

Table 2. Net Migration for the Young, Single, and College Educated for the United States, Regions, States, and Metropolitan Areas: 2000

Source: U. S. Census Bureau, Census 2000, special tabulation.

Internet release date: April 13, 2004

[Data based on a sample. For information on confidentiality protection, sampling error, nonsampling error, and definitions, see <http://www.census.gov/prod/cen2000/doc/sf3.pdf>]

The young are those who were aged 25 to 39 in 2000; the single are those who were never married, or were widowed or divorced in 2000; and the college educated are those who had at least a bachelor's degree in 2000.

/1-The net migration rate is based on an approximated 1995 population, which is the sum of young, single, and college educated people who reported living in the area in both 1995 and 2000, and those who reported living in that area in 1995 but lived elsewhere in 2000. The net migration rate is the 1995-to-2000 net migration, divided by the approximated 1995 population and multiplied by 1000.
