ANOTHER INDICTED IN BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA, ON FEDERAL FEMA FRAUD CHARGES

BATON ROUGE, LA – Another Louisiana resident was indicted in federal court today on fraud charges related to a hurricane disaster relief program, United States Attorney David R. Dugas announced today.

LATOYA K. DUNN, age 29, of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, was charged in a two-count indictment by a federal grand jury with making a false and fraudulent claim for disaster assistance benefits and with making false and fraudulent statements to FEMA. The charges resulted from an investigation conducted by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, Office of Inspector General; and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. If convicted, DUNN faces a maximum sentence of five years imprisonment, a $250,000 fine, or both, per count.

Today's indictment brings the total number of individuals who have been charged in the Middle District of Louisiana with violations related to hurricane disaster relief funds to eighty-one.
