Notice of Lodging of Consent Decree Under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980

Notice is hereby given that on August 2, 2005 a proposed Consent Decree in United States v. Union Pacific Railroad Company, an action under Sections 107 and 113 of the comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 ("CERCLA"), as amended, 42 U.S.C. 9607 and 9613, was lodged with the United States District Court for the District of Utah, Case No. 2:05CV00650 BD (D. Utah).

In this action, the United States sought the recovery of costs incurred and to be incurred by the United States in response to releases or threatened releases of hazardous substances at and from the Eureka Mills NPL Site located in Eureka, Utah (the "Site"). The United States alleged that the Union Pacific Railroad Company was liable under CERCLA Sections 106 and 107(a)(1) and (2), 42 U.S.C. 906 and 9607(a)(1) and (2), as a past owner of a portion of the Site at the time of disposal and as a present owner of a portion of the Site upon which hazardous substances have been released, for those response costs set forth in CERCLA Section 107(a)(4)(A)-(D), 42 U.S.C. 9607(a)(4)(A)-(D).

The settlement between the United States and the Union Pacific Railroad Company provides that the Union Pacific Railroad Company will implement the remedy for the Upper Eureka Gulch portion of the Site selected by the Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA") for which the United States has alleged that the Union Pacific Railroad Company was responsible under CERCLA. The Union Pacific Railroad Company will also undertake certain quarry operations on-Site to produce rock and other borrow material needed by EPA for the 2005 and 2006 construction season. EPA estimates that the value of the work to be done by Union Pacific Railroad Company to be excess of $4.3 million. In addition, the Union Pacific Railroad Company will pay $270,690.00 into a special account to compensate EPA for anticipated future response costs.
