SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

Prohibited Transaction Class Exemption 75-1 provides an exemption from prohibited transaction provisions of the Employment Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). The exemption permits, under certain conditions, an employee benefit plan to purchase securities from broker-dealers' personal inventories of stocks, from underwriting syndicates in which a plan fiduciary is a member, from banks, from reporting dealers, and from a market makers even if a market-maker is a plan fiduciary. The exemption also permits, under certain conditions, a plan to accept an extension of credit from a broker-dealer for the purpose of facilitating settlement of a securities transaction.

By requiring that records pertaining to the exempted transaction be maintained for six years, this ICR insures that the exemption is not abused, the rights of the participants and beneficiaries are protected, and that compliance with the exemption's conditions can be confirmed. The exemption affects participants and beneficiaries of the plans that are involved in such transactions as well as certain broker-dealers, reporting dealers, banks, underwriting syndicates, and market makers.

II. Review Focus

The Department of Labor (Department) is particularly interested in comments that:

Chalup SetNet Operation, Homer, Alaska; Notice of Termination of Investigation

Pursuant to Section 221 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, an investigation was initiated on October 1, 2003 in response to a petition filed by a company official on behalf of workers of the Chalup SetNet Operation, Homer, Alaska.

The investigation revealed that the subject firm did not separate or threaten to separate a significant number or proportion of workers as required by Section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974. Significant number or proportion of the workers means that at least three workers in a firm with a workforce of fewer than 50 workers would have to be affected. Separations by the subject firm did not meet this threshold level; consequently the investigation has been terminated.

Signed at Washington, DC this 8th day of October 2003.

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.
