217.7601 Definitions.

As used in this subpart,

(a) Provisioning means the process of determining and acquiring the range and quantity of spare and repair parts, and support and test equipment required to operate and maintain an end item for an initial period of service.

(b) Provisioned item means any item selected under provisioning procedures.

(c) Provisioned items order (PIO) means an undefinitized order issued under a contract which includes the Government's requirements for provisioned items. (Provisioned items with firm prices are acquired by supplemental agreement or by separate contract.)

(d) Provisioning activity means the organization responsible for selecting and determining requirements for provisioned items.

(e) Provisioning requirements statement means the contractual document listing the specific provisioning requirements for that contract. The statement normally includes:

- (1) Instructions, such as the provisioning method to be used;
- (2) The extent of provisioning technical documentation and data needed (including administrative requirements for submission and distribution);
- (3) The type and location of provisioning conferences;
- (4) Sample article requirements;
- (5) The delivery schedule;
- (6) Packaging and marking requirements for provisioned items; and
- (7) Requirements for provisioning screening.

(f) Provisioning technical documentation means the data needed for the identification, selection, determination of initial requirements, and cataloging of support items to be acquired through the provisioning process. It includes such things as provisioning lists and logistics support analysis summaries. Descriptive data such as drawings and photographs are referred to as supplementary provisioning technical documentation.

48 CFR Ch. 2 (10-1-02 Edition)

217.7602 Contracting requirements.

217.7602-1 Contractual provisions.

Contracts containing provisioning requirements shall—

(a) List the provisioning functions to be performed and who will perform them;

(b) Include a provisioning requirements statement or specify a time limit for its incorporation into the contract by modification (revisions to the provisioning requirements statement shall also be incorporated by contract modification);

(c) Include on the DD Form 1423, Contract Data Requirements List, a schedule for delivery of provisioning technical documentation, or provide for the schedule to be incorporated later by contract modification;

(d) Require flowdown of the appropriate provisioning technical documentation requirement when the subcontractor prepares the documentation;

(e) Specify any applicable procedures for interim release by the contractor of long lead time items, and include ordering and funding instructions for such items. As a minimum, the instructions shall require the contractor to advise the contracting officer or provisioning activity at least 30 days before release of the items, their estimated costs, and the effective date of release;

(f) Specify the activity designated to issue provisioned items orders, i.e., contracting officer, provisioning activity, or administrative contracting officer. When it is expected that more than one activity will place provisioned items orders against the contract, state the requirements for provisioned items of each activity as separate contract line items;

(g) Provide a definitization schedule (normally 120 days after receipt of the contractor's proposal), and a time-frame for the contractor to furnish price proposals for provisioned items orders (normally 60 days after order issuance);

(h) Specify exhibit identifiers applicable to the contract line/subline items; and
