Dear Sir;

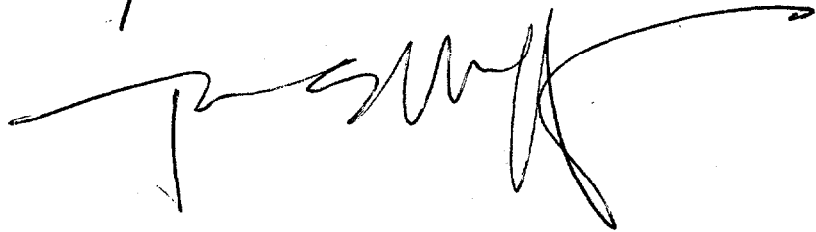

I wish to express my sincere concern

1530 '02 FEB 12 P2:22

re: GE foods. The FDA MUST protect the consumer. All GE foods should be required to undergo pre-market safety testing - and an Environmental Review is needed to protect the environment.

All GE foods should be clearly labeled. If a massive toxic reaction were one day exposed - who would face liability? This could be a legal nightmare for a future generation.

Truely Concerned
