Corrosion-Resistant Carbon Steel Flat Products From Korea: Partial Rescission of Antidumping Duty Administrative Review

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of Partial Rescission of the Antidumping Duty Administrative Review.

SUMMARY: On September 30, 2003, in response to a request made by International Steel Group, Inc., an importer of the subject merchandise, the Department of Commerce ("Department") published a notice of initiation of an antidumping duty administrative review of Corrosion-Resistant Carbon Steel Flat Products from Korea ("Korean CORE"), for the period of review ("POR") August 1, 2002 through July 31, 2003. Because neither SeAH Steel Corporation ("SeAH"), an exporter of the subject merchandise, nor any of its affiliates had exports or sales of the subject merchandise to the United States during the POR, the Department is rescinding this review in part in accordance with 19 CFR 351.213(d)(3).

EFFECTIVE DATE: May 5, 2004.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: John D. A. LaRose, Enforcement Group III,

Office 9, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20230; telephone: 202-482-3794.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On August 29, 2003, International Steel Group requested that the Department conduct an administrative review of the antidumping duty order on Korean CORE for the period August 1, 2002 through July 31, 2003. On July 1, 2003, the Department published a notice of initiation of the antidumping administrative review of Korean CORE, in accordance with 19 CFR 351.221(c)(1)(i). See Initiation of Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Administrative Reviews, Requests for Revocations in Part, 68 FR 56262 (September 30, 2003). This review covers several exporters of the subject merchandise, including SeAH. On October 9, 2003, SeAH submitted a timely letter stating that the company and its affiliates did not have exports or sales of the subject merchandise to the United States during the POR. The letter also requested that the Department terminate the administrative review with respect to SeAH.

On October 23, 2003, the Department sent an electronic message to U.S. Customs and Border Protection ("CBP") requesting that CBP officials report any known entries of subject merchandise from SeAH during the POR. In its message to CBP, the Department stated that no reply was required if CBP officials were not aware of any entries. By the deadline stated in our request, the Department received no reply. The Department also examined the online CBP listing of entries suspended under the order and found no SeAH entries during the POR. On March 15, 2004, the Department provided interested parties with a draft rescission, soliciting comments by March 22, 2004. See Memorandum to Edward Yang from Lisa Shishido Regarding Intent to Partially Rescind the Antidumping Duty Administrative Review of Korean Core, March 15, 2004. No interested parties submitted comments with regard to this rescission in part.

Rescission of Review

SeAH stated in its October 9, 2003 letter that it had no exports or sales in the United States of subject merchandise during the POR, and the Department has confirmed from available CBP data that SeAH had no entries of subject merchandise during the POR. In addition, no interested party commented on that finding.

Pursuant to the Department's regulations, the Department will rescind an administrative review "with respect to a particular exporter or producer, if the Secretary concludes that, during the period covered by the review, there were no entries, exports, or sales of the subject merchandise, as the case may be." See 19 CFR 351.213(d)(3). SeAH's timely letter and the Department's efforts to identify entries, exports or sales of subject merchandise through U.S. Customs and Border Protection ("CBP") for the POR show no such entries, exports or sales for SeAH or any of its affiliates. Accordingly, we are rescinding the administrative review for the period August 1, 2002 through July 31, 2003, and will issue appropriate assessment instructions to CBP.

This notice serves as a reminder to parties subject to administrative protective order ("APO") of their responsibility concerning the disposition of proprietary information disclosed under APO in accordance with 19 CFR 351.305(a)(3). Timely written notification of the return or destruction of APO materials or conversion to judicial protective order is hereby requested. Failure to comply with the regulations and terms of an APO is a sanctionable violation. This determination is issued in accordance with 19 CFR 351.213(d)(4) and section 777(i)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended.

Dated: April 27, 2004.

James J. Jochum,

Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.

Honey From the People's Republic of China: Final Results of First Antidumping Duty Administrative Review

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of final results of first antidumping duty administrative review.

