Exhibit C

November 4, 2003.

Dear Member: After we "went to the printers" with the enclosed proxy statement, we discovered the need to clarify several points on the "fast track" authority and the independence of the regulatory function.

First, I neglected to subject to the SEC process my expectation that the new boards would begin operating immediately. While I will immediately begin to work with the new boards, their actions will have no legal effect under the federal securities laws until the SEC approves our new Constitution.

Second, my description in the proxy statement of the interaction of the CEO with the Regulatory Oversight Committee should read: "The CEO's views on the regulatory function, its plans, programs, staffing and budget may be sought, but the Regulatory Oversight Committee's views on compensating regulatory personnel will be recommended through the Compensation Committee to the full Board for approval."

Finally, the new Constitution includes provisions to assure the separation and independence of the regulatory function from the Exchange's marketplace function and from inappropriate influence by members and member organizations. To further clarify and underscore this separation, we need to make some additional changes.

The new Constitution permits your new Board to amend four of its 16 articles. At its organizational meeting, I will present specific language for approval and filing with the SEC. Those further changes will:

- Codify the authority of the Audit Committee to hire its own counsel.
- Clarify that the CEO is recused from Board deliberations on the activities of the Standing Committees specified in Article IV, Section 12(a).
- Clarify that rulemaking on the subjects described in Article IV, Section 14(a) as normally confined to the Board or its committees may, if necessary, be authorized by an officer of the Exchange in between board meetings, subject to informing the Board at its next meeting, and to the approval of the Chief Regulatory Officer if on a regulatory matter.

- Clarify in Article VI, Section 1 that the President does not appoint regulatory officers, and in Section 3 that the CEO's responsibilities are subject to the specific provisions elsewhere in the Constitution regarding the separation of the regulatory functions.

I apologize for the need to supplement the proxy statement, but it is important to make clear to all the independence of our regulatory function under our proposed new architecture.

Best,

John S. Reed.

Pursuant to the authority vested in me as Secretary of State, including under Section 1(c) of Public Law 102-420, and the President's Delegation of Responsibilities Related to Serbia and Montenegro dated March 22, 2001, I hereby certify that Serbia and Montenegro (1) has ceased its armed conflict with the other ethnic peoples of the region formerly comprising the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, (2) has agreed to respect the borders of the six republics that comprised the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia under the 1974 Yugoslav Constitution; and (3) has ceased all support of Serbian forces inside Bosnia-Herzegovina.

This Certification shall be published in the Federal Register, and copies shall be provided to the appropriate committees of the Congress.

Dated: October 31, 2003.

Colin L. Powell,

Secretary of State.

In 1992, Congress enacted Public Law 102-420 withdrawing most favored nation status (now referred to as "normal trade relations" or "NTR") from Serbia and Montenegro. Pursuant to Public Law 102-420, the President may restore nondiscriminatory treatment to goods that are the product of Serbia or Montenegro 30 days after her certifies to Congress that the conditions set forth in the statute have been met. On March 22, 2001, the President delegated to the Secretary of State authority to make this certification. The certification was notified to Congress on November 4, 2003, and thus normal trade relations status will be restored to Serbia and Montenegro as of December 4, 2003.
