Inclusion of Faith-based and Community Organizations

The Secretary is especially interested in applications that propose to engage faith-based and community organizations in the planning and development of character education programs and the delivery of services under this program.

Under 34 CFR 75.105(c)(1) we do not give an application that meets this invitational priority a competitive or absolute preference over other applications.

Selection Criteria

The following selection criteria will be used to evaluate applications under this grant competition. The maximum number of possible points for each criterion is indicated in parentheses. The maximum score for all of these criteria is 100 points.

1. Quality of the Project Design (30 points)

In determining the quality of the project design, we will consider the following sub criteria:

- (a) The extent to which the goals, objectives, and outcomes to be achieved by the proposed project are clearly specified and measurable. (10 points)
- (b) The extent to which the design for implementing and evaluating the proposed project will result in information to guide possible replication of project activities or strategies, including information about the effectiveness of the approach or strategies employed by the project. (10 points)
- (c) The extent to which the proposed project is designed to build capacity and yield results that will extend beyond the period of Federal financial assistance. (10 points)

Notes: Reviewers will look for a thorough description for the project including how the applicant will meet all requirements of the Absolute Priority (see page 20). The design should clearly describe activities, services and training to be provided by the project and the specific approaches to be used to meet the needs of the target population, including those of diverse cultural populations, if applicable. The sustainability plan for the program will be strongly considered, in terms of the development of an infrastructure that ensures that the program will be integrated within the existing district or state school curriculum.

2. Quality of the Management Plan (25 points)

In determining the quality of the management plan to be implemented by the proposed project, we will consider the following sub criteria:

- (a) The adequacy of the management plan to achieve the objectives of the proposed project on time and within budget, including clearly defined responsibilities, timelines, and milestones for accomplishing project tasks. (15 points)
- (b) How the applicant will ensure that a diversity of perspectives are brought to bear in the operation of the proposed project, including those of parents, teachers, the business community, a variety of disciplinary and professional fields, students including students with disabilities (mental and physical) or others as appropriate. (10 points)

Notes: Applicants should describe partnerships or collaborative efforts among the organizations and entities of the grantees and how parents, students and members of the community are involved in the design and implementation of the program. Applicants should also describe the curriculum and instructional practice that will be used or developed; methods of teacher training and parent education that will be used or developed; and how the program for which the grant is sought will be linked to other efforts to improve academic achievement, including broader educational reforms being instituted by the applicant or its partners, and State academic content standards. Applicants that are SEAs should also describe how they will provide technical and professional assistance to LEA partners in the development and implementation of character education program; and will assist other local educational agencies that are not members of the original partnership in designing and establishing character education programs.

3. Quality of Project Personnel (15 points)

In determining the quality of project personnel to manage the proposed project, we will consider the following sub criteria:

- (a) The extent to which the applicant encourages applications for employment from persons who are members of groups that have traditionally been underrepresented based on race, color, national origin, gender, age or disability. (10 points)
- (b) The qualifications, including relevant training and experience, of key project personnel. (5 points)

Note: Reviewers will look for evidence that the applicant has the personnel qualified to develop, implement, and administer the proposed project, including the project evaluation. If personnel have not been hired, the applicant should provide a job description regarding the duties of the position(s) and qualifications.

4. Quality of Project Evaluation (30 points)

In determining the quality of the project evaluation to be conducted by the proposed project, we will consider the following sub criteria:

- (a) The extent to which the methods of evaluation include the use of objective performance measures that are clearly related to the intended outcomes of the project and will produce quantitative and qualitative data to the extent possible. (10 points)
- (b) The extent to which the methods of evaluation will provide performance feedback and permit periodic assessment of progress toward achieving intended outcomes. (10 points)
- (c) The extent to which the evaluation will provide guidance about effective strategies suitable for replication or testing in other settings. (10 points)

Notes: Reviewers will look for a detailed description of the evaluation plan that includes the methods to be used to evaluate the outcomes and effectiveness of the project, including the applicant's plan to address the Government Performance and Results (GPRA) measures established for this program. Under this criterion applicants should demonstrate that the proposed project has clear objectives that are based on scientifically based research. Applicants may consider the following factors in identifying their project goals and desired outcomes: discipline issues; student academic achievement; participation in extracurricular activities; parental and community involvement; faculty and administration involvement; student and staff morale; and overall improvements in school climates for all students, including students with disabilities (including those with mental and physical disabilities).

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the purpose of this grant competition?

The purpose of this program is to provide grants to eligible entities to assist them in designing and implementing character education programs that teach students elements of character such as caring, civic virtues and citizenship, justice and fairness, respect, responsibility, trustworthiness, giving or any other elements deemed appropriate by the eligible entity. The character education programs supported must be programs that can be integrated in classroom instruction; consistent with state academic content standards; can be carried out in conjunction with other educational reform efforts; and include the input of parents, students, students with disabilities (including those with mental or physical disabilities), and other members of the community in the design and implementation.

Who is eligible to apply?

Eligible applicants under this grant competition include the following

- (A.) An SEA in partnership with one or more LEAs;
- (B.) An SEA in partnership with one or more LEAs and nonprofit organizations or entities, including an institution of higher education (IHE); an LEA or consortium of LEAs; or
- (C.) An LEA or consortium of LEAs.
- (D.) An LEA in partnership with one or more nonprofit organizations or entities, including an IHE.

Can I submit an application on behalf of my local school?

The only eligible recipients are SEAs, LEAs, and Tribal Organizations. One of these entities must be the applicant for funding. An application submitted by an individual school will not be considered unless it meets the definition of a local educational agency under State law.

Are nonprofit organizations eligible to apply for this grant?

Nonprofit or community-based organizations are generally not considered SEAs or LEAs, thus are not eligible for this grant. Only entities that meet the definition of one of these entities may receive funding under this program. An LEA or SEA in partnership with a nonprofit is eligible to apply, however the LEA or SEA would serve as the fiscal agent for the grant.

Are colleges/universities eligible to apply for this grant?

Colleges and universities are generally not considered SEAs or LEAs, thus are not eligible for this grant. An LEA or SEA in partnership with an institution of higher education (IHE) is eligible to apply, however the LEA or SEA must serve as the fiscal agent for the grant.

Are charter schools eligible for this program?

Charter schools that are considered LEAs under State law are eligible to apply for funding under this program.

What steps can I take to maximize my chances of receiving a grant?

- Before preparing your application, read the application package carefully and completely.
- Follow all of the instructions exactly.
- If you're uncertain about any aspects of this application package, please contact the competition manager for grant competition clarification.
- Absolute priorities establish the parameters for applications under a grant competition. If your application does not meet the absolute priority or the additional requirements for this grant competition, it will not be considered for funding.
- A panel of three persons from the character education and related fields as well as expertise in program evaluation will review your application. Be sure to organize your application clearly, provide requested information in a comprehensive manner, and respond to each selection criterion thoroughly. Reviewers are not permitted to give you "the benefit of the doubt"; therefore, if information is not in your application, reviewers cannot award points for it.
- A second panel of three persons with expertise in program evaluation and research in character education and related fields will review your application if you request consideration under the competitive preference priority. Be sure to pay close attention to the Competitive Preference Priority (see Page 21) to provide a clear description of the evaluation plan proposed.
- Be sure that your application includes a budget request (ED Form 524) and complete narrative justification for each of the proposed project years.
- Transmit your application on or before the deadline of March 31, 2008.

