Introduction

Purpose of the End-of-Year Report

The Federal Pell Grant End-of-Year Report will present primary aspects of Federal Pell Grant Program activity for the 1998-99 award period.

This presentation is a compilation of quantitative program data assembled to offer insights into the changes to the Title IV applicant universe and the Federal Pell Grant Program. The Federal Pell Grant End-of-Year Report provides factual information and highlights important programmatic issues.

Since 1973, the Office of Post Secondary Education has compiled summary information on Title IV applicants and Federal Pell Grant Program activity. The information provides a basis for program planning and development. In addition, the End-of-Year Report can assist higher education officials and financial aid administrators to better understand current patterns of Federal Pell Grant disbursements and Title IV applicant activity.

Federal Pell Grant Program

Title IV Programs are managed by the Office of Student Financial Assistance within the U.S. Department of Education. The programs are authorized by the Higher Education Act of 1965 and as amended by the Higher Education Amendments Act of 1992.

A formula established by Congress is used to calculate a student's Expected Family Contribution (EFC). This is the amount that a family can be expected to contribute towards the student's cost of attendance. For the Federal Pell Grant Program the EFC is used to determine the financial eligibility of the student.

The Federal Pell Grant Program is designed to help the neediest undergraduate students. For many students, Federal Pell Grants provide a foundation of financial aid, to which aid from other federal and non-federal sources may be added. The program provided grants ranging from $400 - $3,000 to over 3.8 million students in 1998-99. Since its inception in 1973, expenditures for the Federal Pell Program have increased more than hundred-fold (not adjusting for inflation) to $7.2 billion in 1998-99.

Databases for the End-of-Year Report Tables

All tables in the 1998-99 End-of-Year Report are derived from a merged file containing Title IV applicant and Federal Pell Grant recipient data through December 1999. The applicant data are from the student applications processed by the central processing system; recipient information is from the Pell Grant recipient reporting systems. Some unreconciled student payment data may be included in the universe file.

Eligibility

The Federal Pell Grant is distinguished from other financial assistance in that all students meeting certain criteria are guaranteed aid, with the amount of aid determined by financial need, enrollment level and educational cost. However, because of limited funding, the program is not a true entitlement, as benefits may be reduced from those anticipated under a fully funded system. To be eligible for a grant an individual must meet certain residency requirements, be enrolled in an eligible program at a school participating in the Federal Pell Grant Program, and be determined to have sufficient financial need.

As mentioned above, financial need for 1998-1999 is calculated using formulae mandated by Congress in the Higher Education Amendments Act of 1992. These formulae, applied consistently to all applicants, take into account such indicators of financial strength as income, assets, and family size. The calculation result, called the Expected Family Contribution (EFC), is combined with the cost of the student's education and the student's enrollment status (full-time, three-quarter-time, half-time or less than half-time) to determine the amount of the Federal Pell Grant (although cost of education only affects the student's award amount if the cost is less than $3,000).

The lower the EFC, the greater the demonstration of a student's financial need. Consequently, the amount of the grant increases as the EFC decreases, such that an applicant with the minimum EFC of zero may receive the maximum award equal to the applicant's educational cost for the year up to $3,000. Proportionally smaller awards are made to part-time students.

Highlights of the Federal Pell Grant Program

This chapter highlights key 1998-99 Federal Pell Grant Program statistics. Exhibit 1 at the end of this section summarizes some of the most notable changes in 1998-99 illustrated by various tables throughout the End-of-Year Report.

Applicant Summary

In the 1998-99 award year, 9,599,820 students, or about 66 percent of all enrolled undergraduates students applied for Title IV aid. (According to the National Center for Education Statistics, undergraduate enrollment in the fall of 1998 was projected to be approximately 14.6 million.) This represents a 0.9 percent increase over the number of applicants in 1997-1998 and constituted a 34.5 percent increase since 1990-91.

Of the students who applied for Federal Student aid in 1998-99, 52.0 percent are eligible to receive a Federal Pell grant. 34.6 percent did not qualify to receive a grant and the status of the remaining 2.5 percent could not be determined because they provided insufficient information on the application and did not complete application processing.

