DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURYInternal Revenue Service*Privacy Act of 1974, as Amended; System of Records

AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service, Treasury.

ACTION: Notice of Proposed New System of Records.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the requirements of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 552a, the IRS gives notice of a proposed new system of records, Private Collection Agency (PCA) Quality Review Records.

DATES: Comments must be received no later than August 18, 2006. The proposed new system of records will be effective on August 28, 2006 unless the IRS receives comments which would result in a contrary determination.

ADDRESSES: Comments should be sent to the Internal Revenue Service, Attn. Ms. Patricia Ah Yat, 5000 Ellin Road, NCFB C-9-341, New Carrollton, MD 20706. You may contact her at 202-283-2366 to arrange to see the comments.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Deborah Gascard Wolf, Director, Filing and Payment Compliance Modernization Office, Internal Revenue Service, 44 South Clinton Avenue, Trenton, NJ 08609-1241. Telephone number 609-278-7732.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 881 of The American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 (Pub.L. 108-357) provides that the IRS may use private collection agencies (PCAs) to locate and contact taxpayers with outstanding federal income tax liabilities and to arrange for payment of those taxes.

This new system of records maintains quality review records, as a result of IRS monitoring of PCA employees' performance under contracts awarded by the IRS to PCAs, in order to protect taxpayers' rights and to ensure that taxpayers are treated courteously and fairly. It is designed to permit the IRS to review the overall performance of the PCAs and their employees. Monitoring may include recording of conversations between taxpayers and PCAs.

The Jobs Creation Act bars PCA employees from performing services under a qualified tax collection contract as defined in section 6306(b) of the Act if they violate taxpayer rights by creating an act or omission described under subsection (b) of the Act. Subsection (b) prohibits each person providing PCA services from committing any act or omission that employees of the Internal Revenue Service are prohibited from committing in the performance of similar services. In addition to maintaining records on each of the PCAs performing under contract, the IRS must also be able to track information as to each of the PCAs' employees performing collection activities under the contract in order to enforce this provision of the Jobs Creation Act. This system of records will enable IRS to track PCA employees who have been barred from performing qualified PCA activities to ensure they cannot avoid IRS scrutiny by changing companies and working in violation of the statute.

Internal Revenue Code (IRC) 6103 governs the disclosure of tax return and return information. IRC 6103 provides the general rule that tax returns and return information are confidential and cannot be disclosed except as provided by the Internal Revenue Code.

Tax return and return information about taxpayers whose accounts are assigned to PCAs may only be used to collect on the tax debt. IRC 6103(n) authorizes the disclosure of returns and return information under a contractual provision of certain services for tax administration purposes. Treas. Reg. 301.6103(n)-1T more particularly describes the limitations on the use of the tax information by contractors and their employees. It would not permit the usage of tax returns or return information for any personnel actions taken by the PCAs in the event the IRS identifies any PCA employees who may have violated IRC 6306(b).

This system of records will also contain records used to administer PCA quality controls and performance, including records of allegations of PCA employee misconduct and records used to make a final determination whether a PCA employee has committed an act or omission described in IRC 6306(b) that makes the individual ineligible to perform services under the PDC contract. The IRS may record telephone conversations between PCAs and taxpayers to evaluate PCA employee performance or investigate taxpayer complaints.

The report of a new system of records, as required by 5 U.S.C. 552a(r) of the Privacy Act, has been submitted to the Committee on Government Reform of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate, and the Office of Management and Budget, pursuant to Appendix I to OMB Circular A-130, "Federal Agency Responsibilities for Maintaining Records About Individuals," dated November 30, 2000.

In addition, an existing system of records, Treasury/IRS 26.019, Taxpayer Delinquent Account (TDA) Files, will be altered to indicate that certain TDA records will be at PCA locations. The alteration will be published separately in the Federal Register.

The proposed IRS new system of records, Treasury/IRS 26.055—Private Collection Agency (PCA) Quality Review Records, is published in its entirety below.

Dated: July 13, 2006.

Sandra L. Pack,

Assistant Secretary for Management and Chief Financial Officer.