In the Application Package Contracting for Services Section it states "applicants should not include information in their grant applications about specific contractors that may be used to provide services or goods for the proposed project if a grant is awarded". Does this mean that we cannot name the specific character education resource we have proposed for the project?

If the chosen character education resource is truly unique and genuinely only available through one sole resource (i.e. there is no equal product that can be obtained from another source) then the application can state the specific name of the resource that will be used. If the resource is available through a variety of vendors then the application needs to state that full and open competition will be followed in the final selection of vendor if a grant is received.

Am I required to respond to the competitive preference priority?

Your inclusion of information that responds to the competitive preference priority is entirely optional; however, applicants who meet the competitive preference priority could be awarded up to 20 extra points.

How much money is available under this grant competition?

It is estimated that $1,106,865 will be available in FY2008 for this competition.

How many new awards will be made?

It is estimated that 2 new awards will be made.

What is the average amount of each grant?

SEA projects will be funded for approximately $500,000-$750,000 for each 12-month budget period. LEA projects will be funded for approximately $250,000 to $500,000 for each 12-month period. SEAs must submit a proposed budget of not less than $500,000 for each budget period or will not be considered. This not a requirement for LEAs. These figures are only estimates and do not bind the U.S. Department of Education to a specific number of grants or amount of any award.

Is there a matching requirement for this grant program?

There is no requirement for matching funds for this program.

What is an indirect cost rate?

An indirect cost is an expense you incur that is necessary to implement the grant, but may be difficult to identify directly with your grant. For example, indirect costs may include money spent for heat, light, rent, telephone, security, accounting, and Internet use.

If your organization prefers to use all of its grant funds for direct project costs, you are not required to charge the grant for indirect costs.

May I charge indirect costs under this grant?

Yes. In order to do so, you must have negotiated an indirect cost rate with your cognizant Federal agency. For more information about indirect cost rates, visit www.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocfo/intro.html

Most LEAs have an indirect rate provided by their State Educational Agency that may be used for this grant. Check with your finance office to see if your district has a rate.

What is the project and budget period for these grants?

Up to 48 months, of which no more than 12 months may be used for planning and program design.

What should I use as the start date?

Should you receive a grant, the start date for a project may have to be flexible, depending on when funds can be awarded. See page 9 for the suggested start date.

How should we determine the elements of character to be taught in our program?

Each eligible entity awarded a grant under this competition may select elements of character that will be taught under the program for which the grant was awarded. In selecting elements of character, the grantee should consider the views of the parents, students and the community.

Example elements of character that may be used include any of the following:

- Caring;
- Civic virtue and citizenship;
- Justice and fairness;
- Respect;
- Responsibility;
- Trustworthiness;
- Giving; and
- Any other elements deemed appropriate by the grantee.

Can grant funds be used to support professional development activities?

Yes, as long as the activities directly support the purposes of the grant.

What kinds of activities are likely to be “human subjects research”?

ED’s regulations for the protection of human subjects, 34 CFR Part 97, defines research as a systematic investigation (including program evaluation) designed to develop or contribute to general knowledge. A “systematic” investigation typically uses scientific methods (such as adequate sample sizes, surveys, control groups, and/or randomization). Research becomes “human subjects” research when the researcher obtains data about an individual through a process. Applicants must also follow the requirements for the Protection of Pupil Rights Amendment (PPRA).

For further guidance and information about PPRA, please go to the Department’s Family Policy Compliance Office Web site at <http://www.ed.gov/policy/gen/guid/fpc/index.html>. For additional information on human subjects research, please go to the Department’s Human Subject’s Office Web site at <http://www.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocfo/humansub.html>

If human subjects research activities are planned, what should the applicant do?

- Grants under this program that involve nonexempt human subjects research will need to obtain a federal wide assurance to abide by the Department's regulations for protection of human subjects in research and be reviewed by an Institutional Review Board (IRB) before beginning non-exempt activities. An IRB is a special panel responsible for protecting the rights and welfare of human research subjects. While not every program will require IRB review, applicants should consult early on with someone knowledgeable in the field of human subjects research to determine whether or not the project requires IRB review.
- A registry of Institutional Review Boards is available online at the Department of Health and Human Services' Office for Human Research Protection website, <http://ohrp.cit.nih.gov/search/asearch.asp#ASUR>. Applicants who programs require review by an IRB should budget appropriate costs into their application. If an applicant fails to budget ahead of time for IRB review and then discovers later that IRB approval is needed, no additional grant funds will be awarded for the review. For additional information about human research subjects and the need for IRB approval, please reference the Department of Education's website for Grants Policy and Oversight Staff: <http://www.ed.gov/policy/fund/reg/humansub/app-pro.html>

Does the Department of Education require an independent third party evaluation or principal investigator?

No. Although a project evaluation is required, an independent third party evaluation or principal investigator is not. As long as the proposed evaluator has the necessary background and technical expertise to carry out the required evaluation, an application is technically eligible for funding. However, please note that the quality of the proposed project evaluation is a key part of the selection criteria used to evaluate all applications submitted. When possible, the Department prefers independent third party evaluations and independent principal investigators—meaning that the principal investigator has no authority over the project and is not involved in its implementation—because these design features help ensure that the evaluation will provide an objective and reliable basis for examining overall project effectiveness.

Does the Department of Education require that research findings be disseminated?

No. Research findings do not have to be disseminated by grantees. However, if funded, applicants are requested to collect and report data to the Department on evaluation outcomes in required annual performance reports, in the interim evaluation report (after two years of the project) and at the completion of the grant.

Are there specific grant activities for which outside sources, such as IHEs and private and nonprofit organizations may contract?

Examples of grant activities that can be conducted by outside sources under contract include:

- Evaluating the program, i.e. measuring the integration of the program into the curriculum and teaching methods of schools, and measure the success of the program in fostering the elements of character selected by the recipient.
- Developing secular curricula, teacher training and other activities related to character education.
- Integrating secular character education into the curricula and teaching methods of the schools.

How does the Freedom of Information Act affect my application?

The Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) was enacted in 1966 and provides that any person has the right to request access to Federal agency records or information. All agencies of the U.S. Government are required to disclose records upon receiving a written request for them, except for those records that are protected from disclosure by the nine exemptions listed in the FOIA. All applications submitted for funding consideration under this grant competition are subject to FOIA. To read the text of the Freedom of Information Act, visit www.usdoj.gov/04foia/foiastat.htm.

I plan to submit my application through Grants.gov. What will happen if I am unable to do so by the deadline?