Recipient Summary

Several changes came about as a result of the enactment of the 1992 Amendment to the Higher Education Act and have been in effect since 1993-94. Most notably, changes were implemented regarding the criteria and eligibility of independent students. Married and/or graduate or professional students are automatically considered independent. In addition, a student is no longer considered to be independent solely on the basis of having received $4,000 in resources for 2 years. Also, the need analysis formulae were divided into two classifications of independents: independent with dependents other than a spouse, and independents without dependents other than a spouse with significant higher contributions from the latter group. This latter group experienced a decrease in eligibility rates under the rules.

Consistent with the intent of the Federal Pell Grant Program, the data shows that grants are directed towards the lowest income students. As shown in Figure 1, 39.2 percent of applicants eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant report income of less than $10,000 in comparison only 34.4 percent of eligible applicants report income greater than $20,000. The percents differ by dependency status. However, almost all (84.6 percent) eligible independents with no dependents have incomes of $10,000 or less, while 20.1 percent of parents of eligible dependent applicants have incomes of less than $10,000, and 52.7 percent have incomes of $20,000 or more.

Most recipients are in the lower income ranges. In 1998-99, only 35.8 percent of all recipients report family income of greater than $20,000. Figure 2 shows that independents are more numerous in the lower income ranges than dependents: 48.3 percent of all independents report family income of $9,000 or less compared to only 17.2 percent of dependent recipients. Likewise, about 53 percent of dependents report family income greater than $20,000 while only 21.8 percent of independents report income in this range.

The average family income for the total recipient population increased 7.5 percent from $15,483 in 1997-98 to $16,644 in 1998-99. Average income for independents rose by 7.8 percent, from $11,522 to $12,423. Dependents also experienced a slight increase (6.4 percent) in average family income from $20,544 in 1997-98, to $21,863 in 1998-99.

Most 1998-99 recipients reported few available assets. More than nine out of ten (96.9 percent) recipients have net assets of less than $25,000. Over ninety-nine percent of independent recipients had less than $25,000 in net assets compared to 93.6 percent of dependent recipients.

Expenditure Summary

The average grant rose from $1,696 in 1997-98 to $1,876 in 1998-99 (a 10.6 percent increase), reflecting the change in the maximum grant available to Federal Pell Grant recipients. ($2,700 in 1997-98 and $3,000 in 1998-99). Total grants for the 1998-99 cycle are $7.23 billion dollars (a 14.2 percent increase from 1997-98).

Institutional Characteristics

In 1998-99, 5,566 institutions participated in the Federal Pell Grant Program. 35.9 percent institutions participating in the program are public schools. Proprietary schools are next in number, representing 36.3 percent of the total. Private non-profit institutions account for the remaining 27.8 percent of all schools. This information is found on Table 18.

Enrollment of Federal Pell Grant recipients vary by type and control of school (Figure 3). Although fewer in number, public 2-year and 4-year institutions enrolled 34.9 and 34.5 percent of all recipients, respectively.

Private non-profit institutions enroll fewer recipients, with private 4-year institutions accounting for 15 percent of recipients and private 2-year schools enrolling only 3 percent of all recipients. Proprietary institutions account for 13 percent of Federal Pell Grant recipients.

Application Source

In 1998-99 students could apply using either paper or electronic applications. Applications could be initial forms for first-time applicants, or renewal forms for returning applicants. The paper applications were processed by either the American College Testing Program (ACT) or National Computer Systems (NCS). Electronic applicants could be completed at institutions (the vast majority) using FAFSA Express software, or via the World Wide Web. First-time applicants submitted an “initial” application, whereas returning applicants applied using a “renewal” application, which only required updating key information (such as income) from last year’s application.

Approximately 7.4 million of all applications are paper (76.8 percent). Almost 37.7 percent of these filers qualify to receive a grant. Although relatively smaller in number, applications submitted electronically qualify at a higher rate. Of the approximately 2.2 million electronic applicants, 48.5 percent received grants. This information is found in Figure 4.

The remaining chapters focus on a variety of aspects of the Federal Pell Grant population with special emphasis on income-related characteristics, grant levels, educational costs, and enrollment status, for each EFC dependency status and institution type.

