

FY 2009 Supplemental

Protecting the Force, Equipping American Troops, Strengthening National Security

Today, President Bush transmitted to Congress the details for the $70 billion allowance included in the FY 2009 Budget. This provides the necessary resources for ongoing military and intelligence operations for FY09, as well as diplomatic efforts and foreign assistance activities in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom. It also provides resources for other international security activities that advance our national security, including urgent food aid.

FY2009 Supplemental Request ($ in billions)
Department of Defense (includes classified activities)	$66
Department of State and other international operations	$4
Total	$70

Military And Intelligence Operations

- $45.1 billion to fund combat operations and related activities in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom (OIF) and Operation Enduring Freedom (OEF).
- $3.7 billion to expand the size of the Afghan Security Forces and enhance their capacity to conduct counterinsurgency operations independent of U.S. assistance.
- $2.0 billion to sustain efforts to enhance the Iraqi Security Forces' capacity to conduct independent counterinsurgency operations.
- $1.7 billion for the Commander's Emergency Response Program in Iraq and Afghanistan to enable commanders to address local populations' urgent needs and gain support in the fight against insurgents.
- $3.0 billion for classified activities.
- $2.2 billion for projected increased fuel costs.
- $900 million to reimburse partners for logistical, military, and other support in the Global War on Terror.

Caring For Servicemembers And Their Families

- $400 million to maintain and enhance medical and rehabilitation services associated with traumatic brain injury and psychological health issues for our Wounded Warriors returning from Iraq and Afghanistan

Equipment And Force Structure

- $3.0 billion to develop anti-improvised explosive device (IED) technologies and provide pre-deployment training in methods to counter all forms of IEDs.
- $2.6 billion to transport and maintain Mine Resistant Ambush Protected vehicles in theater.
- $1.3 billion to fund acquisition of 28 additional Unmanned Aerial Vehicles and support systems to enhance protection of U.S. and coalition forces.

- $100 million for new force protection equipment in response to emerging threats in order to minimize U.S. casualties.

International Security And Stabilization Activities

- $2.5 billion for ongoing GWOT activities:
 - $1.4 billion for Iraq, including support for Provincial Reconstruction Teams (PRTs), Iraqi refugees and internally displaced persons (IDPs), provincial elections, security and operations, and the Office of the Inspector General.
 - $1.1 billion for Afghanistan, including support for democracy and governance, agriculture, development, counter-narcotics, PRTs, humanitarian activities, and security and operations.
- $770 million for emergency food aid and assistance to address the destabilizing effects of the global food crisis, including support for agriculture programs to increase food security.
- $350 million to expand stability in the Middle East, including $200 million for the West Bank and Gaza, $100 million for Jordan, and $50 million for Lebanon.
- $193.2 million for Pakistan to fund military and economic assistance, increase diplomatic activities in the Federally Administered Tribal Areas, and expand U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) operations.
- $122.9 million to support stabilization activities in Africa, including support for Kenya, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Uganda, USAID operations in Sudan, and the African Union Mission in Somalia.
- $35.6 million for increased diplomatic security support to several Middle East peace missions and personnel in Sudan and Somalia.
- $15 million to advance the six-party talks agreement to address the North Korean nuclear program.