- If you experience problems submitting your application electronically through Grants.gov, please contact the Grants.gov Support Desk at 800-518-4726. You must obtain a Grants.gov Support Desk Case Number and keep a record of it.
- If you are prevented from electronically submitting your application on the application deadline date because of technical problems with the Grants.gov system, we will grant you an extension until 4:30:00 p.m. (Washington, DC time) the following business day to enable you to transmit your application electronically or by hand delivery. You also may mail your application by following the mailing instructions described on page 41 in this application package.

Do I have to submit my application electronically?

The electronic submission of applications is voluntary. Applications may be submitted electronically or in paper format by mail or hand delivery. However, if you choose to submit your application electronically you must use the Grants.gov website and follow the electronic submission procedures published in the Federal Register notice. Note: You may not submit your application by e-mail or facsimile.

Does Grants.gov support Word 2007?

The new version of Microsoft Word saves documents with the extension. DOCX. The Grants.gov system does not process Microsoft Word documents with the extension. DOCX. When submitting Microsoft Word attachments to Grants.gov, please use the version of Microsoft Word that ends in .DOC. If any of the documents included in the application are saved with the .DOCX extension, the entire application will be rejected by Grants.gov. If you have any questions regarding this matter, please e-mail the Grants.gov Contact Center at support@grants.gov or call 1-800-518-4726.

Does Grants.gov support the new Microsoft Vista Operating System?

Grants.gov uses two viewer products – Adobe Acrobat Reader and PureEdge - that predate the release of Windows Vista. Adobe Reader 7.0.9 may work with Vista, but Adobe does not fully support this configuration. PureEdge Viewer v.6.0.2 is only compatible with Vista when using a Citrix server connection. Grants.gov is anticipating the release of Adobe Reader 8.1.1 shortly, which will be compatible with Microsoft Vista. Until Adobe Reader 8.1.1. is released, you have two choices: Use an operating system other than Vista or sue Citrix, which has been identified as an option for any applicant that is using Vista. The Grants.gov Web site (www.grants.gov/help/general\_faqs.jsp#18) has been updated to provide applicants with instructions on how to utilize the Citrix solution.

Do I need to provide the funding Opportunity Number (Item#12) and the Competition Identification Number (Item #13) on the SF-424?

If you submit your application electronically via Grants.gov, then you need to provide these numbers. They are located on the Grants.gov Web site on the application download page and also on the application package page once it is downloaded. If you submit your application in paper format by mail or hand delivery, then you do not need to provide these numbers as they are used strictly for the electronic package submitted via Grants.gov

I submitted my application by the deadline via Grants.gov. Am I finished?

No, do not assume that you are finished. If you submit your application via Grants.gov, there is a two-step validation process. Within two days of submitting your grant application, you will receive two e-mail messages. The first e-mail will confirm receipt of your application by the Grants.gov system. The second e-mail will indicate whether your application was successfully validated by the system or if it was rejected due to errors. You should track your application via the Grants.gov system to determine the progress of your application until the system shows a validated or rejected status or until you have received the e-mail indicating that it has been successfully validated or rejected.

What if I have not received a validation by the closing date?

If you submit your application within two days prior to the application transmittal deadline, you may not receive your validation or rejection notification until after the closing date. We recommend that if you have not received the two e-mail notifications indicating receipt and validation by 4:30:00 pm (Washington, DC time) on the application deadline date, print your application and mail a hard copy of it, adhering to the hard copy application submission procedures and requirements written in this application. For example, cover pages with signatures must be included in hard copy applications and cannot be faxed later.

What are some of the reasons I won't receive a validation from Grants.gov?

- You submitted your application after the application deadline date and time.
- The E-Business Point of Contact at your organization did not respond to the registration e-mail from Grants.gov and authorize you as an Authorized Organization Representative (AOR).
- You did not provide the DUNS number on your application (SF-424 form) that was used when you registered as an AOR.
- You uploaded a file type that is not compatible with Grants.gov.
- You did not fill out all the mandatory fields in the application package.

Additional reasons Grants.gov may reject an application can be found on the Grants.gov site: http://www.grants.gov/applicants/applicant\_faqs.jsp#54. We also suggest reading all the FAQs on Grants.gov (http://www.grants.gov/help/submit\_application\_faqs.jsp#10) to provide you with additional information to assist with your submission.

What is the deadline date for applications under this grant competition?

March 31, 2008.

May I get an extension of the deadline date?

Waivers for individual applications failing to meet the deadline will not be granted, regardless of circumstances. Under very extraordinary circumstances the Department may change the closing date for a grant competition. When this occurs, the Department announces such a change in a notice published in the Federal Register.

Who do I contact for more information about this grant competition?

I. Funding Opportunity Description

Purpose of Program: Under this program we support Federal grants to design and implement character education programs that can be integrated into classroom instruction, that are consistent with State academic content standards. Such programs may be carried out in conjunction with other educational reform efforts, and must take into consideration the views of parents, students, students with disabilities (including those with mental or physical disabilities), and other members of the community, including members of private, nonprofit organizations or entities, including faith-based organizations and community organizations.

Priorities: In accordance with 34 CFR 75.105(b)(2)(iv), this priority is from Title V, Part D, Subpart 3, Section 5431 of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, as amended by the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (ESEA) (20 U.S.C. 7247).

Absolute Priority: For FY 2008 and any subsequent years in which we make awards from the list of unfunded applicants from this competition, this priority is an absolute priority. Under 34 CFR 75.105(c)(3), we consider only applications that meet this priority.

This priority is:

The design and implementation of character education programs that are able to be--

- (A) integrated into classroom instruction and consistent with State academic content standards; and
- (B) carried out in conjunction with other educational reform efforts.

Competitive Preference Priority: Within this absolute priority, we give competitive preference to applications that address the following priority.

This priority is from the notice of final priorities for discretionary grant programs, published in the Federal Register on January 25, 2005 (70 FR 3585).

Under 34 CFR 75.105 (c)(2)(i), we award up to an additional 20 points to an application, depending on how well the application meets this priority. When using the priority to give competitive preference to an application, the Secretary will review applications using a two-stage process. In the first stage, the application will be reviewed without taking the priority into account. In the second stage of review, the applications rated highest in stage one will be reviewed for competitive preference.

This priority is:

The Secretary establishes a priority for projects proposing an evaluation plan that is based on rigorous scientifically based research methods used to assess the effectiveness of a particular intervention. The Secretary intends that this priority will allow program participants and the Department to determine whether the project produces meaningful effects on student achievement or teacher performance.

Evaluation methods using an experimental design are best for determining project effectiveness. Thus, when feasible, the project must use an experimental design under which participants--e.g., students, teachers, classrooms, or schools--are randomly assigned to participate in the project activities being evaluated or to a control group that does not participate in the project activities being evaluated.

If random assignment is not feasible, the project may use a quasi-experimental design with carefully matched comparison conditions. This alternative design attempts to approximate a randomly assigned control group by matching participants--e.g., students, teachers, classrooms, or schools--with non-participants having similar pre-program characteristics.

In cases where random assignment is not possible and participation in the intervention is determined by a specified cutting point on a quantified continuum of scores, regression discontinuity designs may be employed.

