Partnership Training; Notice Inviting Applications for New Awards for Fiscal Year (FY) 1997

The following is an excerpt from the U.S. House of Representatives report on the Rehabilitation Act Amendments of 1992, H.R. Rep. No. 102-973, page 117, (1992): "The recruitment, training and retention of personnel continues to be a problem in the provision of vocational rehabilitation services to individuals with disabilities. The personnel training initiative (e.g., demonstration grants and technical assistance) provides an opportunity to train and retain workers who currently hold entry level or paraprofessional positions in public and private agencies that serve individuals with disabilities and have demonstrated a commitment to remaining in the field of vocational rehabilitation."