Section 2: Selected Characteristics of Federal Pell Grant Recipients

Table 2: Distribution of Federal Pell Grant Recipients by Expected Family Contribution and Family Income

Table 2A: Total
Table 2B: Dependent
Table 2C: Independent

Table 2A shows the distribution of Federal Pell Grant recipients by Expected Family Contribution (EFC) and family income. Tables 2B and 2C show the same data for dependents and independent students, respectively.

Family income is defined as all taxable income, untaxed income and benefits, including child support received, earned income credit, social security benefits received and Aid to Families with Dependent Children, minus certain income, such as taxable grant and scholarship aid, earnings from work-study programs, and child support paid.

For a dependent student, family income is the parent's income. For an independent student, family income is the student's (and spouse's) income.

Table 5: Distribution of Federal Pell Grant Recipients by Expected Family Contribution and Type and Control of Institution

Table 5A: Total
Table 5C: Independent

Tables 5A, 5B, and 5C show the distribution of Federal Pell Grant recipients by Expected Family Contribution (EFC) and type and control of institution attended for all recipients, dependents, and independents. Type of institution is identified by the length of the programs principally offered by the institution and control is whether the school is public, private non-profit, or proprietary. The 4-year designation includes colleges offering baccalaureate and/or graduate programs. The 2-year designated denotes a community college or vocational/technical school. The proprietary category refers to profit-making schools primarily offering programs of 2 years or less in duration.

Table 7: Distribution of Federal Pell Grant Recipients by Expected Family Contribution and Educational Cost

Table 7A: Total
Table 7C: Independent

Tables 7A, 7B, and 7C show the distribution of Federal Pell Grant recipients by Expected Family Contribution (EFC) and educational cost. Table 7A shows the distribution for all recipients. Table 7B and 7C present the same breakdown for dependents and independents respectively.

Student educational costs considered for Federal Pell Grant award purposes include tuition and fees, and allowances for the cost of books, supplies, transportation, and miscellaneous expenses as determined by the institution.

The room and board allowance, also determined by the institution, are at least $1,500 for students without dependents living at home with their parents, and at least $2,500 for all other students enrolled at least half-time. Also permitted are certain additional allowances, such as provisions for child care and costs of special services or equipment required by handicapped students for attendance, but which are not provided by other assisting agencies.

Table 10: Distribution of Federal Pell Grant Recipients by Family Income and Net Asset Level

Table 10A: Total
Table 10C: Independent

Tables 10A, 10B, and 10C present the distribution of Federal Pell Grant recipients by family income and asset level for all recipients, dependents and independents, respectively.

Net assets is the sum of the market value, less unpaid debts, of real estate and investments, a business, or a non-family farm, plus cash, savings, and checking accounts. In 1993-94, the net value of the principal residence and the net value of a family farm on which the family resides was eliminated from all EFC formulas.

Table 12: Distribution of Title IV Applicants by Pell Grant Eligibility Status and Income Range

Table 12 presents a distribution of Title IV applicants by Federal Pell Grant eligibility status and income range. Unlike other tables in the End-of-Year Report, Table 12 is based on data collected by the Management Information System (MIS) of the Central Processing System

(CPS). It contains information on the total Title IV applicant pool rather than total recipients. The family income categories used in Table 12 are derived from the CPS MIS reports and consequently differ from other tables in this report.

Table 13: Federal Pell Grant Recipient Enrollment Status by Type and Control of Institution

Table 13 shows the distribution of Federal Pell Grant recipients by enrollment status and type and control of institution. For recipients whose progress is measured in credit hours, enrollment status is expressed as full-time, three-quarter-time, half-time, and less than half-time. The Other category includes persons who changed enrollment status during the year or who had no enrollment status reported, such as students enrolled in clock hour programs.

Table 14: Summary Statistics for Federal Pell Grant Professional Judgement Filers

Table 14 provides summary statistics for the small percent of applicants who received professional judgement adjustments from their financial aid administrator. Professional judgements refer to the authority given to financial aid administrators to adjust the components of an applicant's EFC or cost of education based on extenuating personal circumstances.

Table 15: Distribution of Verified Federal Pell Grant Recipients by Family Income and Grant Level

Table 15 presents family income and grant levels for recipients selected for verification, 41.3 percent of the recipient population.