For projects that are focused on special populations in which sufficient numbers of participants are not available to support random assignment or matched comparison group designs, single-subject designs such as multiple baseline or treatment-reversal or interrupted time series that are capable of demonstrating causal relationships can be employed.

Proposed evaluation strategies that use neither experimental designs with random assignment nor quasi-experimental designs using a matched comparison group nor regression discontinuity designs will not be considered responsive to the priority when sufficient numbers of participants are available to support these designs. Evaluation strategies that involve too small a number of participants to support group designs must be capable of demonstrating the causal effects of an intervention or program on those participants.

The proposed evaluation plan must describe how the project evaluator will collect--before the project intervention commences and after it ends--valid and reliable data that measure the impact of participation in the program or in the comparison group.

Points awarded under this priority will be determined by the quality of the proposed evaluation method. In determining the quality of the evaluation method, we will consider the extent to which the applicant presents a feasible, credible plan that includes the following:

- (1) The type of design to be used (that is, random assignment or matched comparison). If matched comparison, include in the plan a discussion of why random assignment is not feasible.
- (2) Outcomes to be measured.
- (3) A discussion of how the applicant plans to assign students, teachers, classrooms, or schools to the project and control group or match them for comparison with other students, teachers, classrooms, or schools.
- (4) A proposed evaluator, preferably independent, with the necessary background and technical expertise to carry out the proposed evaluation. An independent evaluator does not have any authority over the project and is not involved in its implementation.

In general, depending on the implemented program or project, under a competitive preference priority, random assignment evaluation methods will receive more points than matched comparison evaluation methods.

Definitions

As used in this notice--

Scientifically based research (section 9101(37) ESEA):

(A) Means research that involves the application of rigorous, systematic, and objective procedures to obtain reliable and valid knowledge relevant to education activities and programs; and

(B) Includes research that--

- (i) Employs systematic, empirical methods that draw on observation or experiment;
- (ii) Involves rigorous data analyses that are adequate to test the stated hypotheses and justify the general conclusions drawn;
- (iii) Relies on measurements or observational methods that provide reliable and valid data across evaluators and observers, across multiple measurements and observations, and across studies by the same or different investigators;
- (iv) Is evaluated using experimental or quasi-experimental designs in which individuals entities, programs, or activities are assigned to different conditions and with appropriate controls to evaluate the effects of the condition of interest, with a preference for random-assignment experiments, or other designs to the extent that those designs contain within-condition or across-condition controls;
- (v) Ensures that experimental studies are presented in sufficient detail and clarity to allow for replication or, at a minimum, offer the opportunity to build systematically on their findings; and
- (vi) Has been accepted by a peer-reviewed journal or approved by a panel of independent experts through a comparably rigorous, objective, and scientific review.

Random assignment or experimental design means random assignment of students, teachers, classrooms, or schools to participate in a project being evaluated (treatment group) or not participate in the project (control group). The effect of the project is the difference in outcomes between the treatment and control groups.

Quasi-experimental designs include several designs that attempt to approximate a random assignment design.

Carefully matched comparison groups design means a quasi-experimental design in which project participants are matched with non-participants based on key characteristics that are thought to be related to the outcome.

Regression discontinuity design means a quasi-experimental design that closely approximates an experimental design. In a regression discontinuity design, participants are assigned to a treatment or control group based on a numerical rating or score of a variable unrelated to the treatment such as the rating of an application for funding. Eligible students, teachers, classrooms, or schools above a certain score ("cut score") are assigned to the treatment group and those below the score are assigned to the control group. In the case of the scores of applicants' proposals for funding, the "cut score" is established at the point where the program funds available are exhausted.

Single subject design means a design that relies on the comparison of treatment effects on a single subject or group of single subjects. There is little confidence that findings based on this design would be the same for other members of the population.

Treatment reversal design means a single subject design in which a pre-treatment or baseline outcome measurement is compared with a post-treatment measure. Treatment would then be stopped for a period of time, a second baseline measure of the outcome would be taken, followed by a second application of the treatment or a different treatment. For example, this design might be used to evaluate a behavior modification program for disabled students with behavior disorders.

Multiple baseline design means a single subject design to address concerns about the effects of normal development, timing of the treatment, and amount of the treatment with treatment-reversal designs by using a varying time schedule for introduction of the treatment and/or treatments of different lengths or intensity.

Interrupted time series design means a quasi-experimental design in which the outcome of interest is measured multiple times before and after the treatment for program participants only.

Note: Due to the very short time frame that applicants have to select a proposed evaluator for the required competitive priority, we remind applicants that they can, under 34 CFR 80.36, use informal procedures to select a proposed contractor for this purpose. For example, §80.36 authorizes simple informal procedures to select contractors for contracts under the simplified acquisition threshold of $100,000. 34 CFR 80.36(d)(1). The regulations only require that you request offers from an adequate number of sources.

In addition, even if you expect that the evaluation of your project would cost more than $100,000, the regulations recognize special cases where a contractor must be selected within a very limited time period. Again, you need to request proposals from an adequate number of qualified sources and select the contractor, whose proposal is most advantageous to the program, considering price and other selection factors. In these situations, if informal solicitation does not result in an adequate number of proposals, you may select a single bidder so long as you document the facts that formed the basis for your decision. 34 CFR 80.36(d)(1),(3)&(4).

Invitational Priority: For FY 2008 and any subsequent year in which we make awards from the list of unfunded applicants from this competition, this priority is an invitation priority. Under 34 CFR 75.105(c)(1) we do not give an application that meets this invitational priority a competitive or absolute preference over other applications.

This priority is:

Faith-based and Community Organizations.

The Secretary is especially interested in applications that propose to engage faith-based and community organizations in the planning and development of character education programs and the delivery of services under this program.

Program Authority: 20 U.S.C. 7247.

Applicable Regulations: (a) The Education Department General Administrative Regulations (EDGAR) in 34 CFR parts 74, 75, 77, 79, 80, 81, 82, 84, 85, 86, 97, 98, 99 and 299. (b) The notice of final priority published in the Federal Register on January 25, 2005 (70 FR 3585).

Note: The regulations in 34 CFR part 79 apply to all applicants except federally recognized Indian tribes.

Note: The regulations in 34 CFR part 86 apply to institutions of higher education only.

II. Award Information

Type of Award: Discretionary grant.

Estimated Available Funds: $1,106,865.

Contingent upon the availability of funds and the quality of applications, we may make additional awards in FY 2009 and subsequent fiscal years from the list of unfunded applicants from this competition.

Estimated Range of Awards: For State educational agencies (SEAs), $500,000-$750,000. For local educational agencies (LEAs), $250,000-$500,000. We anticipate that applicants who request funding at the higher end of these ranges would respond to the competitive preference priority to implement experimental or quasi-experimental designs.

Estimated Average Size of Awards: For SEAs, $600,000 for each 12-month budget period. For LEAs, $350,000 for each 12-month budget period.

Minimum Award: Pursuant to Section 5431(a)(4) of the ESEA, SEAs must propose a total budget that is $500,000 or more for a single budget period. This restriction does not apply to applications from LEAs.

