Subpart K—Change in Proprietorship or Control

§ 31.161 Sale of business.

A special tax stamp is a receipt for tax, personal to the one to whom issued, and is not transferable from one dealer to another. Where a change occurs in the proprietorship of a business for which special tax has been paid or for which registration has been completed during the suspension period described in § 31.21(b), the successor shall pay special tax (or shall register during the suspension period) for such business, except as provided in § 31.169.

§ 31.169 Change of control, persons having right of succession.

Certain persons may, without paying additional special tax, secure the right to carry on the same business at the same address for the remainder of the tax year for which the special tax was paid, or for which registration was made during the suspension period described in § 31.21(b). Such persons are:

(a) The surviving spouse or child, or executor, administrator, or other legal representative of a deceased dealer;

(b) A husband or wife succeeding to the business of his or her living spouse;

(c) A receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, or an assignee for benefit of creditors; and

(d) The partner or partners remaining after death or withdrawal of a member of a partnership.

In order to secure such right, the person or persons continuing the business shall file with TTB, within 30 days from the date on which the successor begins to carry on the business, an amended special tax return on Form 5630.5, showing the basis of the succession, and (except if the change of control occurs during the suspension period described in § 31.21(b) when a special tax stamp is not issued) shall surrender the unexpired special tax stamp or stamps for endorsement of the change in control: Provided, That, if the original return, Form 5630.5, was filed under the provisions of § 31.106(b), the person succeeding to the business may deliver the amended return and stamp to any TTB office, or to any TTB officer inspecting the business, in lieu of mailing them to TTB. If the applicant has the right of succession and the return and stamp are submitted on time, the appropriate TTB officer or other TTB officer receiving them will enter the proper endorsement on the stamp and return it to the successor.
