the petition, the petition shall be dismissed and cannot be filed again, unless:

- (a) The hearing is continued upon motion of the minor; or
- (b) The hearing is continued upon motion of the presenting officer by reason of the unavailability of material evidence or witnesses and the children's court finds the presenting officer has exercised due diligence to obtain the material evidence or witnesses and reasonable grounds exist to believe that the material evidence or witnesses will become available.

§11.1009 Summons.

- (a) At least five working days prior to the adjudicatory hearing, the children's court shall issue summons to:
 - (1) The minor;
- (2) The minor's parents, guardian or custodian; and
- (3) Any person the children's court or the minor believes necessary for the adjudication of the hearing.
- (b) The summons shall contain the name of the court, the title of the proceedings, and the date, time and place of the hearing.
- (c) A copy of the petition shall be attached to the summons.
- (d) The summons shall be delivered personally by a law enforcement officer or appointee of the children's court. If the summons cannot be delivered personally, the court may deliver it by certified mail.

$\S 11.1010$ Adjudicatory hearing.

- (a) The children's court shall conduct the adjudicatory hearing for the sole purpose of determining the guilt or innocence of the minor. The hearing shall be private and closed.
- (b) All the rights listed in §11.906 shall be afforded the parties at the adjudicatory hearing. The notice requirements of §11.906(a) are met by a summons issued pursuant to §11.1009.
- (c) If the minor admits the allegations of the petition, the children's court shall proceed to the dispositional stage only if the children's court finds that:
- (1) The minor fully understands his or her rights as set forth in $\S 11.906$ of this part and fully understands the potential consequences of admitting the allegations;

- (2) The minor voluntarily, intelligently and knowingly admits to all facts necessary to constitute a basis for children's court action; and
- (3) The minor has not, in the purported admission to the allegations, set forth facts which, if found to be true, constitute a defense to the allegations.
- (d) The children's court shall hear testimony concerning the circumstances which gave rise to the complaint.
- (e) If the allegations of the petition are sustained by proof beyond a reasonable doubt, the children's court shall find the minor to be a juvenile offender and proceed to the dispositional hearing.
- (f) A finding that a minor is a juvenile offender constitutes a final order for purposes of appeal.

§11.1011 Dispositional hearing.

- (a) A dispositional hearing shall take place not more than 15 days after the adjudicatory hearing.
- (b) At the dispositional hearing, the children's court shall hear evidence on the question of proper disposition.
- (c) All the rights listed in §11.906 shall be afforded the parties in the dispositional hearing.
- (d) At the dispositional hearing, the children's court shall consider any predisposition report, physician's report or social study it may have ordered and afford the parents an opportunity to controvert the factual contents and conclusions of the reports. The children's court shall also consider the alternative predisposition report prepared by the minor and his or her attorney, if any.
- (e) The dispositional order constitutes a final order for purposes of appeal.

§11.1012 Dispositional alternatives.

- (a) If a minor has been adjudged a juvenile offender, the children's court may make the following disposition:
- (1) Place the minor on probation subject to conditions set by the children's court;
- (2) Place the minor in an agency or institution designated by the children's court: or

§11.1013

- (3) Order restitution to the aggrieved party.
- (b) The dispositional orders are to be in effect for the time limit set by the children's court, but no order may continue after the minor reaches 18 years of age, unless the dispositional order was made within six months of the minor's eighteenth birthday or after the minor had reached 18 years of age, in which case the disposition may not continue for more than six months.
- (c) The dispositional order is to be reviewed at the children's court discretion, but at least once every six months.

§ 11.1013 Modification of dispositional order.

- (a) A dispositional order of the children's court may be modified upon a showing of a change of circumstances.
- (b) The children's court may modify a dispositional order at any time upon the motion of the minor or the minor's parents, guardian or custodian.
- (c) If the modification involves a change of custody, the children's court shall conduct a hearing pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section.
- (d) A hearing to review a dispositional order shall be conducted as follows:
- (1) All the rights listed in §11.906 shall be afforded the parties in the hearing to review the dispositional order. The notice required by paragraph (a) of §11.906 shall be given at least 48 hours before the hearing.
- (2) The children's court shall review the performance of the minor, the minor's parents, guardian or custodian, and other persons providing assistance to the minor and the minor's family.
- (3) In determining modification of disposition, the procedures prescribed in §11.1011 of this part shall apply.
- (4) If the request for review of disposition is based upon an alleged violation of a court order, the children's court shall not modify its dispositional order unless it finds clear and convincing evidence of the violation.

§11.1014 Medical examination.

The children's court may order a medical examination for a minor who is alleged to be a juvenile offender.

Subpart K—Minor-in-Need-of-Care Procedure

§11.1100 Complaint.

A complaint must be filed by a law enforcement officer or by the presenting officer and sworn to by a person who has knowledge of the facts alleged. The complaint shall be signed by the complaining witness and shall contain:

- (a) A citation to the specific section of this part which gives the children's court jurisdiction of the proceedings;
- (b) The name, age and address of the minor who is the subject of the complaint, if known; and
- (c) A plain and concise statement of the facts upon which the allegations are based, including the date, time and location at which the alleged facts occurred

§11.1101 Warrant.

The children's court may issue a warrant, directing that a minor be taken into custody if the children's court finds there is probable cause to believe the minor is a minor-in-need-of-care.

§11.1102 Custody.

A minor may be taken into custody by a law enforcement officer if:

- (a) The officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the minor is a minor-in-need-of-care and that the minor is in immediate danger from his or her surroundings and that removal is necessary: or
- (b) A warrant pursuant to §11.1101 of this part has been issued for the minor.

§ 11.1103 Law enforcement officer's duties.

Upon taking a minor into custody the officer shall:

- (a) Release the minor to the minor's parents, guardian or custodian and issue a verbal advice or warning as may be appropriate, unless shelter care is necessary.
- (b) If the minor is not released, make immediate and recurring efforts to notify the minor's parents, guardian or custodian to inform them that the minor has been taken into custody and inform them of their right to be
