SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Participation in the investigation and service list. Persons wishing to participate in the investigation as parties must file an entry of appearance with the Secretary to the Commission, as provided in section 201.11 of the Commission's rules, not later than seven days after publication of this notice in the Federal Register. The Secretary will prepare a service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to this investigation upon the expiration of the period for filing entries of appearance.

Limited disclosure of confidential business information (CBI) under an administrative protective order (APO) and CBI service list. Pursuant to section 206.47 of the Commission's rules, the Secretary will make CBI gathered in this investigation available to authorized applicants under the APO issued in the investigation, provided that the application is made not later than seven days after the publication of this notice in the Federal Register. A separate service list will be maintained by the Secretary for those parties authorized to receive CBI under the APO.

Hearing. The Commission has scheduled a hearing in connection with this investigation beginning at 9:30 a.m. on February 19, 2004, at the U.S. International Trade Commission Building. Subjects related to both market disruption or threat thereof and remedy may be addressed at the hearing. Requests to appear at the hearing should be filed in writing with the Secretary to the Commission on or before February 10, 2004. All persons desiring to appear at the hearing and make oral presentations should attend a prehearing conference to be held at 9:30 a.m. on February 13, 2004, at the U.S. International Trade Commission Building. Oral testimony and written materials to be submitted at the hearing are governed by sections 201.6(b)(2) and 201.13(f) of the Commission's rules.

Written submissions. Each party is encouraged to submit a prehearing brief to the Commission. The deadline for filing prehearing briefs is February 12, 2004. Parties may also file posthearing briefs. The deadline for filing posthearing briefs is February 24, 2004. In addition, any person who has not entered an appearance as a party to the investigation may submit a written statement of information pertinent to the consideration of market disruption or threat thereof and/or remedy on or before February 24, 2004. Parties may submit final comments on market disruption on March 4, 2004, and on remedy on March 11, 2004. All written submissions must conform with the provisions of section 201.8 of the Commission's rules; any submissions that contain CBI must also conform with the requirements of section 201.6 of the Commission's rules. The Commission's rules do not authorize filing of submissions with the Secretary by facsimile or electronic means, except to the extent permitted by section 201.8 of the Commission's rules, as amended, 67 FR 68036 (November 8, 2002).

In accordance with section 201.16(c) of the Commission's rules, each document filed by a party to the investigation must be served on all other parties to the investigation (as identified by the service list), and a certificate of service must be timely filed. The Secretary will not accept a document for filing without a certificate of service.

Remedy. Parties are reminded that no separate hearing on the issue of remedy will be held. Those parties wishing to present arguments on the issue of remedy may do so orally at the hearing or in their prehearing briefs, posthearing briefs, or final comments on remedy.

Authority: This investigation is being conducted under the authority of section 421 of the Trade Act of 1974; this notice is published pursuant to section 206.3 of the Commission's rules.

Issued: January 8, 2004.

By order of the Commission.

investigation are or will be available for inspection during official business hours (8:45 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.) in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street SW., Washington, DC 20436, telephone 202-205-2000. General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its Internet server (<http://www.usitc.gov>). The public record for this investigation may be viewed on the Commission's electronic docket (EDIS) at <http://edis.usitc.gov>. Hearing-impaired persons are advised that information on the matter can be obtained by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal on 202-205-1810.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on September 12, 2003, based on a complaint filed by American Biophysics Corp. ("ABC") of North Kingstown, Rhode Island. 68 FR 24755. The complaint, as supplemented, alleged violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 in the importation into the United States, sale for importation, and/or sale within the United States after importation of certain insect traps that infringe the claims of ABC's U.S. Patents No. 6,286,249 and No. 6,145,243. The notice of investigation identified one respondent, Blue Rhino Corp. ("BRC") of Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

On November 10, 2003, ABC filed a motion to amend its complaint to add the following four entities as respondents in the investigation: Blue Rhino Consumer Products ("BRCP"), LLC of Winston-Salem, North Carolina; Blue Rhino Global Sourcing, LLC ("BRGS"), of Winston-Salem, North Carolina; Guangdong Dong Fang Imp. & Exp. Corp. of Shenzhen, China; and Lentek International, Inc. of Kissimmee, Florida. The Commission investigative attorney supported the motion. Existing respondent BRC and proposed respondents BRCP and BRGS filed a response indicating that they did not oppose the motion.

On December 8, 2003, the presiding administrative law judge issued an ID (Order No. 5) granting ABC's motion. No petitions for review of the ID were filed.

This action is taken under the authority of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, 19 U.S.C. 1337, and section 210.42(h) of the Commission Rules of Practice and Procedure, 19 CFR 210.42(h).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: January 7, 2004.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Inv. No. 337-TA-504]

In the Matter of Certain Signature Capture Transaction Devices and Component Parts Thereof, and Systems That Employ Such Devices; Notice of Investigation

AGENCY: International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Institution of investigation pursuant to 19 U.S.C. 1337.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that a complaint was filed with the U.S. International Trade Commission on December 9, 2003, under section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1337, on behalf of NCR Corporation of Dayton, Ohio. An amended complaint was filed on December 24, 2003, and a supplement to the amended complaint was filed on December 29, 2003. The complaint, as amended and supplemented, alleges violations of section 337 in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain signature capture transaction devices and component parts thereof, and systems that employ such devices, by reason of infringement of claims 20, 46, 55, and 65 of U.S. Patent No. 6,539,363. The complaint further alleges that an industry in the United States exists as required by subsection (a)(2) of section 337.

The complainant requests that the Commission institute an investigation and, after the investigation, issue a permanent exclusion order and permanent cease and desist orders.

ADDRESSES: The complaint, except for any confidential information contained therein, is available for inspection during official business hours (8:45 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.) in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street SW., Room 112, Washington, DC 20436, telephone (202) 205-2000. Hearing impaired individuals are advised that information on this matter can be obtained by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal on (202) 205-1810.
