HOW TO OBTAIN AN ESTIMATE.

In writing to ascertain the cost of advertising, please observe the following suggestions:

1. When possible, always send copy of your advertisement. If you have no printed copy, send it in writing.
2. Mention the space you wish it to occupy in LINES or INCHES. Don't say anything about squares. The size of an advertising square varies from four lines to two and a half inches.
3. Name the papers you wish to use. If undecided on this point, state the cities and towns, or at least the particular section of country you would like to reach.
4. State the length of time you desire it inserted in the different papers
5. In case your plans are not fully matured, it is always well to state about the amount of money you purpose expending. By so doing you will enable us to make the most suitable selection for your use, including only the best and cheapest papers to cover the ground.

Estimates free. Address

INTRODUCTION.

ARRANGEMENT.

With this edition the alphabetical arrangement of the States has been substituted for the geographical plan hitherto maintained. The reason for this change is given on page 13.

NAMES OF EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

Every effort has been made to have this department of the work as accurate as possible at the time of going to press; the continual changes of ownership and places of publication, however, necessarily preclude absolute accuracy.

POPULATION.

Unmarked populations in the United States are from the Federal Census of 1880, or from the State or Territorial Census of 1885. The foot notes indicate from which source the figures are derived. Canadian populations are from the Census of 1881. Populations marked with a section mark (§) are from recent estimates of State or local authorities.

THE STATE AND COUNTY HEADINGS, an important feature of the work, subject to constant and careful revision, are of great value to advertisers of specialties, who, by carefully examining them, can readily decide which counties are likely to prove remunerative territory, and thus confine their expenditures within limits which may be expected to yield the greatest return for their outlay.

CIRCULATION.

Circulations for which affidavits have been furnished have been set in bold-face type in the Catalogue, and designated by an asterisk (*) in the County and Class Lists. Those not sworn to by publishers are marked with a double dagger (‡) throughout the book; those set in Roman figures and unmarked, represent our own estimates.

The information upon which the revision of the ANNUAL is based is gathered mainly in March of each year and the circulation ratings are in most cases believed to be the average for the three preceding months. Publishers are at liberty to amend their statements, if they desire to do so, as late as the 1st of July, at which time the revision of the book is practically closed. Advertisements on the other hand are received up to the hour of going to press and not unfrequently contain much later information than can possibly be given in the Catalogue. This will explain in many cases what would otherwise appear to be discrepancies between the statements made in the advertisements and the ratings given the papers in the book itself.

Circulation is not given in the following instances—where the paper has been established during the current year; where it appears for the first time in the ANNUAL; where the information received is unsatisfactory, or the reports are conflicting; where publishers have requested omission, in which case the word “Decline” is printed in the circulation column, and where the publication is devoted exclusively, or nearly so, to advertising the business or interests of individuals, business houses or corporations. Papers of this latter class are designated in the Catalogue as “issued for advertising purposes,” and in the County and Class Lists by the letters “Adv.” in the circulation column.

Aiming at strict impartiality in this important part of our work, and desiring always to be just to publishers, in our efforts to procure accurate and trustworthy information for advertisers, we shall gladly receive communications from any who may consider themselves unfairly dealt with in the estimate placed upon the circulation of their papers, and will cheerfully correct in future editions any mistakes made in the present one, if furnished with satisfactory evidence of our error.

Papers which are believed to decline general advertising are designated in the Catalogue by the words “No Advts.” in the circulation column, and are omitted entirely from the County and Class Lists.

The political majorities and pluralities are those of the Presidential election of 1884, that being chosen as the standard in the belief that a general election affords the best evidence of the actual political proclivities of the people.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISEMENTS.

In order to make the advertisements of greater value to publishers, in addition to the index (1068 to 1072), we have printed in the Catalogue against the name of each paper having an advertisement, the number of the page on which that advertisement appears. This will enable an advertiser to refer directly to it, without the aid of an index, and that, too, at the moment when the information it contains would be likely to interest him most. A careful examination of the advertising pages will result in the acquisition of a mass of valuable information which, for the sake of compactness and facility of reference, must necessarily be excluded from the Catalogue itself.

The revision of this book for the edition of 1889 will be commenced immediately, and publishers of newspapers will confer a favor by notifying us of the establishment, suspension, or change of any papers within their knowledge, or by calling our attention to any inaccuracies in the present edition, that may come to their notice.

N. W. AYER & SON,

Philadelphia, August 21, 1888.

IN THIS (the ninth) Edition of the AMERICAN NEWSPAPER ANNUAL, every endeavor has been made to render it more valuable than either of the preceding volumes, as a ready reference book on all statistics pertaining to the newspaper press. An important change has been made in the arrangement of the States. Hitherto the States have been grouped in geographical sections, and notwithstanding we still believe this the most convenient form of arrangement for those desiring to do thorough advertising, we have been induced by the suggestions of many of our patrons, and more particularly by the fact that the ANNUAL is now very largely used as a book of reference by those who are more accustomed to an alphabetical arrangement, to adopt that plan.

A rapid increase in the size of the book each year through the growth of its advertising pages, has been noted by us with disfavor; and this year we have counteracted this by excluding the smaller advertisements, thus enhancing the value of those that are admitted, and improving the general appearance of the advertising pages. We send it out in the confident belief that it will meet the demand of a progressive American public, for an exhaustive, comprehensive, accurately compiled newspaper directory and gazetteer of condensed information relative to the topography of the country, and its agricultural, manufacturing, mining and commercial resources.

AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS

GIVING THE PLACES IN WHICH THEY ARE PUBLISHED IN THE UNITED STATES, TERRITORIES, AND DOMINION OF CANADA, ARRANGED ALPHABETICALLY IN STATES; THE COUNTIES IN WHICH THE PLACES ARE SITUATED, AND THE POPULATION OF EACH; AND IN CONNECTION WITH THE PAPERS THE FREQUENCY OF ISSUE, POLITICS, DENOMINATION OR GENERAL CHARACTER, YEAR OF ESTABLISHMENT, SIZE, CIRCULATION, SUBSCRIPTION PRICE AND NAMES OF EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

Populations in the United States, if unmarked, are from the Census of 1880 or State and Territorial Census of 1885. Canadian populations are from the Census of 1881.

Those marked with a section mark (§) are from recent estimates of State or local authorities.

Circulations for which affidavits have been furnished, are printed in bold-face figures; those furnished by publishers, but not sworn to, are designated by a double-dagger (§); those unmarked are estimated.

When statement of circulation is omitted, we have been unable to obtain any satisfactory information, or the paper was established during the current year, or appears for the first time in the ANNUAL, or else is issued for advertising purposes. The word "decline" indicates that the publishers have declined or objected to furnish any statement for publication.

County-seats are indicated by a dagger (†).
