- A. How to make a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Request:
 - 1. Make requests in writing, either handwritten or typed.
 - 2. Be as specific as possible with regard to names, dates, places, events, subjects, etc. If known, include any file designations or descriptions for the records wanted. It is not necessary to give a requested record's exact name or title, but the more specific the request about the record or types of records wanted, the easier it will be for the Department of Education (Department) to locate them.
 - 3. Include a return address, daytime phone number, and email address (if available) to clarify your request.
 - 4. Send requests to the following mailing address:
U.S. Department of Education
Office of the Chief Information Officer
400 Maryland Avenue, SW, ROB3, Room. 4050
Washington, DC 20202-4651
Attn: FOIA Office

Requests may also be faxed to: (202) 708-9368 or emailed to: OCIO.FOIA@ed.gov.
 - 5. To avoid delay, be sure to display prominently on the envelope, fax cover sheet, or email subject line, "FOIA Request."
- B. The Department generally responds to all requests with a determination within 20 working days.
- C. Requested records/information or portions thereof may be withheld on the basis of nine statutory exemptions specified in the FOIA. The following exemptions are the ones most frequently used by the Department:
 - Exemption (b)(2)—material circumventing agency rule
 - Exemption (b)(4)—proprietary, confidential, financial matters

B. Basic terms expressed in common terminology:

1. FOIA request—generally a request for access to records concerning a third party, an organization, or a particular topic of interest.
2. Initial request—a request to a federal agency for access to records under FOIA.
3. Appeal—a request to a federal agency asking that it review at a higher administrative level a full denial or partial denial of access to records under FOIA, or any other FOIA determination such as a matter pertaining to fees.
4. Processed request or appeal—a request or appeal for which an agency has taken a final action on the request or the appeal in all respects.
5. Multi-track processing—a system in which simple requests requiring relatively minimal review are placed in one processing track and more voluminous and complex requests are placed in one or more other tracks. Requests in each track are processed on a first-in/first out basis. A requester who has an urgent need for records may request expedited processing (see below).
6. Expedited processing—an agency will process a FOIA request on an expedited basis when a requester has shown an exceptional need or urgency for the records which warrants prioritization of his or her request over other requests that were made earlier.
7. Simple request—a FOIA request that an agency using multi-track processing places in its fastest (non-expedited) track based on the volume and/or simplicity of records requested.
8. Complex request—a FOIA request that an agency using multi-track processing places in a slower track based on the volume and/or complexity of records requested.
9. Grant in full/whole—an agency decision to disclose all records in full in response to a FOIA request.
10. Partial grant—an agency decision to disclose a record in part in response to a FOIA request, deleting information determined to be exempt under one or more of the FOIA exemptions; or a decision to disclose some records in their entirety but withhold others in whole or in part.
11. Denial—an agency decision not to release any part of a record or records in response to a FOIA request because all the information in the requested records is determined by the agency to be exempt under one or more of the FOIA exemptions, or for some procedural reason (such as, no record located in response to a FOIA request).
12. Time limits—the time period in FOIA for an agency to respond to a FOIA request (20 working days from proper receipt of a "perfected" FOIA request).

13. “Perfected” request—a FOIA request for records that adequately describe the records sought, that has been received by the FOIA office of the agency or agency component in possession of the records, and for which there is no remaining question about the payment of applicable fees.
14. Exemption 3 statute—a separate federal statute prohibiting the disclosure of a certain type of information and authorizing its withholding under FOIA subsection (b)(3).
15. Median number—the middle, not average, number. For example, of 3, 7, and 14, the median number is 7. Another example, of 3, 7, 9, and 14, the median number is 8, the average of the two middle numbers (i.e., $7+9=16$, divided by 2, equals 8).
16. Average number—the number obtained by dividing the sum of a group of numbers by the quantity of numbers in the group. For example, of 3, 7, and 14, the average number is 8.

IV. Exemption 3 Statute

VIII. Comparison with Previous Year

This report is the sixth Annual Report to follow the fiscal year cycle for reporting the Department FOIA activities to the U.S. Department of Justice, and includes activities from October 1, 2002 through September 30, 2003. The Department experienced an approximate seven percent increase in FOIA requests during FY 2003 as compared to FY 2002. The Department plans for re-engineering the manner in which FOIA requests are processed during FY 2003 and expects this new process to reduce backlogs and reduce median processing time significantly. The level of staffing for FOIA activities remained fairly stable during FY 2003, however, the amount of fees collected from requesters increased 60%.
