[As Amended Through P.L. 110-246, Effective May 22, 2008]

[PURCHASE AND DONATION OF FLOUR AND CORNMEAL]

[7 U.S.C. 1431 note] [A]t any time Commodity Credit Corporation has any grain available for donation pursuant to the Food for Progress Act of 1985, section 416 of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, section 210 of the Agricultural Act of 1956, or title II of the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act, as amended,¹⁻¹ the Corporation, in lieu of processing all or any part of such grain into human food products, may purchase such processed food products in quantities not to exceed the equivalent of the respective grain available for donation on the date of such purchase and donate such processed food products pursuant to the Food for Progress Act of 1985, such section 416, and to such section 210, and make such processed food products available pursuant to such title II, and may sell, without regard to the provisions of section 407 of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, a quantity of the grain equivalent to the processed food products so purchased: Provided, That no food product purchased pursuant to the authority contained herein shall constitute less than 50 per centum by weight of the grain from which processed (except that this limitation does not apply in the case of the protein byproduct resulting from the production of fuel alcohol from agricultural commodities), or contain any additive other than for normal vitamin enrichment, preservative, and bleaching purposes.

FOOD SECURITY ACT OF 1985

[As Amended Through P.L. 110-246, Effective May 22, 2008]

SALE OF NONFAT DRY MILK FOR CASEIN MANUFACTURE

SEC. 105. [7 U.S.C. 1446c-2] (a) The Commodity Credit Corporation shall provide surplus stocks of nonfat dry milk of not less than 1,000,000 pounds annually to individuals or entities on a bid basis.

¹⁻¹ Sec. 3001(c) of the Food, Conservation, and Energy Act of 2008, Public Law 110-246, 122 Stat. 1821, provides that "Any reference in any Federal, State, tribal, or local law (including regulations) to the 'Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954' shall be considered to be a reference to the 'Food for Peace Act'."

(b) The Commodity Credit Corporation may accept bids at lower than the resale price otherwise required by law, in order to promote the strengthening of the domestic casein industry.

(c) The Commodity Credit Corporation shall take appropriate action to ensure that the nonfat dry milk sold by the Corporation under this section is used only for the manufacture of casein.