Estimated Number of Awards: 2.

Note: The Department is not bound by any estimates in this notice.

Project Period: Up to 48 months, of which no more than 12 months may be used for planning and program design.

V. Application Review Information

1. Selection Criteria: The selection criteria for this competition are from 34 CFR part 75.210 in EDGAR and are listed in the application package.

2. Review and Selection Process: Additional factors we consider in selecting an application for an award are included in 20 U.S.C. 7247. We will ensure that, to the extent practicable, the projects for which we provide funding are equally distributed among the geographic regions of the United States, and among urban, suburban and rural areas.

VI. Award Administration Information

1. Award Notices: If your application is successful, we notify your U.S. Representative and U.S. Senators and send you a Grant Award Notice (GAN). We may notify you informally, also.

If your application is not evaluated or not selected for funding, we notify you.

2. Administrative and National Policy Requirements: We identify administrative and national policy requirements in the application package and reference these and other requirements in the Applicable Regulations section in this notice.

We reference the regulations outlining the terms and conditions of an award in the Applicable Regulations section in this notice and include these and other specific conditions in the GAN. The GAN also incorporates your approved application as part of your binding commitments under the grant.

3. Reporting: At the end of your project period, you must submit a final performance report, including financial information, as directed by the Secretary. If you receive a multi-year award, you must submit an annual performance report that provides the most current performance and financial expenditure information as directed by the Secretary under 34 CFR 75.118. The Secretary may also require more frequent performance reports under 34 CFR 75.720(c). For specific requirements on reporting, please go to <http://www.ed.gov/fund/grant/apply/appforms/appforms.html>

4. Performance Measure: Under the Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA), two performance indicators have been established for the Partnerships in Character Education Program. The indicators are: the percentage of Partnerships in Character Education Program grantees that use an experimental or quasi-experimental design for their evaluation; and the percentage of Partnerships in Character Education Program grantees that use an experimental or quasi-experimental design for their evaluation that are conducted successfully, and that yield scientifically valid results. Consequently, applicants for a grant under this program are advised to give careful consideration to these two measures in conceptualizing the design, implementation, and evaluation of their proposed project. If funded, applicants will be asked to report data in their annual performance reports on evaluation outcomes. The Secretary will use this information to assess the overall quality of performance data obtained through rigorous evaluations conducted by grantees, and to respond to reporting requirements concerning this program established in Section 5431(h) of the ESEA.

IV. General Application Instructions

Preparing the Application

A completed application for assistance under this grant competition consists of two parts: a detailed narrative description of the proposed project and budget, and all forms and assurances that must be submitted in order to receive a grant. An application under this competition should address the specific needs of the applicant and propose activities specifically designed to meet those needs. We strongly discourage applicants from using “form” applications or proposals that address general rather than specific local needs. Identical or substantially similar applications are not responsive to the scoring criteria.

A panel of non-federal readers with experience character education will review each eligible application submitted by the deadline. The panel will award points ranging from 0 to 100 to each application depending on how well the selection criteria are addressed. Be sure you provide a comprehensive response to each factor under each selection criterion. Applications that fail to do so will be read, but our experience suggests they may not score well enough to be funded.

If you apply via Grants.gov, you will use the following Grants.gov narrative forms:

- ED Abstract Form
- Project Narrative Attachment Form
- Other Attachments Form
- Budget Narrative Attachment Form

The ED Abstract Form is where you will attach your program abstract.

The Project Narrative Attachment Form is where you will attach the narrative sections addressing the selection criteria that will be used to evaluate applications submitted for this grant competition.

The Other Attachments Form is where you will attach proposal appendices, such as curriculum vitae of key personnel, letters of commitment, and samples of evaluation instruments. The Grants.gov system will allow applicants to attach as many as 10 separate appendices in this section. If there are more than 10 appendices in your application, we strongly suggest combining several of them as one appendix and uploading them to the Other Attachments Form.

The Budget Narrative Attachment Form is where you will attach a detailed line item budget and any supplemental budget information.

All applicants should adhere to the following formatting guidelines:

- Use 1-inch margins. If you submit your application in paper format by mail or hand delivery, your application must be printed on 8 1/2” by 11” paper.

- Use a consistent font not smaller than 12-point type throughout your document. You may use boldface type, underlining, and italics; however, do not use colored text.
- For the project narrative, your application should consist of the number and text of each selection criterion followed by the narrative. The text of the selection criterion, if included, does not count against any page limitation.
- Place a page number at the bottom right of each page beginning with 1, and number your pages consecutively throughout your document, beginning with the Abstract and ending with the Appendices. Note: Do not paginate any of the forms.

If you submit your proposal via Grants.gov, you will use your own word-processing software to complete the application for this grant competition.

If you submit your application in hard copy, you will follow the same general instructions but you will not attach your abstract, project narrative, or other narratives to the Grants.gov forms.

D-U-N-S Number Instructions

All applicants must obtain and use a D-U-N-S Number, and all applicants applying through Grants.gov must register with Grants.gov. The D-U-N-S Number used on the application must be the same number that the applicant's organization used to register with Grants.gov. If the numbers are not the same, Grants.gov will reject the application.

The D-U-N-S Number is a unique nine-digit number that does not convey any information about the recipient. A built-in check digit helps to ensure the accuracy of the D-U-N-S Number. The ninth digit of each number is the check digit, which is mathematically related to the other digits. It lets computer systems determine if a D-U-N-S Number has been entered correctly.

You can obtain a D-U-N-S Number at no charge by calling (800) 333-0505 or by completing the D-U-N-S Number Request Form, available online at http://www.dnb.com/US/duns\_update/index.html. Dun & Bradstreet, a global information provider, has assigned D-U-N-S Numbers to more than 43 million companies worldwide. Customer service is available on Monday-Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) at (888) 814-1435.

Organizing the Application

Supplemental Instructions for Standard Form 424

1. Application for Federal Assistance (SF 424): Use the Application for Federal Assistance and the Department of Education Supplemental Information for SF 424. This is the title page of your application. Be sure that Item 10 identifies the CFDA Number for this grant competition as 84.215S and the title as Partnerships in Character Education Program.

If you submit your proposal for this grant competition via Grants.gov, please complete the SF 424 (Application for Federal Assistance) first. Grants.gov will insert the correct CFDA number and grant competition title automatically where needed.

If you submit your proposal in paper format by mail or hand delivery, you will need to insert the correct CFDA number and grant competition title where requested.

Under Item 3 in the ED Supplemental Information, indicate whether the proposed project includes human subjects research activities, and if so, whether any or all of the proposed activities are exempt. For additional guidance, see instructions for ED Supplemental Information in the required forms section of this application package or call ED's protection of human subjects coordinator at (202) 245-6153.

2. Abstract: Include a concise, one-page, double-spaced abstract following the Table of Contents. This is a key element and should include a brief narrative describing a brief summary of the project goals and objectives and the intended outcomes of the project. Clearly mark this page with the applicant's name as shown in Item 1 of SF Form 424. If you submit your application via Grants.gov, attach this document to the ED Abstract Form.

