FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APPEAL PERIOD ON DILLON FIELD OFFICE ROUTE DESIGNATIONS TO CLOSE MAY 14

DILLON (May 1, 2006) – Route designations determined through the planning process for the Bureau of Land Management Dillon Field Office are subject to appeal with the appeal period closing May 14, 2006. The designations are part of the Record of Decision (ROD) and Approved Resource Management Plan (RMP) for the public lands and mineral estate administered by the Dillon Field Office.

Any party adversely affected by the route designations contained in the ROD/RMP may appeal a specific route designation. The appeal must be filed with the Field Manager at the following address: Bureau of Land Management, Dillon Field Office, 1005 Selway Drive, Dillon, Montana 59725. A copy must be sent to the Field Solicitor, U.S. Department of the Interior, P.O. Box 31394, Billings, Montana 59107-1394. The appeal should state the specific route(s) being appealed by township, range and section. Additional information about appeal procedures can be found in the Implementation Decisions section of the ROD/RMP.

Copies of the document were sent to interested parties previously requesting one. Printed copies of the ROD/RMP can be viewed at public libraries in Dillon, Twin Bridges, Ennis, Whitehall, and Bozeman and at BLM offices across the state. The ROD/RMP is also posted on the BLM's website at www.mt.blm.gov/dfo/rmp. A paper copy or compact disk (CD) format may be requested by contacting the Dillon Field Office at (406) 683-2337.
