

and resulted in the discharge of approximately 8,700 gallons of gasoline into the South Platte River in Denver, Colorado. The second spill occurred on March 31, 2000, and resulted in the discharge of approximately 5,000 gallons of asphalt into Clear Creek, near Golden, Colorado.

Pursuant to the consent decree, Groendyke Transport Inc., ("Groendyke") will pay the sum of $48,475 to the Oil Spill Liability Trust Fund and spend $90,025 in the performance of a Supplemental Environmental Project (SEP). The SEP involves Groendyke's purchase of equipment and the funding of training for the South Adams County Fire District so that it will be able to respond more effectively to future spills of petroleum and other hazardous substances. The area served by the South Adams County Fire District includes portions of the South Platte River watershed, the area impacted by the gasoline spill.

The Department of Justice will receive for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication comments relating to the consent decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, PO Box 7611, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20044-7611, and should refer to United States v. Groendyke Transport, Inc., Civil Action No. 01-M-1821 (CBS) (D. Colo.), D.J. Ref. 90-5-1-1-07293.

The consent decree may be examined at U.S. EPA Region 8, 999 18th Street, Suite 500, Denver, Colorado, 80202. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging of Consent Decree Under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act

Notice is hereby given that on August 9, 2003, a proposed Consent Decree in United States v. Haskell Chemical Company, Inc. et al., Civil Action No. 3:03CV642 was lodged with the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia.

In this action the United States sought to recover costs incurred in responding to the release or threatened release of hazardous substances into the environment from the HH Burn Pit Superfund Site, located in Hanover County, Virginia, near the community of Farrington. The Consent Decree will recover past response costs from Haskell Chemical Company, Inc. and HH, Inc., a dissolved Virginia corporation. On behalf of HH, Inc., the trustees of the Liquidating for Assets and Liabilities of HH, Inc. will cause to be paid to the United States the sum of two hundred thirty-five thousand dollars ($235,000). Upon entry of this Consent Decree, Haskell Chemical Company, Inc. will pay to the United States the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000). Haskell Chemical Company, Inc. will also pay the additional sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), plus interest, to be paid to the United States in two annual installments, the first to occur one year after entry of the Consent Decree. In exchange for these payments, Haskell Chemical Company, Inc. and HH, Inc. will each receive a release from liability for past and future response costs incurred by the United States in connection with the Site, subject to certain limitations and conditions. In addition, Haskell Chemical Company, Inc. and HH, Inc. will each receive complete protection from contribution actions brought to recover costs incurred by any other party in connection with the Site.

The Department of Justice will receive for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication comments relating to the Consent Decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, PO Box 7611, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20044-7611, and should refer to *United States v.