Verification is a process by which applicants for Federal student aid who meet error-prone criteria are selected and required to present to the institution's financial aid administrator those forms (such as a Federal income tax return and W-2 statements) which confirm the accuracy of the information they reported on their applications.

Section 4: Students by Application Source

Table 16: Summary Statistics by Application Source

Table 16 presents summary statistics by application source for all Title IV applicants. These statistics include information on all applicants, valid applicants (applicants less applications returned for insufficient data and never re-submitted), and applicants selected for verification, as well as data on Federal Pell Grant recipients by application source.

In 1998-99, a student applied for Title IV student aid in one of several ways. Paper application forms were sent to either American College Testing (ACT) Program or National Computer Systems (NCS). The student's school could transmit the application directly to the Central Processing System (CPS) using an electronic application or electronic renewal application process. The student could also apply electronically using the FAFSA Express software or via World Wide Web.

Section 7: Characteristics by Formula Type

Table 23: Distribution of Federal Pell Grant Recipients by Type and Control of Institution and Formula Type.

Table 23 presents the distribution of recipients by type and control of institution and formula. Six different formulae are used to determine Federal Pell Grant eligibility and are applied according to the applicant's dependency status and qualification for the Simplified Needs Test (SNT). Under the SNT, assets are excluded from the need analysis if the family income is less than $50,000 and the family was not required to file a 1040 federal tax return.

Formulae 1, 2, and 3 are for students not meeting the SNT. Formula 1 is used for dependent applicants; Formula 2 is used for independent applicants who are single or married without other dependents; and Formula 3 is used for independent applicants with dependents other than a spouse. Formula 4, 5, and 6 apply to the same dependency categories, respectively, but are used for applicants meeting the SNT.

Glossary

Automatic Zero EFC: If the parents of a dependent applicant or an independent applicant with dependents, reports adjusted gross income of $12,000 or less, and files a 1040A, 1040EZ, or is a non-tax filer, then the applicant receives a zero EFC, regardless of other aspects of the family's financial circumstances.

Average Grant: The sum of all grant awards divided by the number of Federal Pell Grant recipients.

Award Period: The period of time from July 1 of one year to June 30 of the next year. The award period covered in this 1998-99 End-of-Year Report is July 1, 1998 to June 30, 1999.

C%: Column Percent. The number of responses in each cell within a column as a percentage of the total number of responses in the column.

Control of Institution: Refers to whether an educational institution is public, private, non-profit, or proprietary.

Dependent Recipient: An individual receiving a Federal Pell Grant who is dependent on his or her parent for financial support. To be considered dependent in 1998-99, the student

- Is under 24 years of age, or
- Is not a veteran of active service in the U.S. Armed Forces, or
- Is not an orphan or ward of the court, or
- Does not have legal dependents, or
- Is not married or a graduate or professional student.

Educational Cost: The cost of attending an institution offering postsecondary education coursework for a full academic year. In 1998-99, educational costs considered by Federal Pell Grant awards purposes include tuition and fees, and an allowance established by the institution for the cost of books, supplies, transportation, and miscellaneous expenses. There is also a room and board allowance, set by the institution, of at least $1,500 for students without dependents living at home with their parents, and at least $2,500 for all other students enrolled at least half time. Certain additional allowances, such as provisions for child care and costs of special services or equipment required by handicapped students, are also permitted.

EFC: Expected Family Contribution. Number given to the applicant, based upon the applicant's financial strength as indicated by factors such as family income, net assets, and household size, which is combined with the applicant's educational cost and enrollment status (full time, three-quarter time, half time, or less than half time) to determine the applicant's grant level.

Electronic Application: Introduced in 1990-91, the U.S. Department of Education's process for submitting applications for Title IV Federal Aid electronically directly to the Central Processing System, either directly from the institution, from software provided to the student, or via the World Wide Web.

Eligible Applicant: Individual who has submitted an official application for a Federal Pell Grant and has been determined eligible to receive a grant because of sufficient financial need. An eligible applicant in 1998-99 had an EFC of $2,800 or less.

Expenditures: Funds awarded to Federal Pell Grant recipients for an award period.