3. Project Narrative: This section should be no more than 25 double-spaced typewritten pages. The narrative must contain evidence that the applicant meets the mandates of this grant competition, and should contain and follow in sequence the information requested for each selection criterion. Applicants should review Section II for a discussion of the selection criteria and the key considerations for this specific grant competition. The narrative should be easy to read and logically developed in accordance with the selection criteria. A timeline or schedule of tasks and events, responsible person(s), project milestone(s), and/or completion dates should be included in the narrative. Include a Table of Contents with page references. The Table of Contents does not count against any page limitations. If you submit your application via Grants.gov, attach this document to the Project Narrative Attachment Form.

4. Budget Narrative: Use the Budget Information Form (ED Form 524) provided in the required forms section of this application package to prepare a budget for the project. The budget should be shown in one column as the grant covers a single 18-month budget period.

You must include a detailed budget narrative that supports and explains the information provided in ED Form 524. Use the same budget categories as those on ED Form 524 and explain the basis used to estimate costs for all budget categories, and how the cost items relate to the proposed project's goals, objectives, and activities. All expenditures must be necessary to carry out the goals and objectives of the project, reasonable for the scope and complexity of the project, allowable under the terms and conditions of the grant, and in accordance with government cost principles.

The Budget Information Form and accompanying narrative should provide enough detail for ED staff to easily understand how costs were determined and if the budget is commensurate with the scope of the project. A sample budget narrative is available at http://www.ed.gov/admins/grants/apply/techassist/resource\_pg8.html. If you submit your application via Grants.gov, attach this document to the Budget Narrative Attachment Form.

For this grant competition, you may charge indirect costs using the rate negotiated with your cognizant federal agency (e.g., ED, Department of Health and Human Services, Department of Interior). Be sure to include evidence of a federally negotiated indirect cost rate (e.g., copy of an indirect cost rate agreement with your State or by your State Educational Agency). Applicants should use the appropriate program or operations rate specified in their institution's federally approved indirect cost rate agreement in their proposed project budgets. Individuals who apply for any grant competition through ED are not allowed to budget for an indirect cost rate.

If you budget for contractual services, please note that indirect costs may be applied only to the first $25,000 of each contract, regardless of the period covered by the contract.

If you claim indirect costs in the budget for your proposed project and do not have a negotiated rate with the federal government, you must submit the necessary paperwork to ED to receive a negotiated indirect cost rate. For more information about indirect cost rates, please visit <http://www.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocfo/intro.html>.

5. Appendices: If you submit your application via Grants.gov, the Other Attachments Form is where you will attach proposal appendices that you may choose to submit in support of your capacity and preparation to undertake the project, such as curriculum vitae of key personnel, letters of commitment, and samples of evaluation instruments. In addition, please attach your signed program-specific assurance form to this section. The Grants.gov system will allow applicants to attach as many as 10 separate appendices in this section. If there are more than 10 appendices in your application, we strongly suggest combining several of them as one appendix and then upload them to the Other Attachments Form.

If you submit your application in paper format via mail or hand delivery, information provided in this section includes forms and other material required by ED in order for an application to be eligible for funding, as well as any other information that applicants may choose to submit in support of their capacity and preparation to undertake the proposed project.

The following items are not part of the appendices and may not be included:

- Budget or program narrative information that the applicant wishes to have reviewed as part of its response to one or more scoring criteria—all such information must be included in the narrative portion of the application.

- Videotapes, CD-ROMs, photographs, or floppy disks—will not be reviewed and will not be returned.

This section must include the following:

- GEPA 427, Equitable Access to and Participation in Federally Assisted Programs.
- Letter of Transmittal to State Single Point of Contact (if your state participates).
- Proof of federally negotiated indirect cost rate (if you are claiming indirect costs).

This section may include the following:

- Other information the applicant wishes to include in support of their capacity, experience, and readiness to undertake the proposed project.
- Resumes of key personnel. If personnel have yet to be hired for this project, include a narrative description of expected staff qualifications.
- Letters of commitment that reflect each person's awareness of their role in the proposed project. Each letter should indicate a willingness to put forth the necessary time and effort to make the project work efficiently and effectively.
- Relevant prior grant experience.

6. Assurances and Certifications: If you submit your application electronically, you must complete all forms posted on Grants.gov.

If you submit your application in paper format via mail or hand delivery, you must fill out, have signed by the person authorized to sign for the institution, and submit the following forms:

- Assurances, Non-Construction Programs (Standard Form, 424B)
- Grants.gov Lobbying Form (formerly ED Form 80-0013)
- Disclosure of Lobbying Activities (Standard Form-LLL)

An electronic version of the Standard Form 424B and the Disclosure of Lobbying Activities (Standard Form LLL) can be downloaded at <http://www.ed.gov/fund/grant/apply/appforms/appforms.html>

An electronic version of the Grants.gov Lobbying Form can be downloaded at <http://www.ed.gov/fund/grant/apply/appforms/sfillfill.pdf>

Note: If Item 2 of the Grants.gov Lobbying Form applies because of lobbying activities related to a previous grant, or are anticipated to occur with this project if it is funded, you must submit Standard Form LLL. If your organization does not engage in lobbying, please submit Standard Form LLL and indicate as “Not Applicable.”

Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs

This grant competition is subject to the requirements of Executive Order 12372 and the regulations in 34 CFR Part 79. One of the objectives of the Executive Order is to foster an intergovernmental partnership and a strengthened federalism. The Executive Order relies on processes developed by state and local governments for coordination and review of proposed federal financial assistance.

Applicants must contact the appropriate State Single Point of Contact to find out about, and to comply with, the State's process under Executive Order 12372. Applicants proposing to perform activities in more than one State should immediately contact the Single Point of Contact for each of those States and follow the procedures established in each State under the Executive Order.

Note: A copy of the applicant's letter to the State Single Point of Contact must be included with the application.

To view a list of States that participate in the intergovernmental review process, visit <http://www.whitehouse.gov/omb/grants/spoc.html>. States that are not listed have chosen not to participate in the intergovernmental review process, and therefore do not have a State Single Point of Contact. If you are located within one of these States, you are exempt from this requirement.

In States that have not established a process or chosen a program for review, State, area-wide, regional, and local entities may submit comments directly to the Department.

Any State process recommendation and other comments submitted by a State Single Point of Contact and any comments from State, area-wide, regional, and local entities must be received by May 30, 2008 at the following address:

The Secretary
EO 12372-CFDA #84.215S
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW
Room 7W300
Washington, DC 20202-0124

Recommendations or comments may be hand-delivered until 4:30 p.m. (Washington, DC Time) on May 30, 2008. Please do not send applications to this address.

General Education Provisions Act (GEPA) Section 427

Section 427 of GEPA affects applicants for new discretionary grant awards under this program. All applicants for new awards must include information in their applications to address this provision, summarized below, in order to receive funding under this program.

Section 427 requires each applicant for funds (other than an individual person) to include in its application a description of the steps the applicant proposes to take to ensure equitable access to, and participation in, its federally-assisted program for students, teachers, and other program beneficiaries with special needs.

