

FLATHEAD NATIONAL FOREST

NEWS RELEASE

April 1, 2005

Contact: Denise Germann
406-758-5252
406-249-1714 cell

Spill Under Investigation on National Forest at Hungry Horse Reservoir

The Hungry Horse District of the Flathead National Forest is investigating an apparent spill of an unknown substance into Hungry Horse Reservoir, near the dam. The forest is working with Flathead County Emergency Services to manage and investigate the incident.

The Forest Service received information Friday afternoon about the situation and immediately directed a response team to the scene and coordinated with appropriate county and state officials.

-END-