Dear Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs Hunt:

As a senior citizen who has contributed much to the enhancement of health education and environment of my society, I deeply resent my life less worthy than those of my children and grandchildren. Tho' they are productive, self reliant citizens, perhaps more so than their colleagues, their contributions have not yet achieved the recognition which mine have & continue to have. My efforts have been in valuing human life. not squandering it on invasions of smaller , less powerful peoples.

Sincerely,

Glenys Spitze
