

I am sending you an e-mail today to let you know that I am totally offended when I get these kinds of e-mails. And I do. I am a XX year old woman and have absolutely no interest in these kinds of e-mails. I do not want to receive them at all. They are a total violation of my home. If you cannot get rid of them completely (which I would prefer) then the labels would be of help.

Thank you for your time.
