How to Apply ASPEN GUARD STATION ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE PROGRAM

Applications are accepted annually from January 1 - March 1. Selection and notification are made by no later than May 1. Residencies for those selected are scheduled June through September of the same year on a first-come, first-served basis. Applications must be stamped as received by the deadline at the following address: Ann Bond, San Juan Public Lands Center, 15 Burnett Court, Durango, CO 81301. Please follow the below instructions carefully.

Put together four packets of the following (collated and stapled):

1. A 1-2-page resume with a summary of creative works, exhibitions, awards, etc.
2. A listing of titles of submitted images, including actual sizes and media.
3. A 1-page statement describing:
  - What you hope to achieve from a residency;
  - How you would spend your time at the cabin;
  - How you would share your work or talents with the community during or following your residency;
  - Your ability to work in a primitive setting.
4. Include samples of your work (identified with your name and address) as follows:
  - Visual artists: One set of 6 digital images on CD. Images must be saved as 72 dpi jpgs, no larger than 1440 X 960 pixels in size.
  - Musicians or composers: One CD.
  - Performers or dancers: One DVD.
  - Writers: Not more than 5 pages of text, stories, articles, or poems (four copies collated of each)
5. A self-addressed, stamped envelope for the return of sample materials, if desired.
6. Your email address, so that we can notify you that your application has been received, and later, notify you as to whether you were selected.