SUMMARY: On December 16, 2003, the Department published the preliminary results of the first administrative review of the antidumping duty order on honey from the People's Republic of China (PRC) (68 FR 69988). This review covers four exporters or producer/exporters, (1)

Zhejiang Native Produce and Animal By-Products Import & Export Corp. a.k.a. Zhejiang Native Produce and Animal By-Products Import and Export Group Corporation (Zhejiang) and its unaffiliated suppliers; (2) Henan Native Produce and Animal By-Products Import & Export Company (Henan); (3) High Hope International Group Jianguo Foodstuffs Import and Export Corp. (High Hope); and (4) Kunshan Foreign Trade Company (Kunshan), and exports of the subject merchandise to the United States during the period February 10, 2001, through November 30, 2002.¹

Based on our analysis of the record, including factual information obtained since the preliminary results, we have made changes to Zhejiang's margin calculations to adjust the inflators used to achieve a surrogate raw honey value contemporaneous with the period of review and to adjust our calculation of net U.S. prices. We also adjusted the surrogate value for labor to reflect the updated PRC regression-based wages calculated by the Department. Therefore, the final results differ from the preliminary results. See "Final Results of Review" section below.

EFFECTIVE DATE: May 5, 2004.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Angelica Mendoza or Brandon Farlander at (202) 482-3019 or (202) 482-0182, respectively; Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Enforcement Group III, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20230.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

We published in the Federal Register the preliminary results of the first administrative review on December 16, 2003. See Notice of Preliminary Results of First Administrative Antidumping Duty Review: Honey from the People's Republic of China, 68 FR 69988 (December 16, 2003) (Preliminary Results).

The period of review (POR) is February 10, 2001, through November 30, 2002. We invited parties to comment on our Preliminary Results. We received case briefs from the respondent, Zhejiang, and the American Honey Producers Association and the Sioux Honey Association (collectively, petitioners), on January 21, 2004.² We received rebuttal briefs from the same parties on January 27, 2004.³ On January 28, 2004, we held a public hearing for this review.

Scope of the Antidumping Duty Order

The products covered by this order are natural honey, artificial honey containing more than 50 percent natural honey by weight, preparations of natural honey containing more than 50 percent natural honey by weight, and flavored honey. The subject merchandise includes all grades and colors of honey whether in liquid, creamed, comb, cut comb, or chunk form, and whether packaged for retail or in bulk form.

The merchandise subject to this review is currently classifiable under subheadings 0409.00.00, 1702.90.90, and 2106.90.99 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS). Although the HTSUS subheadings are provided for convenience and the U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) purposes, the Department's written description of the merchandise under order is dispositive.

Analysis of Comments Received

All issues raised in the briefs are addressed in the Issues and Decision Memorandum, which is hereby adopted by this notice. A list of the issues raised, all of which are in the Issues and Decision Memorandum, is attached to this notice as Appendix I. Parties can find a complete discussion of all issues raised in the briefs and the corresponding recommendations in this public memorandum which is on file in the Central Records Unit (CRU), room B-099 of the main Department building. In addition, a complete version of the Issues and Decision Memorandum can be accessed directly on the Web at <http://ia.ita.doc.gov>. The paper copy and electronic version of the Issues and Decision Memorandum are identical in content.

Changes Since the Preliminary Results

Based on the comments received from the interested parties, we have made changes to the margin calculation for Zhejiang. For a discussion of these changes, see Issues and Decision

² On January 28, 2004, Zhejiang submitted a letter of objection to new factual information contained in petitioners' rebuttal brief. Per the Department's letter dated February 13, 2004, petitioners re-filed their rebuttal brief on February 18, 2004.

³ In their rebuttal brief dated January 28, 2004, petitioners alleged that Zhejiang had submitted new factual information in its case brief. See Petitioners' Rebuttal Brief re-filed on February 18, 2004 at 2. Per the Department's letter dated February 13, 2004, Zhejiang re-filed its case brief on February 18, 2004.

¹ As stated in the Preliminary Results, the Department rescinded the administrative reviews of five exporters or producer/exporters. See Honey from the People's Republic of China: Final Rescission, in Part, of Antidumping Duty Administrative Review, 68 FR 44045 (July 25, 2003).
