THREE MORE INDICTED IN BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA ON FEDERAL FEMA FRAUD CHARGES

BATON ROUGE, LA – United States Attorney David R. Dugas announced today that a federal grand jury returned indictments against three more Louisiana residents who applied for FEMA relief funds.

TAKEISHA D. HINTON, age 20, ANTONIO D. SHELTON, age 20, and TEMICA R. PERKINS, age 25, all of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, were each charged in two-count indictments with making false and fraudulent claims for disaster assistance benefits and with making false and fraudulent statements to FEMA.

The charges resulted from an investigation conducted by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, Office of the Inspector General; and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. These three individuals bring the total number of defendants who have been charged in the Middle District of Louisiana with violations related to FEMA relief funds to twenty.

In September 2005, Attorney General Alberto R. Gonzales created the Hurricane Katrina Fraud Task Force, designed to deter, investigate and prosecute disaster-related federal crimes such as charity fraud, identity theft, procurement fraud and insurance fraud. The Hurricane Katrina Fraud Task Force – chaired by Assistant Attorney General Alice S. Fisher of the Criminal Division – includes members from the FBI, the Federal Trade Commission, the Postal Inspector's Office, and the Executive Office for United States Attorneys, among others.

If convicted, these defendants face a maximum sentence of five years imprisonment and a $250,000 fine per count.

For further information, contact David R. Dugas, U.S. Attorney for the Middle District of Louisiana, or Lyman Thornton, First Assistant U.S. Attorney, at (225) 389-0443.

NOTE: An indictment is a determination by a grand jury that there is probable cause to believe that offenses have been committed by the defendants. The defendants, of course, are presumed innocent until and unless they are proven guilty at trial.
