

Final Rule (IFR) and two "Security and Management Control Outsourcing Standards" (Outsourcing Standards) in the Federal Register (FR) on December 16, 2004. See 69 FR 75243 and 69 FR 75350, respectively. The Council adopted the IFR as a final rule and published a combined Outsourcing Standard in the Federal Register on December 15, 2005. See 70 FR 74200 and 70 FR 74373, respectively. The rule permits an Authorized Recipient of CHRI to outsource noncriminal justice administrative functions relating to the processing of CHRI to a third party, subject to appropriate controls. The rule states that contracts or agreements providing for authorized outsourcing "shall incorporate by reference a security and management control outsourcing standard approved by the Compact Council after consultation with the United States Attorney General."

The purpose of this notice is to provide interested parties advance notice that the FBI will soon publish an RFP for Channelers pursuant to the Council's Outsourcing Rule and Standard. The number of Channelers that will eventually be approved is unknown at this time; however, the FBI will strive to strike a balance between the number of Channelers it has the capability to administer (i.e. the number of CJIS Wide Area Network connections the FBI may reasonably establish during the first year of this initiative) and the number needed to effectively and efficiently serve the needs of Authorized Recipients. The RFP is expected to be advertised in the FedBizOpps, formerly the Commerce Business Daily, within 30 days of publishing this notice.

Dated: April 6, 2006.

Description: Section 104(b)(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) generally requires employee benefit plan administrators annually to furnish a Summary Annual Report (SAR) to each plan participant and to certain beneficiaries. The SAR must fairly summarize the information included in the plan's most recent annual report filed with the Department of Labor.

The Department of Labor's regulation under section ERISA section 104(b)(3), codified at 29 CFR 2520.104b-10, prescribes the timing and format of the SAR. Plan administrators must furnish a copy of the SAR to each participant and to each beneficiary who is receiving benefits under the plan (other than welfare plan beneficiaries) within 9 months after the close of the plan year.

The SAR provides plan a timely and accurate description of their plan's financial condition. The participants and beneficiaries who receive the SAR can determine, based on the information it contains, whether they have concerns with the operation of the plan and whether to exercise their rights under ERISA, for example, by contacting the Department when problems with the plan are identified. Concerned calls from participants and beneficiaries are a critical component of the Department's compliance assistance and enforcement efforts.

Departmental Clearance Officer.
