

2. Employment with research institutions, state and local governments, pharmaceutical companies, health care industries, or other organizations that may be affected by Dr. D'Agostino's participation in particular matters of general applicability (No interests currently reported);
3. Grants, contracts, or other funding for research or other services received from the Federal Government that might be affected by Dr. D'Agostino's participation in particular matters of general applicability (No interests currently reported);
4. ~~Grants, contracts, or other funding for research or other services received from non-federal entities, including industries and foundations, that might be affected by Dr. D'Agostino's participation in particular matters of general applicability, for example, member of _____, Advisory Board, and consultant to _____~~
5. Expert witness, litigation or advocacy services in matters that might be affected by Dr. D'Agostino's participation in particular matters of general applicability (No interests currently reported);
6. Any interest of a group or organization in which Dr. D'Agostino is appointed as an officer, director, trustee, employee, or general partner that might be affected by Dr. D'Agostino's participation in particular matters of general applicability (No interests currently reported);

As a consultant to the Center for Drug Evaluation and Research, Dr. D'Agostino potentially could become involved in matters that could affect his financial interests or the ~~financial interests of persons and organizations whose interests~~ impute to him under 18 U.S.C. §208. Under 18 U.S.C. §208, Dr. D'Agostino is prohibited from participating personally and substantially in a particular matter affecting those interests.

However, you have the authority under 18 U.S.C. §208 (b) (3) to grant a waiver permitting Ralph D'Agostino, Ph.D., to participate in particular matters of general applicability.

For the following reasons, I believe that it would be appropriate for you to grant a waiver to Dr. D'Agostino that would permit him to participate in particular matters of general applicability.

First and foremost, this waiver is justified, in part, because of the general nature of particular matters of general applicability. It is well recognized that particular matters of general applicability pose far less risk of a conflict of interest. Particular matters of general applicability include regulations, legislation, guidelines, points-to-consider, and policies governing classes of organizations, individuals, and products. Particular matters of general applicability do not include particular matters involving specific parties, such as specific grants, contracts, recommendations regarding a specific product, or enforcement matters involving known parties. Particular matters of general applicability will not have a unique and distinct impact on any of Dr. D'Agostino's personal or imputed financial interests, but rather may affect classes of similarly situated products and manufacturers to the same extent.

This waiver is also justified because the Agency has a need for Dr. D'Agostino's services, in light of his expertise in statistical analysis. His participation will contribute to the diversity of views and expertise represented with respect to particular matters of general applicability.

Moreover, Dr. D'Agostino will be participating in an advisory capacity only. The Food and Drug Administration has sole discretion concerning action to be taken and policy to be expressed on particular matters of general applicability.

Please note that this waiver only allows participation in particular matters of general applicability. It will not allow Dr. D'Agostino to participate in any matters involving specific

