II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, Nasdaq included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. Nasdaq has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

Nasdaq proposes to revise Rule 7003 and begin charging fees for registration and transfer/re-licensing of individuals. Currently, Nasdaq is one of only a few self-regulatory organizations ("SROs") that charge membership application and renewal fees for firms, but does not charge fees for registered representatives.

Subsequent to the early 2006 transition of the Nasdaq Market Center as a facility of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (f/k/a National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.) to a facility of a new SRO, Nasdaq decided to limit membership fees to firm application, renewal, and trading rights charges. However, since then Nasdaq's market share in trading New York Stock Exchange securities has increased significantly and Nasdaq will also soon launch an options exchange. Both of these events create additional regulation expense that must be supported. Nasdaq believes that the new fees are warranted to ensure that fees for registered representatives fund a portion of the cost of regulating the Nasdaq market. Nasdaq believes that even with the new fees, registered representatives that are Nasdaq members will still generally pay less than or the same amount they pay to be registered representatives in other SROs.⁵

Nasdaq proposes to begin charging $55 for individual initial registration and transfer/re-licensing on January 1, 2008.

2. Statutory Basis

Nasdaq believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 6 of the Act,⁶ in general, and with Section 6(b)(4) of the Act,⁷ in particular, in that it provides for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees and other charges among members and issuers and other persons using any facility or system which Nasdaq operates or controls. Nasdaq believes that the proposed Nasdaq membership fees for individual registration and transfer/re-licensing are a reasonable and equitable method of ensuring that registered representative fees funds a portion of the cost of regulating the Nasdaq market, and that the overall cost for registered representatives that are Nasdaq members is reasonable as compared with their cost of membership in other SROs.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

Nasdaq does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act⁸ and subparagraph (f)(2) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder.⁹ At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.
