NEWS RELEASE

February 16, 2006

Paul H. Royer Film Series

The annual Paul H. Royer Film series will be held at the Eisenhower Center in Abilene, Kansas, March 2, 9, and 16, 2006, in the Visitors Center auditorium at 7 p.m. each evening. Because of rental restrictions, titles of the movies may not be advertised. Each film was nominated for an academy award in various categories for the 1956 ceremony, fifty years ago during the Eisenhower presidential era. Interested attendees may call the Eisenhower Center at 785-263-6700 or toll free 877 RING IKE to find out the titles or asked to have a flyer mailed to them.

The film series is sponsored by Eisenhower Foundation member, Hank Royer, Jr., in memory of his grandfather, Paul H. Royer, who was an Abilene High School classmate of President Eisenhower. All movies are free and open to the public, with free pop corn and soda. Please call the number(s) above to make a reservation.

The Dwight D. Eisenhower Library is part of the presidential libraries system operated by the National Archives and Records Administration, Washington, D.C.
