

child's program for reasons beyond the child's control, it is ultra vires and of no effect.

(b) The effect of finding clear and unmistakable error ("CUE") is that the corrected decision is considered made on the date of the reversed decision. 38 CFR 3.105(a). Based on CUE, the veteran in this case was found entitled to compensation for permanent and total service-connected disability ("P&T") effective August 19, 1986. As of the same date, each of the veteran's sons thereby became an "eligible person" (defined in 38 U.S.C. 3501(a)(1)(A)(ii)) entitled to chapter 35 education benefits. Such entitlement may be used during an 8-year eligibility period determined pursuant to 38 U.S.C. 3512, but in no event before the date when the affected child became an "eligible person" (i.e., August 19, 1986).

(c) The basic chapter 35 eligibility period under section 3512(a) runs from the child's 18th birthday to the child's 26th birthday, but exceptions exist. Under the "first finds" exception, when the effective date of the veteran's P&T disability is between the child's 18th and 26th birthdays, section 3512(a)(3), as in force in November 1999, establishes, by operation, the beginning date for the child's eligibility period as the date the Secretary first finds that the parent from who eligibility is derived has a service-connected disability permanent in nature. The term "first finds" is defined in subsection 3512(d) to mean the effective date of the parent's P&T rating or the date of notification to the parent, whichever is more advantageous to the eligible person. Thus, a child's chapter 35 eligibility period must be determined on the facts found and based on the eligibility-period-beginning date that is more advantageous to the child pursuant to the application of both section 3512(a)(3) and section 3512(d). In addition, an award of chapter 35 benefits is predicated on the timely filing of a claim therefor. 38 U.S.C. 3513; 38 CFR 21.1029. The date of claim is an integral factor in determining the date from which benefits may be awarded, pursuant to 38 U.S.C. 5113, for pursuit of an approved program of education pursued during the child's established chapter 35 eligibility period.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background: My HealtheVet is a web-based system that provides veterans with information and tools that they can use to increase their knowledge about health conditions, increase communication with their care providers and improve their own health. Participating veterans can request on-line prescription refills, view upcoming appointments, and check their co-payment balances. Through a web-based environment, the VA will also provide a secure and private health space where veterans can enter their own medical information in a "self-entered" health information section, and request a download of copies of key portions of their official VA health record. Veterans can personalize this private environment with links to explanatory material that may help them understand their health record and how to improve their health. As My HealtheVet is refined, VA plans to offer more services to veterans, such as secure electronic messaging with their VA health care providers.

While VA is the authoritative source of veterans' VA medical records, once veterans request copies of key portions of their medical records, VA will download the copies into a secure and private health space where they are owned and maintained by the veteran.

The veteran's self-entered health information is also owned and maintained by the veteran in the My HealtheVet secure and private health space. This self-entered health information is only included in the veteran's official VA medical record upon the veteran's request and upon the VA's medical determination that it is appropriate to include it in the official medical record.

The VA does not provide access to the veteran's personal health information in My HealtheVet in medical emergency situations. However, if a non-VA health care provider requires information from VA medical records to treat a veteran patient, the non-VA health care provider should contact the VA facility where the veteran patient was last treated to obtain that information.

This new on-line environment, which is consistent with existing VA clinical practices, allows veterans to share all or part of the information in their account with other individuals, such as family members, and VA and non-VA health care providers.

VA will only release the health information in the veteran's private and secure health space when authorized to do so by the veteran user, except in very limited circumstances. These limited circumstances include in response to a court order or a subpoena signed by a judge, or in response to a written request from a law enforcement agency. Further details about the operation and maintenance of My HealtheVet are provided to qualified individuals at the time they register for the My HealtheVet program.

In order to administer the My HealtheVet program and support the provision of the above benefits to veterans, VHA is retaining administrative information, including personally identifiable information, on users and information technology (IT) administrators of My HealtheVet electronic services. This administrative information is stored in the My HealtheVet Administrative Records System, and constitutes a system of records.

I. Description of Proposed System of Records

The proposed My HealtheVet Administrative Records System contains administrative information created or collected during the course of operating My HealtheVet, and is provided by veterans and other qualified individuals, their delegates and grantees, Veterans Health Information Systems and Technology Architecture (VistA) IT systems, VA employees, contractors, and subcontractors. At this time, the My HealtheVet program is planning to maintain minimal administrative records at each local facility, while maintaining more comprehensive administrative records at a central location in the VA Austin Automation Center. The records kept locally support the local VA My HealtheVet training programs, sensitive information reviews and VA's annual reporting requirements under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) for those veterans who sign up for electronic access to copies of key portions of their health records.

The more comprehensive repository of administrative information is being housed at the Austin Automation Center (AAC). This information is used to support My HealtheVet electronic services, such as requests for prescription refill, co-payment and appointment information, entry of personal health metrics, and requests for copies of key portions of the personal health information on-line. This information may also be used for business administrative reports for