This section allows applicants discretion in developing the required description. The statute highlights six types of barriers that can impede equitable access or participation that you may address: gender, race, national origin, color, disability, or age. Based on local circumstances, you can determine whether these or other barriers may prevent your students, teachers, or others from equitable access or participation. Your description need not be lengthy; you may provide a clear and succinct description of how you plan to address those barriers that are applicable to your circumstances. In addition, the information may be provided in a single narrative, or, if appropriate, may be discussed in connection with related topics in the application.

NOTE: A general statement of an applicant's nondiscriminatory hiring policy is not sufficient to meet this requirement. Applicants must identify potential barriers and explain steps they will take to overcome these barriers.

Section 427 is not intended to duplicate the requirements of civil rights statutes, but rather to ensure that, in designing their projects, applicants for federal funds address equity concerns that may affect the ability of certain potential beneficiaries to fully participate in the project and to achieve to high standards. Consistent with program requirements and its approved application, an applicant may use the federal funds awarded to eliminate barriers it identifies.

Examples

The following examples help illustrate how an applicant may comply with section 427.

1. An applicant that proposes to carry out an adult literacy project serving, among others, adults with limited English proficiency, might describe in its application how it intends to distribute a brochure about the proposed project to such potential participants in their native language.
2. An applicant that proposes to develop instructional materials for classroom use might describe how it will make the materials available on audiotape or in Braille for students who are blind.

3. An applicant that proposes to carry out a model science program for secondary students and is concerned that girls may be less likely than boys to enroll in the course might indicate how it tends to conduct “outreach” efforts to girls to encourage their enrollment.

We recognize that many applicants may already be implementing effective steps to ensure equity of access and participation in their projects, and we appreciate your cooperation in responding to the requirements of this provision.

Instructions for Department of Education Supplemental Information for Standard Form 424

1. Project Director. Name, address, telephone and fax numbers, and e-mail address of the person to be contacted on matters involving this application.

2. Novice Applicant. Check “Yes” or “No” only if assistance is being requested under a program that gives special consideration to novice applicants. Otherwise, leave blank.

Check “Yes” if you meet the requirements for novice applicants specified in the regulations in 34 CFR 75.225 and included on the attached page entitled “Definitions for Department of Education Supplemental Information for SF 424.” By checking “Yes” the applicant certifies that it meets these novice applicant requirements. Check “No” if you do not meet the requirements for novice applicants.

3. Human Subjects Research. (See I. A. “Definitions” in attached page entitled “Definitions for Department of Education Supplemental Information for SF 424.”)

If Not Human Subjects Research. Check “No” if research activities involving human subjects are not planned at any time during the proposed project period. The remaining parts of Item 3 are then not applicable.

If Human Subjects Research. Check “Yes” if research activities involving human subjects are planned at any time during the proposed project period, either at the applicant organization or at any other performance site or collaborating institution. Check “Yes” even if the research is exempt from the regulations for the protection of human subjects. (See I. B. “Exemptions” in attached page entitled “Definitions for Department of Education Supplemental Information for SF 424.”)

3a. If Human Subjects Research is Exempt from the Human Subjects Regulations. Check “Yes” if all the research activities proposed are designated to be exempt from the regulations. Insert the exemption number(s) corresponding to one or more of the six exemption categories listed in I. B. “Exemptions.” In addition, follow the instructions in II. A. “Exempt Research Narrative” in the attached page entitled “Definitions for Department of Education Supplemental Information for SF 424.”

3a. If Human Subjects Research is Not Exempt from Human Subjects Regulations. Check “No” if some or all of the planned research activities are covered (not exempt). In addition, follow the instructions in II. B. “Nonexempt Research Narrative” in the page entitled “Definitions for Department of Education Supplemental Information for SF 424.”

3a. Human Subjects Assurance Number. If the applicant has an approved Federal Wide (FWA) on file with the Office for Human Research Protections (OHRP), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, that covers the specific activity, insert the number in the space provided. If the applicant does not have an approved assurance on file with OHRP, enter “None.” In this case, the applicant, by signature on the SF-424, is declaring that it will comply with 34 CFR 97 and proceed to obtain the human subjects assurance upon request by the designated ED official. If the application is recommended/selected for funding, the designated ED official will request that the applicant obtain the assurance within 30 days after the specific formal request.

Note about Institutional Review Board Approval. ED does not require certification of Institutional Review Board approval with the application. However, if an application that involves non-exempt human subjects research is recommended/selected for funding, the designated ED official will request that the applicant obtain and send the certification to ED within 30 days after the formal request.

Definitions for Department of Education Supplemental Information for Standard Form 424

Definitions:

Novice Applicant (See 34 CFR 75.225). For discretionary grant programs under which the Secretary gives special consideration to novice applications, a novice applicant means any applicant for a grant from ED that—

- Has never received a grant or subgrant under the program from which it seeks funding;
- Has never been a member of a group application, submitted in accordance with 34 CFR 75.127-75.129, that received a grant under the program from which it seeks funding; and

For the purposes of this requirement, a grant is active until the end of the grant's project or funding period, including any extensions of those periods that extend the grantee's authority to obligate funds.

In the case of a group application submitted in accordance with 34 CFR 75.127-75.129, a group includes only parties that meet the requirements listed above.

PROTECTION OF HUMAN SUBJECTS IN RESEARCH

I. Definitions and Exemptions

A. Definitions.

A research activity involves human subjects if the activity is research, as defined in the Department's regulations, and the research activity will involve use of human subjects, as defined in the regulations.

—Research

The ED Regulations for the Protection of Human Subjects, Title 34, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 97, define research as "a systematic investigation, including research development, testing and evaluation, designed to develop or contribute to generalizable knowledge." If an activity follows a deliberate plan whose purpose is to develop or contribute to generalizable knowledge it is research. Activities which meet this definition constitute research whether or not they are conducted or supported under a program that is considered research for other purposes. For example, some demonstration and service programs may include research activities.

—Human Subject

The regulations define human subject as "a living individual about whom an investigator (whether professional or student) conducting research obtains (1) data through intervention or interaction with the individual, or (2) identifiable private information." (1) If an activity involves obtaining information about a living person by manipulating that person or that person's environment, as might occur when a new instructional technique is tested, or by communicating or interacting with the individual, as occurs with surveys and interviews, the definition of human subject is met. (2) If an activity involves obtaining private information about a living person in such a way that the information can be linked to that individual (the identity of the subject is or may be readily determined by the investigator or associated with the information), the definition of human subject is met. [Private information includes information about behavior that occurs in a context in which an individual can reasonably expect that no observation or recording is taking place, and information which has been provided for specific purposes by an individual and which the individual can reasonably expect will not be made public (for example, a school health record).]

B. Exemptions.

Research activities in which the only involvement of human subjects will be in one or more of the following six categories of exemptions are not covered by the regulations:

(1) Research conducted in established or commonly accepted educational settings, involving normal educational practices, such as (a) research on regular and special education instructional strategies, or (b) research on the effectiveness of or the comparison among instructional techniques, curricula, or classroom management methods.

