Description: MSHA's Emergency Temporary Standard; Final Rule 67 FR

239, Thursday, December 12, 2002) revises requirements for Emergency Evacuations of underground coal mines (30 CFR parts 48 and 75) by setting forth requirements that allow for miners and mine operators to rapidly and safely respond to emergency situations created by fire, explosion, or gas or water inundation hazards, and initiate an immediate mine evacuation when necessary to protect miners from the grave dangers of remaining underground or re-entering affected areas when hazards and conditions arise that endanger safety.

On December 11, 2002, OMB approved the information collection requirements contained in the Emergency Temporary Standard for the maximum period allowed under 5 CFR 1320.13 ("Emergency Processing"). Since the training, recordkeeping, and reporting requirements contained in the Emergency Temporary Standard are critical to safety of miners, MSHA is seeking to extend OMB approval for these information collection requirements under standard clearance procedures.

Ira L. Mills,

Departmental Clearance Officer.

Notice of Final Determination Regarding Forced/Indentured Child Labor Pursuant to Executive Order 13126

AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, Labor.

ACTION: Notice of final determination regarding forced child labor in the firecracker industry in China.

SUMMARY: This notice sets forth the final determination regarding a May 2001 submission, pursuant to Executive Order 13126 ("Prohibition of Acquisition of Products Produced by Forced or Indentured Child Labor") and alleging forced child labor in the firecracker industry in China. The Department of Labor, in consultation and cooperation with the Departments of Treasury and State, has determined that firecrackers from China should not be added to final list of products prohibited from acquisition under Executive Order 13126, based on the lack of recent, credible and appropriately corroborated information indicating that this product is being manufactured with forced or indentured child labor.
