Welcome to the Access to Archival Databases (AAD) SystemNEW! What's New in AAD

Using AAD, you can search some of NARA's holdings of electronic records. For further information about all of NARA's electronic records holdings, including those not in AAD, see the Electronic and Special Media Records Services table of contents page. To search descriptions of NARA's non-electronic records, NARA's online catalogue, ARC also is available.

AAD gives you:

- Online access to a selection of nearly 50 million historic electronic records created by more than 20 federal agencies on a wide range of topics;
- the ability to search for records with the specific information that you seek;
- important contextual information to help you understand the records better, including code lists, explanatory notes from NARA archivists, and for some series or files in AAD, related documents.

AAD supports NARA's mission, strategic plan, and vision by providing the public of the House of Representatives.

Among the vicissitudes incident to life, no event could have filled me with greater anxieties than that of which the notification was transmitted by your order, and received on the fourteenth day of the present month: — On the one hand, I was summoned by my Country, whose voice I can never hear but with veneration and love, from a retreat which I had chosen with the fondest predilection, and, in my flattering hopes, with an immutable decision, as the asylum of my declining years: a retreat which was rendered every day
