For example, the Commission considers the extent to which the applicant may need to exercise eminent domain to obtain rights-of-way for the proposed project and balances that against the non-environmental benefits to be provided by the project. Therefore, if a person has comments on community and landowner impacts from this proposal, it is important to file comments or to intervene as early in the process as possible.

Colorado Interstate Gas Company; Notice of Tariff Filing

December 24, 2003.

Take notice that on December 19, 2003, Colorado Interstate Gas Company (CIG) tendered for filing to be part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, the following tariff sheets, to become effective January 19, 2004:

Fourth Revised Sheet No. 383A
Second Revised Sheet No. 407
Second Revised Sheet No. 413
Second Revised Sheet No. 420
Fifth Revised Sheet No. 427

CIG states that the tariff sheets revise its Form of Service Agreements applicable to service under CIG's firm rate schedules to include additional contracting flexibility in the manner in which amended service agreements relate to prior agreements.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. This filing is available for review at the Commission in the Public Reference Room or may be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the eLibrary. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number field to access the document. #### Eastern Shore Natural Gas Company; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

December 24, 2003.

Take notice that on December 16, 2003, Eastern Shore Natural Gas Company (Eastern Shore) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, the following revised tariff sheets proposed to be effective January 15, 2004:

Second Revised Tariff Sheet No. 217
Second Revised Tariff Sheet No. 221

Eastern Shore states that the purpose of this filing is to revise its tariff to "de-link" its deferred GRO account from section 35, Refund of Cash Out Revenues in Excess of Costs and include such deferred account as a component of its current Fuel Retention Percentage, in much the same manner as is done in numerous other pipeline tariffs. Eastern Shore also states that such revision would permit it to recover on a more current basis any such under-recoveries from those customers on its system at the time such under-recovery was incurred.

Eastern Shore further states that it proposes to revise section 35 of its GT&C to permit it to calculate and implement an annual surcharge for an under-recovered balance (i.e., cash out costs in excess of cash out revenues) at the end of the annual cash out period.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's rules and regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings.
