DR. SLATER: May I ask a question for my own clarification?

When you say Approval, is that approval of the Vermont participation of the application exclusive of the TRW so the thing can roll ahead?

DR. DeBAKEY: Couldn't we save a lot of time since we really can't take any action on this at all—we are just discussing it almost fruitlessly—not fruitlessly because we are getting some education discussing it—we can't take action, our discussion doesn't lead to any action, and I just wonder if it wouldn't be appropriate to defer this application in the light of the fact that—

DR. MILLIKAN: With communication.

DR. DeBAKEY: —in view of the fact it isn't a completed application. Page 100, line 6-7 (Council review)

The Cornell application was incomplete and administratively withdrawn.
