

HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE MONTH

DAKOTAS AREA OFFICE

End-of-month elevation at Angostura Reservoir for the month of August was the fourth lowest in 55 years of record.

August end-of-month elevation at Shadehill Reservoir was the second lowest in 55 years of record.

End-of-month storage at Lake Tschida Reservoir was the seventh lowest content on record for the month of August.

EASTERN COLORADO AREA OFFICE

The Lake Granby storage of 398,800 acre-feet (AF) on August 31, 2007, was 51,300 AF below average and 6,500 AF higher than 1 year ago. Colorado-Big Thompson Project storage water in Lake Granby, Carter Lake, and Horsetooth Reservoir was 514,900 AF on August 31, 2007, 89,600 AF below average and 64 percent of the total available storage capacity.

Total water storage in the Fryingpan-Arkansas Project at the end of August 2007, was 507,700 AF, and 65,500 AF higher than 1 year ago.

MONTANA AREA OFFICE

Great Falls, Montana recorded the 12th driest August on record and Havre, Montana was the 19th driest August on Record. Helena, Montana was the 14th warmest August on record.

For the month of August, inflow to Fresno Reservoir was the tenth lowest on record; inflows to Clark Canyon Reservoir and Sherburne Lake were the ninth lowest on record; inflow to Bighorn Lake was the eighth lowest on record; inflow to Canyon Ferry Reservoir was the seventh lowest on record; inflow to Lake Elwell was the fifth lowest on record; and inflow to Gibson Reservoir was the lowest on record.

End of August storage in Lake Sherburne was the fifth lowest of record.

NEBRASKA-KANSAS AREA OFFICE

Bonny Reservoir recorded a new historical low reservoir level during the month of August and Waconda Lake recorded the second lowest lake level on record for the end of August since initial filling.

WYOMING AREA OFFICE

Bighorn River Basin

Nothing significant to report this month.

North Platte River Basin

Storage in Pathfinder and Semione Reservoirs were the lowest end of August storage in the last 30 years. The Kendrick storage ownership was the lowest August ownership in the last 30 years. The Glendo ownership was the third lowest August ownership in the last 30 years.

OKLAHOMA-TEXAS AREA OFFICE

Nothing significant to report.