Family Income: One of the primary factors considered in determining eligibility for a Federal Pell Grant. In this report, family income is considered to be the sum of a family's adjusted gross income (or earned income for non-tax filers), and non-taxable income (including non-educational social security benefits, Aid to Families with Dependent Children, and child support).

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA): The Department of Education form that may be used to apply for a Federal Pell Grant as well as other forms of Federal aid.

Formula Type: Six different formulae are used to determine Pell Grant eligibility and are applied according to the applicants dependency status and qualification for the Simplified Needs Test (SNT).

- Formula 1 is used for dependent applicants not meeting the SNT.
- Formula 2 is used for independent applicants without dependents other than a spouse not meeting the SNT.
- Formula 3 is used for independent applicants with dependents other than a spouse not meeting the SNT.
- Formula 4 is used for dependent applicants who qualify for the SNT.
- Formula 5 is used for independent applicants without dependents other than a spouse who qualify for the SNT.
- Formula 6 is used for independent applicants with dependents other than a spouse who qualify for the SNT.

Independent Recipients: An individual receiving a Federal Pell Grant who is not dependent on his or her parent for financial support. To be considered independent in 1998-99, the student...

- Is 24 years old or older, or
- Is a veteran of active service in the U.S. Armed Forces, or
- Is an orphan or ward of the court, or
- Has legal dependents, or
- Is a graduate, professional or married student, or
- The FAA makes a documented determination of independence by reason of unusual circumstances.

Ineligible Applicant: Individual who has submitted an official application for a Federal Pell Grant but has been determined ineligible to receive a grant because of insufficient financial need. An ineligible applicant in 1998-99 had an EFC greater than $2,800.

N: Number. The number of applicants, recipients, or other values found in each table cell.

Net Asset Level: Estimated monetary value of an applicant's (or applicant's family if the applicant is a dependent) assets, minus the applicant's liabilities. Factors considered in estimating net asset level include the value of investments, business, non-family farm, and all debts against those assets, plus cash and bank accounts. Home and family farm are not included in determining Net Asset Level.

Professional Judgement: The FAA's ability to change a student's dependency status (dependent to independent only), adjust the components of the Cost of Attendance and/or components of the EFC (income or asset levels).

R%: Row Percent. The number of responses in each cell within a row as a percentage of the total number of responses in the row.

Renewal Application: Introduced in 1992-93, the renewal application allows schools to draw down records for returning students from the prior year, print a renewal application for the student, and key enter and transmit the data electronically to the Central Processing System. Alternatively, the student can be sent a paper renewal application directly from the Central Processing System (CPS), and the completed application is then sent by the student to the CPS.

SAR: Student Aid Report. A report provided to an applicant showing the applicant's EFC. The applicant must submit an SAR to the institution he or she plans to attend in order to receive an award.

Simplified Needs Test: Eligibility calculation based on a reduced set of family and financial indicators, comprised of: family size, the number of family members enrolled in college at least half-time, adjusted gross income, (or earnings, in the case of non-tax filers), Federal income taxes paid, and untaxed income and benefits. To qualify for the Simplified Needs Test (SNT) a student (or student and parents, for a dependent) must file or be eligible to file an IRS Form 1040A or 1040EZ (not a 1040) or be a non-tax filer, and must have a combined adjusted gross income (or earnings) of less than $50,000.

Title IV: The section of the Higher Education Act of 1965 that pertains to federal student financial aid programs. Title IV applicants data may be used to determine eligibility for programs other than the Pell Grant Program.

Type and Control of Institution: Institutions are classified according to the length of programs and control of the institution

- 4-year public or private, non-profit, includes colleges offering baccalaureate and/or graduate programs.

- 2-year public or private, non-profit usually denotes a community college of vocational/technical school.
- Proprietary refers to private, profit-making schools offering primarily programs of 2 years or less in duration. It also includes a small number of schools with programs greater than 2 (but less than 4) years in length.

Valid Application: An application with sufficient data to calculate an EFC. A graduate is not considered a valid applicant for Pell Grant purposes.

Verification: The process by which applicants for Federal student aid who meet error-prone criteria are selected and required to present to the institution's financial aid administrator those forms (such as a Federal income tax return and W-2 statements) which confirm the accuracy of the information they reported on their applications.