(2) Research involving the use of educational tests (cognitive, diagnostic, aptitude, achievement), survey procedures, interview procedures or observation of public behavior, unless: (a) information obtained is recorded in such a manner that human subjects can be identified, directly or through identifiers linked to the subjects; and (b) any disclosure of the human subjects' responses outside the research could reasonably place the subjects at risk of criminal or civil liability or be damaging to the subjects' financial standing, employability, or reputation. If the subjects are children, exemption 2 applies only to research involving educational tests and observations of public behavior when the investigator(s) do not participate in the activities being observed. Exemption 2 does not apply if children are surveyed or interviewed or if the research involves observation of public behavior and the investigator(s) participate in the activities being observed. [Children are defined as persons who have not attained the legal age for consent to treatments or procedures involved in the research, under the applicable law or jurisdiction in which the research will be conducted.]

(3) Research involving the use of educational tests (cognitive, diagnostic, aptitude, achievement), survey procedures, interview procedures or observation of public behavior that is not exempt under section (2) above, if the human subjects are elected or appointed public officials or candidates for public office; or federal statute(s) require(s) without exception that the confidentiality of the personally identifiable information will be maintained throughout the research and thereafter.

(4) Research involving the collection or study of existing data, documents, records, pathological specimens, or diagnostic specimens, if these sources are publicly available or if the information is recorded by the investigator in a manner that subjects cannot be identified, directly or through identifiers linked to the subjects.

(5) Research and demonstration projects which are conducted by or subject to the approval of department or agency heads, and which are designed to study, evaluate, or otherwise examine: (a) public benefit or service programs; (b) procedures for obtaining benefits or services under those programs; (c) possible changes in or alternatives to those programs or procedures; or (d) possible changes in methods or levels of payment for benefits or services under those programs.

(6) Taste and food quality evaluation and consumer acceptance studies, (a) if wholesome foods without additives are consumed or (b) if a food is consumed that contains a food ingredient at or below the level and for a use found to be safe, or agricultural chemical or environmental contaminant at or below the level found to be safe, by the Food and Drug Administration or approved by the Environmental Protection Agency or the Food Safety and Inspection Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

II. Instructions for Exempt and Nonexempt Human Subjects Research Narratives

If the applicant marked "Yes" for Item 3 of Department of Education Supplemental Information for SF 424, the applicant must provide a human subjects "exempt research" or "nonexempt research" narrative. Insert the narrative(s) in the space provided. If you have multiple projects and need to provide more than one narrative, be sure to label each set of responses as to the project they address.

A. Exempt Research Narrative.

If you marked "Yes" for item 3 a. and designated exemption numbers(s), provide the "exempt research" narrative. The narrative must contain sufficient information about the involvement of human subjects in the proposed research to allow a determination by ED that the designated exemption(s) are appropriate. The narrative must be succinct.

B. Nonexempt Research Narrative.

If you marked "No" for item 3 a. you must provide the "nonexempt research" narrative. The narrative must address the following seven points. Although no specific page limitation applies to this section of the application, be succinct.

(1) Human Subjects Involvement and Characteristics: Provide a detailed description of the proposed involvement of human subjects. Describe the characteristics of the subject population, including their anticipated number, age range, and health status. Identify the criteria for inclusion or exclusion of any subpopulation. Explain the rationale for the involvement of special classes of subjects, such as children, children with disabilities, adults with disabilities, persons with mental disabilities, pregnant women, prisoners, institutionalized individuals, or others who are likely to be vulnerable.

(2) Sources of Materials: Identify the sources of research material obtained from individually identifiable living human subjects in the form of specimens, records, or data. Indicate whether the material or data will be obtained specifically for research purposes or whether use will be made of existing specimens, records, or data.

(3) Recruitment and Informed Consent: Describe plans for the recruitment of subjects and the consent procedures to be followed. Include the circumstances under which consent will be sought and obtained, who will seek it, the nature of the information to be provided to prospective subjects, and the method of documenting consent. State if the Institutional Review Board (IRB) has authorized a modification or waiver of the elements of consent or the requirement for documentation of consent.

(4) Potential Risks: Describe potential risks (physical, psychological, social, legal, or other) and assess their likelihood and seriousness. Where appropriate, describe alternative treatments and procedures that might be advantageous to the subjects.

(5) Protection Against Risk: Describe the procedures for protecting against or minimizing potential risks, including risks to confidentiality, and assess their likely effectiveness. Where appropriate, discuss provisions for ensuring necessary medical or professional intervention in the event of adverse effects to the subjects. Also, where appropriate, describe the provisions for monitoring the data collected to ensure the safety of the subjects.

(6) Importance of the Knowledge to be Gained: Discuss the importance of the knowledge gained or to be gained as a result of the proposed research. Discuss why the risks to subjects are reasonable in relation to the anticipated benefits to subjects and in relation to the importance of the knowledge that may reasonably be expected to result.

(7) Collaborating Site(s): If research involving human subjects will take place at collaborating site(s) or other performance site(s), name the sites and briefly describe their involvement or role in the research.

Copies of the Department of Education's Regulations for the Protection of Human Subjects, 34 CFR Part 97 and other pertinent materials on the protection of human subjects in research are available from the Grants Policy and Oversight Staff, Office of the Chief Financial Officer, U.S. Department of Education, Washington, D.C. 20202-4250, telephone: (202) 245-6120, and on the U.S. Department of Education's Protection of Human Subjects in Research Web Site: <http://www.ed.gov/about/offices/list/OCFO/humansub.html>

NOTE: The State Applicant Identifier on the SF 424 is for State Use only. Please complete it on the OMB Standard 424 in the upper right corner of the form (if applicable).

Pay attention to applicable program specific instructions, if attached.

1. Provide an itemized budget breakdown, and justification by project year, for each budget category listed in Sections A and B. For grant projects that will be divided into two or more separately budgeted major activities or sub-projects, show for each budget category of a project year the breakdown of the specific expenses attributable to each sub-project or activity.
2. If applicable to this program, provide the rate and base on which fringe benefits are calculated.
3. If you are requesting reimbursement for indirect costs on line 10, this information is to be completed by your Business Office. Specify the estimated amount of the base to which the indirect cost rate is applied and the total indirect expense. Depending on the grant program to which you are applying and/or your approved Indirect Cost Rate Agreement, some direct cost budget categories in your grant application budget may not be included in the base and multiplied by your indirect cost rate. For example, you must multiply the indirect cost rates of "Training grants" (34 CFR 75.562) and grants under programs with "Supplement not Supplant" requirements ("Restricted Rate" programs) by a "modified total direct cost" (MTDC) base (34 CFR 75.563 or 76.563). Please indicate which costs are included and which costs are excluded from the base to which the indirect cost rate is applied.

When calculating indirect costs (line 10) for "Training grants" or grants under "Restricted Rate" programs, you must refer to the information and examples on ED's website at:
<http://www.ed.gov/fund/grant/apply/appforms/appforms.html>.
