

The Governments of the United States and Albania concluded an agreement for en bloc settlement of claims of United States nationals against Albania on March 10, 1995. Agreement Between the Government of the United States and the Government of the Republic of Albania on the Settlement of Certain Outstanding Claims, March 10, 1995 (entered into force April 18, 1995) ("Settlement Agreement"). Claims covered by the Settlement Agreement are the claims of United States nationals (including natural and juridical persons) against Albania arising from any nationalization, expropriation, intervention, or other taking of, or measures affecting, property of nationals of the United States prior to the date of this agreement[.]

Settlement Agreement, Article 1(a).

The claimant in this case has stated that the property which is the subject of his claim was confiscated by the Albanian government in 1947 or 1948. The claimant asserts that the property was owned by his father, a United States citizen and by his father's brother.

By Commission letters dated December 14, 1995 and April 29, 1996 the claimant was asked to provide certain evidence to substantiate his claim including evidence of his father's United States nationality and his father's ownership of the property which is the subject of the claim. To date, no response has been received.

Section 531.6(d) of the Commission's regulations provides:

The claimant shall be the moving party, and shall have the burden of proof on all issues involved in the determination of his or her claim.

45 C.F.R. 531.6(d) (1995).

The Commission finds that the claimant has not met the burden of proof in that he has failed to submit supporting evidence to establish the date his father acquired United States nationality, his father's ownership of the property which is the subject of his claim or the date and circumstances of its alleged confiscation. In the absence of such evidence, the Commission is unable to find that, at the time the property in question was assertedly taken by the Albanian government, it was owned by a national of the United States. Accordingly, it must conclude that his claim is not compensable under the terms of the Settlement Agreement. The claim therefore must be and is hereby denied.

The Commission finds it unnecessary to make determinations with respect to other elements of this claim.
