

2002, the Commission found a violation of section 337 in the unlawful importation and sale by respondents Silicon Integrated Systems Corp. of Taiwan and Silicon Integrated Systems Corp. of the United States (collectively "respondents") of certain integrated circuits, and certain products containing same, made by a process covered by claim 13 of U.S. Patent No. 6,117,345, owned by complainants United Microelectronics Corp., UMC Group (USA), and United Foundry Service, Inc. (collectively "complainants").

On March 13, 2003, complainants and respondents filed a joint petition to rescind the limited exclusion order under Commission rule 210.76(a)(1), 19 CFR 210.76(a)(1), on the basis of a settlement agreement they had reached. Complainants and respondents asserted that their settlement agreement constituted "changed conditions of fact or law" sufficient to justify rescission of the order under Commission rule 210.76(a)(1). Complainants and respondents also sought in their joint petition to have the Commission vacate Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") Order No. 5, which restricted the patent prosecution activities of William H. Wright of Hogan & Hartson, counsel for complainants, and other patent practitioners at Hogan & Hartson, who had subscribed to the administrative protective order. ALJ Order No. 5 had been entered at the request of respondents.

This action is taken under the authority of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, 19 U.S.C. 1337, and § 210.76(a)(1) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, 19 CFR 210.76(a)(1).

Issued: April 23, 2003.

By order of the Commission.

Marilyn R. Abbott,

Secretary to the Commission.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Office of Justice Programs

Agency Information Collection Activities: Proposed Collection; Comments Requested

ACTION: 30-day notice of information collection under review: extension of a currently approved collection; survey of practitioners to assess the impact of transnational crime.

The Department of Justice (DOJ), Office of Justice Programs (OJP) has submitted the following information collection request to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review and approval in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. The proposed information collection is published to obtain comments from the public and affected agencies. This proposed information collection was previously published in the Federal Register volume 67, number 213, page 67210 on November 4, 2002, allowing for a 60 day comment period.

The purpose of this notice is to allow for an additional 30 days for public comment until May 30, 2003. This process is conducted in accordance with 5 CFR 1320.10.

Written comments and/or suggestions regarding the items contained in this notice, especially the estimated public burden and associated response time, should be directed to The Office of Management and Budget, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Attention Department of Justice Desk Officer, Washington, DC 20503.

Request written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information are encouraged. Your comments should address one or more of the following four points:

(1) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of this information collection:

(1) Type of Information Collection: Extension of a currently approved collection.

(2) Title of the Form/Collection: Survey of Practitioners to Assess the Impact of Transnational Crime.

(3) Agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the department sponsoring the collection: OJP Form Number, none. National Institute of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, Department of Justice.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or require to respond, as well as a brief abstract: Affected public includes law enforcement administrators or other persons responsible for investigatory operations within sampled jurisdictions. The survey will gather information about the impact of terrorism and other transnational crimes on local jurisdictions across the country, including resource allocation, collaboration with other agencies, extent of activity, and awareness of activity. The data will be used to advise the National Institute of Justice, Federal law enforcement agencies, and State and local law enforcement agencies on how State and local jurisdictions are impacted by terrorism and transnational crime.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: An estimated 250 respondents will complete the survey which will take 30 minutes to complete.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with this collection: An estimated 125 hours of public burden is associated with this collection.

National Endowment for the Arts

Proposed Collection; Comments Request

SUMMARY: The National Endowment for the Arts (NEA), as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, conducts a preclearance consultation program to provide the general public and Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA95) (44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(A)). This program helps to ensure that requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirements on respondents can be properly assessed. Currently, the NEA is soliciting comments concerning the proposed information collection of: National Endowment for the Arts Panelist Profile Form. A copy of the current information collection request can be obtained by contacting the office listed below in the ADDRESSES section of this notice.

DATES: Written comments must be submitted to the office listed in the address section below on or before July 2, 2003. The NEA is particularly interested in comments which:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond.
