C. Application of Policies

To assist in the application of these policies, the Exchange has adopted certain criteria, outlined below, which a security must meet to continue to be listed on the Exchange. However, these minimum criteria[,] in no way limit or restrict the Exchange's right to delist a security, and the Exchange may at any time, in view of the circumstances in each case, suspend dealings in, or remove, a security from listing or unlisted trading when in its opinion such security is unsuitable for continued trading on the Exchange. Such action will be taken regardless of whether the issuer meets any or all of the criteria discussed below.

Rule 31.94(G)(h) in the following form will be effective on April 24, 2006.

(h) If the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee, as the case may be, shall approve the recommendation of the committee which has heard the matter, an application shall be submitted by the Exchange to the SEC to strike the security from listing (or unlisted trading) and a copy of such application shall be furnished to the issuer in accordance with Section 12 of the Exchange Act and the rules promulgated thereunder. The Exchange shall also provide public notice of its final determination to strike a class of securities from listing by issuing a press release and posting notice on the Exchange's website at least ten days prior to the date that the delisting is anticipated to be effective. The posting will remain on the Exchange's website until the delisting is effective. The action required to be taken by the Exchange to strike a security from listing and registration for corporate actions such as redemption, maturity, and retirement is set forth in Exchange Rule 31.94(C)(f) and Rule 12d2–2(a) under the Exchange Act. The relevant portions of the Section and Rules under the Exchange Act pertaining to the suspension, removal or withdrawal of securities for all other reasons, and the requirements of the Exchange applicable in certain cases, are summarized below:

(a) SEC authorization of withdrawal or striking from listing of Exchange-listed security—Section 12(d) of Exchange Act;

(b) Suspension of trading by Exchange—Rule 12d2–1 under the Exchange Act;

(c) Application of Exchange to strike security from listing and registration—Rule 12d2–2(a) and (b) under the Exchange Act; or

(d) Application of issuer to withdraw from listing and registration—Rule 12d2–2(c) under the Exchange Act. Pursuant to Rule 12d2–2(c)(2)(i) under the Exchange Act, an issuer filing an application on Form 25 must comply with all applicable laws in effect in the state in which it is incorporated. Rule 12d2–2(c)(2)(ii) under the Exchange Act provides that an issuer is required to provide written notice to the Exchange of its determination to withdraw a class of securities from listing and/or registration on the Exchange no fewer than ten days before the issuer files an application on Form 25 with the SEC. As required by Rule 12d2–2 under the Exchange Act, upon receiving written notice from an issuer that such issuer has determined to withdraw a class of securities from listing on the Exchange pursuant to this paragraph (d), the Exchange will provide notice on its website of the issuer's intent to delist its securities beginning on the business day following such notice, which will remain on the Exchange's website until the delisting on Form 25 is effective. The issuer must also notify the Exchange that it has filed Form 25 with the SEC contemporaneously with such filing.

In appropriate circumstances, when the Exchange is considering delisting because a company no longer meets the requirements for continued listing, a company may, with the consent of the Exchange, file a Form 25 with the SEC, provided that it follows the requirements set forth in SEC Rule 12d2–2(c) and discloses that it is no longer eligible for continued listing on the Exchange in its written notice to the Exchange and public press release, and if it has a publicly accessible Web site, posts such notice on that Web site.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the CBOE included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The CBOE has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The Commission adopted amendments to SEC Rule 12d2–2,⁵ which sets forth procedures that national securities exchanges and issuers must follow in order to remove from listing, and withdraw from registration, securities under Section 12(b) of the Act.⁶ The final rules⁷ adopted by the Commission (“SEC Delisting Rules”) generally require that national securities exchanges have in place procedures for the delisting and/or deregistration of a security that are consistent with SEC Rule 12d2–2.⁸ The purpose of the proposed rule change is to incorporate into CBOE's non-option securities listing rules the new rules set forth in SEC Rule 12d2–2⁹ so that the Exchange may continue to have the authority to suspend or delist securities from trading on the Exchange in the event that the issuer and/or securities of the issuer fail to adhere to certain of the Exchange's original and continued listing standards.

The provisions of SEC Rule 12d2–2(a),¹⁰ which generally remain unchanged by the SEC Delisting Rules, require national securities exchanges to submit an application on SEC Form 25¹¹ within a reasonable time after the exchange is reliably informed that any of the conditions set forth in SEC Rule 12d2-2(a)(1)-(4)¹² exist. The conditions set forth in SEC Rule 12d2-2(a)(1)-(4)¹³ generally relate to the redemption, retirement, or maturity of the entire class of securities, or the extinguishment of all rights of an entire class of securities of the issuer. Other than a submission by the Exchange to the Commission of SEC Form 25,¹⁴ no other notice requirements or appeal rights are required to be provided to the issuer under SEC Rule 12d2-2(a)(1)-(4).¹⁵

In the event a national securities exchange determines to strike a class of securities from listing and/or withdraw the registration of such securities in cases other than as set forth in SEC Rule 12d2-2(a),¹⁶ the SEC Delisting Rules require national securities exchanges to follow new procedures. Specifically, SEC Rule 12d2-2(b)¹⁷ authorizes national securities exchanges to strike a class of securities from listing and/or withdraw the registration of such securities provided that the rules of such exchanges provide for the following: notification to the issuer of such determination; an opportunity for the issuer to appeal the determination; and upon a final determination of the Exchange to strike a class of securities from listing and/or withdraw the registration of such securities, provide public notice of such determination.

