SEVENTH. The corporation is to have perpetual existence.

EIGHTH. The private property of the stockholders shall not be subject to the payment of corporate debts to any extent whatever.

NINTH. The number of directors of the corporation shall be fixed from time to time by the By-laws of the corporation, but shall not be less than nine (9) nor more than eleven (11). No director need be a stockholder of the corporation. Any director may be removed at any time by vote, at a special meeting called for the purpose, of the holders of the majority in amount of the issued and out---standing stock of the class by which he (or, if he was appointed to fill a vacancy, his predecessor) was elected.

In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the board of directors is expressly authorized:

To make, alter or repeal the By-laws of the corporation, and to adopt rules and regulations for the conduct of the business of the corporation, subject in each case to such limitations as may be set forth in the By-laws.

To authorize and cause to be executed mortgages and liens upon the real and personal property of the corporation.

To set apart out of any of the funds of the corporation available for dividends a reserve or reserves for any proper purpose and to abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

By resolution passed by a majority of the whole board, to designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of two or more of the directors of the corporation, which, to the extent provided in the resolution or in the By-laws of the corporation, shall have and may exercise the powers of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, and may authorize the seal of the corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it. Such committee or committees shall have such name or names as may be stated in the By-laws of the corporation or as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the board of directors.

TENTH. Meetings of stockholders may be leld outside the State of Delaware, if the By-laws so provide. The books of the corporation may be kept (subject to any provision contained in the statutes) outside the State of Delaware at such place or places as may be designated from time to time by the board of directors or in the By-laws of the corporation. The voting for directors at any meeting of stockholders need not be by ballot unless the By-laws so require.

KLEVENTH. The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this certificate of incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred upon stockholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, being each of the incorporators hereinbefore named, for the purpose of formin; a corporation pursuant to the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, do make this certificate, hereby declaring and certifying that the facts herein stated are true, and accordingly have hereunto set our hands and seals this  $29^{\text{Me}}$ day of Movember , 1961.
