[Docket No. EL07-2-000]

ISO New England Inc.; Notice of Filing

January 18, 2007.

Take notice that on January 16, 2007, ISO New England Inc. filed a response in compliance to the Commission's order issued October 25, 2006 and Rule 213 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.213.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. Anyone filing a motion to intervene or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant and all the parties in this proceeding.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. There is an "eSubscription" link on the Web site that enables subscribers to receive e-mail notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s). Liberty Electric Power, LLC; Notice of Issuance of Order

January 19, 2007.

Liberty Electric Power, LLC (Liberty Electric) filed an application for market-based rate authority, with an accompanying tariff. The proposed market-based rate schedule provides for the sale of energy, capacity and ancillary services at market-based rates. Liberty Electric also requested waivers of various Commission regulations. In particular, Liberty Electric requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR. Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by Liberty Electric.

On November 20, 2001, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Tariffs and Rates—West, granted the requests for blanket approval under Part 34. The Director's order also stated that the Commission would publish a separate notice in the Federal Register establishing a period of time for the filing of protests. Accordingly, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approvals of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by Liberty Electric should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. 18 CFR 385.211, 385.214 (2004).

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protest is February 2, 2007.

Absent a request to be heard in opposition by the deadline above, Liberty Electric is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of Liberty Electric, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approvals of Liberty Electric's issuance of securities or assumptions of liability.

Copies of the full text of the Director's Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Room, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426. The Order may also be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the eLibrary link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number filed to access the document. Comments, protests, and interventions may be filed electronically via the internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-Filing" link. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings.

Magalie R. Salas,

Secretary.

Maritimes & Northeast Pipeline, L.L.C.; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

January 17, 2007.

Take notice that on January 12, 2007, Maritimes & Northeast Pipeline, L.L.C. (Maritimes) tendered for filing as a part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, Sixth Revised Sheet No. 210A and Third Revised Sheet No. 214 to reflect a corporate identity change effective January 1, 2007. This effective date coincides with the date Spectra Energy Corp was divested from Duke Energy Corporation.

Maritimes states that the tariff changes are only of a non-substantive nature as a result of the divestiture and are related to the designation of the LINK System® Web site.

Maritimes states that copies of its filing have been served upon all affected customers of Maritimes and interested State commissions.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed in accordance
