This Notice also lists the following information:

Title of Proposal: Housing Counseling Program—Automated Client Management Data System.

OMB Control Number, if applicable: 2502-0261.

Description of the need for the information and proposed use. Section 106 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 authorizes HUD to contract with organizations to provide counseling to tenants and homeowners to assist them in improving their housing conditions and in meeting the responsibilities of tenancy and homeownership. Counseling agencies are required to submit their qualifications to provide such services. HUD-approved agencies can compete for program funds. Grantees are required to submit performance data to enable HUD to evaluate the effectiveness of the program. This new automated web-based system provides a standard electronic tool to record counseling information for automatic input into the HUD-9902 reporting instrument and other necessary reports. The only reporting instrument affected by this submission is the form HUD-9902. Forms HUD-9900 and HUD-9908 are not affected.

Agency form numbers, if applicable: HUD-9900, HUD-9902, HUD-9908.

Estimation of the total numbers of hours needed to prepare the information collection including number of respondents, frequency of response, and hours response: The estimated total number of hours needed to prepare the information collection is 2,800; the number of respondents is 7,275 generating approximately 7,275 annual responses; the frequency of response is on occasion and annually; and the estimated time needed to prepare the response varies from 10 minutes to 8 hours.

Status of the proposed information collection: Revision of currently approved collection.

Authority: The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, 44 U.S.C., Chapter 35, as amended.

Dated: March 12, 2003.

Sean G. Cassidy,

General Deputy Assistant Secretary for Housing-Deputy Federal Housing Commissioner.