CBOE Chapter 31 sets forth the Exchange's non-option securities listing rules. Current CBOE Rule 31.94 generally sets forth the policies and procedures that apply to the delisting and suspension of listing of non-option securities on the Exchange, including the policies that guide the Exchange in determining whether to delist or suspend non-option securities. In regard to the process by which the Exchange delists non-option securities, current CBOE Rule 31.94(G) differentiates between delistings that result from "routine reasons," which are referred to in the introductory paragraph of that section as "redemptions or maturities," and all other types of delistings. The Exchange is only required to provide notice and the right to appeal delistings resulting from non-routine events, but not routine events.

To make the Exchange's delisting procedures consistent with SEC Rule 12d2-2,¹⁸ the Exchange is proposing to revise current CBOE Rule 31.94(G) to clarify that the appeal and notification provisions for delistings that are currently set forth in CBOE Rule 31.94(G) will only apply to delistings that are based on reasons other than those that are set forth in SEC Rule 12d2-2(a)(1)-(4).¹⁹ As stated above, SEC Rule 12d2-2(a)(1)-(4)²⁰ requires an exchange to file Form 25²¹ within a reasonable time after it is reliably informed that, among other things, an entire class of securities has matured or has been redeemed or retired. The concept that the Exchange will delist a class of securities for the reasons set forth in SEC Rule 12d2-2(a)²² is currently set forth in Rule 31.94(C)(f)(ii) and effective April 24, 2006, will be reflected in proposed Rule 31.94(C)(f) as revised. Proposed CBOE Rule 31.94(C)(f) also makes clear that the Exchange will file SEC Form 25²³ with the Commission in connection with any such delisting. Effective April 24, 2006, CBOE Rule 31.94(C)(f) in its current form will shift to new CBOE Rule 31.94(C)(g), except that the substance of current Rule 31.94(C)(f)(ii) will remain in the form of proposed Rule 31.94(C)(f).

Likewise, the Exchange is revising CBOE Rule 31.94(G) to incorporate the new requirements set forth in SEC Rule 12d2-2(b).²⁴ The Exchange notes that the provisions set forth in current CBOE Rule 31.94(G), which provide for notification to the issuer in the event that the Exchange determines to delist the issuer's securities and the right to appeal the Exchange's determination, satisfy the minimum provisions set forth in SEC Rule 12d2-2(b)²⁵ except for the requirement in SEC Rule 12d2-2(b)(iii)²⁶ that requires national securities exchanges to provide public notice of determinations to delist an issuer's securities. As stated above, the notice and appeal requirements only apply to delistings that result from events other than those provided pursuant to SEC Rule 12d2-2(a).²⁷ Therefore, proposed CBOE Rule 31.94(G)(h) would require the Exchange to provide public notice, in accordance with SEC Rule 12d2-2(b)(iii),²⁸ of a final determination by the Exchange to strike an issuer's securities from listing and/or withdraw the registration of such securities on the Exchange in all cases other than as provided pursuant to SEC Rule 12d2-2(a).²⁹

The Exchange is also proposing to make clear in proposed Rule 31.94(G) that the issuer is required to notify the Exchange in case it elects to delist its securities from the Exchange, and upon such notification, the Exchange would be required to issue a public notice of such determination. These proposed changes reflect the requirements set forth in SEC Rule 12d2-2(c).³⁰ The proposed rule filing sets forth a requirement in addition to those set forth in SEC Rule 12d2-2(c)³¹ that would require the issuer to notify the Exchange that it has filed Form 25³² with the SEC contemporaneously with such filing.

In addition, CBOE proposes to amend CBOE Rule 31.94(G)(h) to state that in appropriate circumstances, when the Exchange is considering delisting because a company no longer meets the requirements for continued listing, a company may, with the consent of the Exchange, file a Form 25 with the SEC, provided that it follows the requirements set forth in SEC Rule 12d2-2(c) and discloses that it is no longer eligible for continued listing on the Exchange in its written notice to the Exchange and public press release, and if it has a publicly accessible Web site, posts such notice on that Web site.³³

Lastly, the Exchange is proposing to make housekeeping changes that relate to references to the Act and certain rules in the Act.

The proposed changes, other than the housekeeping changes, will be effective as of April 24, 2006 as required by SEC Rule 12d2-2.³⁴

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that the basis under the Act for this proposed rule change is found in Section 6(b)(5),³⁵ in that the proposed rule change is designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanisms of a free and open market and a national market system and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. In particular, the Exchange believes that the proposed rule change will enable the Exchange to remain competitive in the marketplace.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of a Proposed Rule Change Relating to an Extension of the Dividend, Merger, and Short Stock Interest Strategies Fee Cap Pilot Program

March 3, 2006.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act"),¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on February 28, 2006, the Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated ("CBOE" or "Exchange") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II and III below, which items have been prepared by CBOE. CBOE has designated the proposed rule change as one establishing or changing a due, fee, or other charge, pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act³ and Rule 19b-4(f)(2) thereunder,⁴ which renders the proposal effective upon filing with the Commission. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

CBOE proposes to amend its Fees Schedule to extend until September 1, 2006 the dividend, merger, and short stock interest strategies fee cap program.

The text of the proposed rule change is available on CBOE's Web site at <http://www.cboe.com>, at the Office of the Secretary at CBOE, and at the Commission's Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of, and basis for, the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposal. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The Exchange currently caps market-maker, firm, and broker-dealer transaction fees associated with dividend, merger and short stock interest strategies, as described in Footnote 13 of the CBOE Fees Schedule ("Strategy Fee Cap"). The Strategy Fee Cap is in effect as a pilot program that is due to expire on March 1, 2006.

The Exchange proposes to extend the Strategy Fee Cap program until September 1, 2006. No other changes are proposed. The Exchange believes that extension of the Strategy Fee Cap program should attract additional liquidity and permit the Exchange to remain competitive for these types of strategies.

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that the proposal is consistent with Section 6(b)
