Re: Federal Agency Media Contacts for the Pacific Northwest and Alaska

Dear Communications Colleague:

Finding an official source to comment on a specific topic can be time consuming and even exasperating, especially in the face of fast-breaking news, unconfirmed leads, and inflexible deadlines.

This directory has been developed to enhance news media access to local federal agencies. The index includes an alphabetical listing, categorized under the appropriate Cabinet-level departments. Independent agencies appear alphabetically. Each agency listing contains a mission statement, geographic responsibilities and a contact person authorized to respond to news inquiries.

On behalf of all federal agencies and National Response Plan signatories with offices in the states of Alaska, Idaho, Oregon and Washington, I particularly want to acknowledge the vanguard efforts of FEMA Region 10 External Affairs Director Mike Howard and Public Affairs Specialist Michael Kundu in developing and editing the directory.

I firmly believe that excellent media relationships are built on access, transparency, responsiveness and credibility. I hope that in facilitating access, the rest will follow. Additional copies of this directory are available for downloading at the FEMA Region 10 site:
<http://www.fema.gov/about/regions/regionx/index.shtm>.

Sincerely,
